CONFERENCE IN ENGLAND

Secial Cable Dispatch, Copurtant, 1922 Reprinted from Public Ledger

London, Oct. 11 .- That there are no andamentals to prevent a reunion of the Church of England with the Church Rome and that what division exists due to a misunderstanding was a declaration made by Viscount Halifax, for fifty years president of the English Church Union, the meeting of which was one of the preliminaries to the h Congress opening yesterday at Shefield.

Lord Halifax, who is eighty-three, and who told his audience that this was the last occasion on which he ever espected to address them, reported on the progress he and Cardinal Mercier had made in trying to find some means the land of the two charges to cache. nd made in the two churches together, of bringing the two churches together. Viscount Halifax said that a 'mensure agreement' had been reached on such of agreement, had been reached on such points as the derivation of the Pope's divine right of succession from the spostles and on the subject of transmetantiation.

"The result of the discussion we had reach it close that the greater works."

nade it clear that the greater number questions which are supposed to divide England from Rome are due to misanderstanding. No one who has any moveledge of history would contend that n the schism of the sixteenth century the fault was on the Roman Church's side. Are there not sufficient grounds without any sacrifice of prin-riple to accept the Roman position of the primacy of divine appointment havbeen conferred upon Saint Peter t least, to enter into negotiations which might pave the way to some terms Pius XI as our armies welcomed Mar-shal Foch's."

The Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tomkins, sector of Holy Trinity Church, Ninetenth and Walnut streets, was inclined to disbelieve that such a conference had tiken place between Lord Halifax and Cardinal Mercier. "Both Cardinal Mereler and Lord Halifax are aware of the difficulties bing in the way of a union between the Church of England and the Church of Rome." Dr. Tomkins said. "They cannot be overcome by a mere glossing over of words, as the subject of Lord Halifax's address would seem to indi-

Disagree on Ordination

"Cardinal Mercier is a very broad- fare. thurch does not recognize the validity of the ordination of Anglican ministers. The Church at Rome has refused to send delegates to a world conference of desentinations to be held in Washington in two years en 'Faith and Order. They could hardly be willing to unite the Public Ledour. 'Make it a Habit.'— with the Anglican Church having an attitude of that sort.

'On the other hand, the Episcopal clergy do not recognize the Bishop of Rome as having any more authority than any other bishop. The supremacy of the Roman Church was assumed five without authority.

"We are sufficiently acquainted with the history of the period to be confident that no primacy of divine appointment was conferred upon the Bishop of Rome by St. Peter. The rest of the Viscount's speech is poppycock and quite useless to discuss."
