Continuing Tomorrow Morning, Our August Fur Sale

At Savings That Average ONE-THIRD!

Every concession, however impressive, is a concession of price—never of quality; for the high standard of FORBES' furs must be maintained.

This sale differs from other similar fur sales in many respects. The greatest difference lies in the garments themselves; for in this sale each is of FORBES' well-known standard of excellence and dependability. In this sale there are no poorly made garments especially assembled to sell at a cheap price, but a carefully selected, completely new and widely assorted line of the newest fashions.
