Manager Walter Shissler, New Leader. Announces Personnel of Eleven

GEORGE JOHNSON IS COACH

Little has been heard of the are among those who will sport the fine season outside of the mere fact that the big surburban aggregation would again be on the gridiron, but not until Sunday. The manager would like to bear troin little and Maryland coday did the management disclose the Pulladelphia. The squad at present is not a large me and only eighteen players will be earried for the opening games, a num-her of other prominent stars having agreed to join the team within the next month. Holmesburg introduces next month. Holmesburg introduces a new manager in the person of Leo Shissler, Jr., who takes the place of the veteran Fred, "Pop" Gerker, who directed Holmesburg's gridien destinies for more than a quarter of a censetive participant for several years and is content to go along gradually and develop the team with the season rather than start off with a burrah and blare The team is being coached by George

Johnson, a former tutor, who is credited with being responsible for the success of the Frankford Yellowjackets last year. Johnson is reputed as the best essociate capacity for years. The offi-cers are: President, Earl P. Tomlinson; vice president, James Lawler, and Fred P. Long treasurer.

Cofall at Fullback Manager Shissler will trot out a very formidable eleven for the initial canter. The backfield is one of the best the club has had for the early season games. At fullback will be Stanley Cofall, of Notre Dame, who was a hig favorite with the fans when he tilled the same position with the Philadelphia Quakers. He will be assisted at the halfback posts by Rostos, the former Frankford star, and the veteran Kidder Caskey, of Muhlen-lerg, Norman Gotwals, of Penn, will at quarter, and the substitutes are Jean Shissler and James Mechan, The last named were members of the Holmesburg Reserves, but have shown in practice that they are fully capable and have been advanced along with sec.

The way the team takes the field it ould have little difficulty in winning its early games by large scores, although ing. the visiting elevens are taining the best. Lally, it will be recalled, was the

At left end will be found Stanley Robb, whose prowess at Center College has been heralded far and wide; Jack Potts, a local star and veteran, will old down one of the tackle posts, with Lukens, former Northeast captain, at giard.

Billy Morrison, of Bucknell, this year's captain, will be at center, and on the right ride of the line will be Russell Kurtz, guard, a local player; Boyd Newcomb, of Bucknell, at tackle and Pat Miller at end. The substitutes are Mackenzie and Roy Jacobs.

Play will start at 3 P. M. and will be preceded by the usual game of the reserves. Crystal Field, where Holmesburg holds forth, is at Frankford average and Rhawn street.
