Young Men and Boys

PENNSYLVANIA MILITARY COLLEGE

For a hundred years the Pennsylvania Military College has been making men of boys. During this time thousands of young men have learned here the meaning of honor, thoroughness and discipline.

The College offers four-year courses and degrees in Civil Engineering, Chemistry, Commerce and Finance. Preparatory Division prepares for entrance to any college. Separate Junior School for boys of 12 and upwards.

Early application is imperative. Only sixty new students will be admitted in September.

On September 17th, 1921, the following notice appeared in the Public Ledger:

The Board of Overseers and Staff of the William Penn Charter School announce that registration and enrollment have been completed and that the 233d academic year begins on Tuesday, September 20th, preceded by make-up examinations on Monday, September 19th.

It is especially important this year for prospective patrons of the School to make early arrangements, for the same conditions obtain this season as last.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR SWIMMING POOL
AN English, Classical and Scientific School which prepares boys and young men for college, university or for business life. With its $250,000 specially designed, fireproof building, and with its up-to-date furnishings and appliances, Fishburne is now one of the best equipped military schools in the South. Located about four hours from Washington in the beautiful "Valley of Virginia," near the head waters of the Shenandoah River. From its splendid campus, 1200 feet above sea level, a view of hills and the Blue Ridge Mountains is obtained which enraptures with its beauty. Excellent water, pure, light air and good drainage give the school a notable health record. Classes are kept purposely small, the average being from 8 to 10. The large and able faculty is thus enabled to associate intimately with students and give individual instruction. Rate $500. R. O. T. C. under War Department. Annual Spring Encampment near famous Grottoes.

BINGHAM MILITARY SCHOOL

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA
Sanitation—Safety—Quiet

Bingham is the oldest School for Boys in the Southern States. For Health and Beautiful Natural Scenery it is probably not excelled by any School in the United States. Our visitors are always impressed with the Safety and Sanitation of our large groups of one-story brick buildings. Our boys are supplied each day with milk from our own "Fresh Dairy Herd." Non-Sectarian, but a pronounced Christian influence. Our pupils are received in the leading colleges on our certificates without examination. Our patrons belong to the smaller but higher class of parents who choose the best for their sons. Northern people will be surprised at the low rate for this type of school.
