

RAPID PROGRESS of the new Delaware River Bridge is shown in the above photograph, made yesterday. One more block is needed to complete the granite work on this caisson, launched last April 24.

ONE-TIME POSSIBILITY FAST BECOMING A FACT. The above comprehensive view of the actual work accomplished in construction of the Delaware River Bridge was made yesterday, on the Philadelphia side. Excavation work, shown in foreground, goes on apace. The caisson, which must help bear the weight of the greatest highway suspension bridge in the world, is shown in river at end of works, nearly completed.

A GRIDIRON PLEDGE. Three University of Cincinnati footballers who agreed not to shave until their team wins a game. They are, Jack Harrod, Jimmie Nippert and "Babbit" Keith, and haven't shaved for two weeks.

PRINCESS HERMINE, KAISER'S FIANCEE, and her daughter, Princess Carnia. The Kaiser's bride-to-be recently paid tribute to his dead wife, placing a wreath on the grave of the late Empress Augusta of Germany.

A WILLING RECRUIT in her army of admirers was won when Anita Stewart, film star, fastened a rose in the lapel of John Bogden, wounded World War veteran, at the Emergency Aid yesterday.

PRESIDE AT BERGEN TRIAL. Chief Justice Charles W. Parker and County Judge John B. Zabriske, in charge of the Hackensack, N. J., murder trial.

PRINCE AIMONE, of Italy, sailed for U. S. heart whole and fancy free.

WILBUR A. MOTT, newly appointed Deputy Attorney General, in charge of the Hall-Mills murder case.

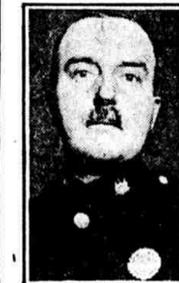

OVER THE TOP of a movie camera was a cinch for this police dog at the trials recently held at Arcola Manor, New Jersey.

SEEN AT THE ROSIER TRIAL. For the first time since the trial commenced Baby Richard did not get an opportunity to see his mother yesterday. Pictured above in crib improvised with aid of chairs at City Hall. Lieutenant H. E. Humphries, Officer B. O'Donnell and Norman McLeod, three witnesses, are shown on right.

SIR ARTHUR Griffith - Bos-cawen, newly appointed Minister of Health.

SIR PHILIP Lloyd - Greame, appointed Board of Trade President.

P. M. C. LOSES ITS MASCOT. Great was the grief felt at the Pennsylvania Military College at the death of "Baby Grid," the mascot bear of the football squad. The funeral procession is pictured above.

HONOR AN UNKNOWN BELGIAN. The burial of an unidentified soldier of King Albert's armies in Père Lachaise Cemetery in Paris as a memorial to all Belgians who died on French soil during the war.

DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE, newly appointed Secretary for Colonies.

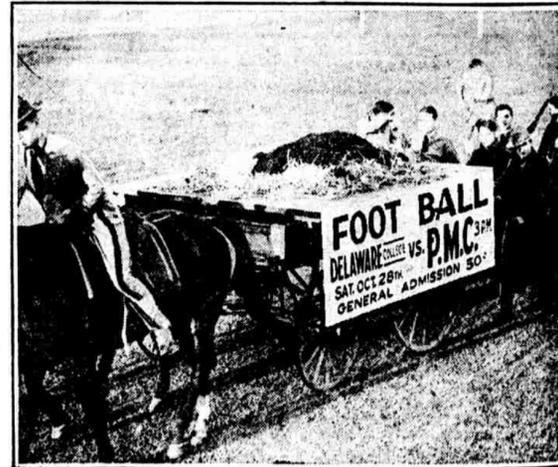

VISCOUNT PEEL, secretary for India in new British Cabinet.

TWO FAIR HOCKEYISTS of Friends Central, Miss Betty Eyer and Miss Elizabeth Pfau, snapped by the camera while at practice yesterday. Their team is working hard every day for future contests.

SIR PHILIP Lloyd - Greame, appointed Board of Trade President.

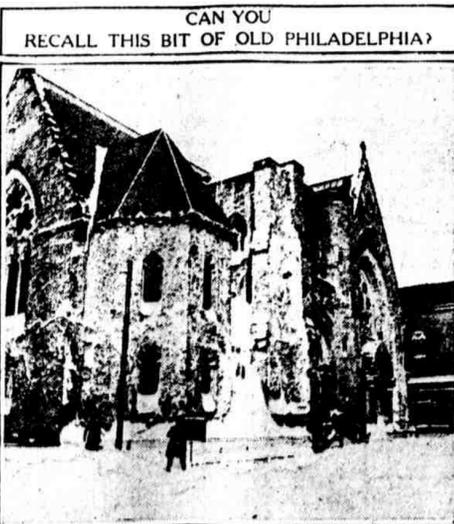

P. M. C. LOSES ITS MASCOT. Great was the grief felt at the Pennsylvania Military College at the death of "Baby Grid," the mascot bear of the football squad. The funeral procession is pictured above.

MISS HELEN CAMPBELL, daughter of Representative Campbell, of Kansas.

PERFORM FOR THE PRINCE OF WALES. Boy Scouts of Royal College for the Blind demonstrating first-aid at recent rally in England, shown on the left. On the right is pictured a life-saving drill.

WHERE ARE THE SNOWS OF YESTERYEAR? N. W. Corner of Broad and Spruce during blizzard of 1899. The Atlantic Refining Company's building now replaces the church. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs.

SCREEN IDOL DANGEROUS? G. L. V. lace Reid, said to have gone to sanatorium, recover from nervous breakdown. Shown above with his son and adopted daughter.

JOSEPH COLLINGSWOOD, one of Friends Central's husky footballers.

JOHN PASSANT, Friends Central's quarterback, kicking the ball.