

MISS PASSMORE IS RELEASED ON BAIL

Lawyers Get Privilege for Girl Who Left Court During Session

WAS HELD IN MOTOR DEATH

Miss Mary E. Passmore, of Nottingham, Chester County, a niece of E. F. Passmore, president of the Bank of North America, who walked out of the Coroner's Court yesterday despite the fact that she was held without bail for causing the death of Martha Hann, 56 years old, 519 North Randolph street, was permitted to enter bail in Quarter Sessions Court at West Chester today.

Arrangements for the bail were made between Attorneys Holden and Harvey, counsel for Miss Passmore, and Assistant District Attorney H. R. McCowan. Much amusement was caused by the action of Miss Passmore, as she had been requested to remain in the court by Deputy Coroner Sellers. Mr. McCowan said he would be responsible for her and then received the commitment from Mr. Sellers.

Although several attorneys expressed the belief that unusual privileges had been given Miss Passmore, it was announced today by Mr. Sellers that she would have to undergo the same procedure as any other defendant.

Some attorneys in Chester County raised the contention that Mr. Sellers exceeded his authority in holding a defendant for a death in Chester County. Martha Hann was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Passmore on the Baltimore Pike near West Chester, but she died at the University Hospital. This threw the case in the jurisdiction of the Coroner of Philadelphia County.

Ernest Harvey, of the law firm of Holden & Harvey, said that the West Chester authorities were not making any special ruling in the case.

"Miss Passmore is held for the Grand Jury," he said, "just the same as any other defendant charged with a similar offense."

Miss Passmore declined to give any reason for her action in walking out of court.

SEARCH OF AUTOS UPHELD

No Warrants Required by Dry Agents, Michigan Court Rules Lansing, Mich., Nov. 3.—(By A. P.) The right of police officers to search automobiles for evidence of liquor violations without the formality of a search warrant was upheld by the Michigan Supreme Court in an opinion today.

Three of the seven members of the court, however, filed a dissenting opinion, holding that the ruling was "an American, arbitrary and despotic" and rendered all persons "subject to uncontrollable espionage and visitation by the police."

Woman Collapses After Drinking

After having several drinks in a West Philadelphia saloon with William J. Davis, fifty-ninth street and Elmwood avenue, Helen Conway, of Dagon, O., fell unconscious in the street this morning. Davis took her to the Central Hospital. He was held by the police of the Fifteenth and Vine streets station pending an investigation.

CUYLER FUNERAL SUNDAY

Services for Railroad Executive in Second Presbyterian Church Funeral services for Thomas DeWitt Cuyler, railroad executive, who was found dead yesterday morning in a private car in Broad Street Station, will be conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Second Presbyterian Church, Twenty-first and Walnut streets. The burial will be private. Mr. Cuyler was president of the board of trustees of the church.

Because of the death of Mr. Cuyler, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stocesbury have recalled invitations sent by them for entertainment next week. Mr. Stocesbury also called off the farmers' dinner scheduled for last evening, and a congregational reception to have been held at the Second Presbyterian Church this afternoon has been postponed.

Deaths of a Day

Isaac E. Goodman Funeral services for Isaac E. Goodman, an insurance broker at 522 Walnut street for the last fifteen years, were conducted this morning at his home, 21-40 North Gray street. Interment was by Adna Fisher (Doubleday Cemetery). Mr. Goodman, who was sixty-two years old, died at his home Tuesday after a long illness. He is survived by his wife and three children, Allen Goodman, Mrs. Lester Bloch and Miss Tracy W. Goodman.

Features for Tomorrow's Public Ledger Book Pages

THE REV. DR. FLOYD W. TOMKINS deals with "Confessions of an Old Priest," by the Rev. S. D. McConnell, D. D. (Macmillan). LANGDON WARNER, director of the Pennsylvania Museum, calls Onondowick's "Beasts, Men and Gods" (Dutton) "greatest chronicle since the days of Marco Polo." "A HAMILTON GIBBS reviews "Escape," by Jeffery E. Jeffery, (Saltzer). C. M. MORRISON comments on "The Letters of Franklin K. Lane," (Houghton Mifflin). BURTON KLINE finds delight in "Delaware and the Eastern Shore," by E. N. Vallandigham, (Lippincott). REVIEWS of latest fiction including "COMMAND," by William McVey (Doubleday Page), "GIGGLES," by Edna Fisher (Doubleday Page); "A MORE HONORABLE MAN," by Arthur Somers Roche (Macmillan); "TREMENDOUS ADVENTURES," by Dion Clayton Calthrop (Stokes); "AN AFFIC SALT-SHAKER," by W. S. E.

SCHOOL CHILDREN GIVE UP PARTY TO AID REFUGEES

Huey Pupils Deny Themselves Halloween Fete to Send $10.20 to Near East Relief

Children in Room 2 of the Huey Public School, Fifty-second and Pine streets, gave up a Halloween party to answer the call for help for refugees of the Smyrna disaster. The money they had saved for the affair, totaling $10.20, was sent to Mrs. S. Wing, treasurer of the Near East Relief, along with this letter, signed "on behalf of the class," by Dorothy Moore, one of the pupils: "We, indeed, will respond to the call of the hungry and destitute children of the famine-stricken country around Smyrna. We are only children, but still there is no reason why we should not answer the call to duty. "The children and teacher of Room 2 have gladly given up our Halloween celebration so that we might give our savings to a much more worthy cause. I am also sure, Mr. Wing, that we do not in the least regret what we have done and hope that the enclosed check will help to save the lives of those poor starving children. "John J. Garner, Jr., of 1912 South Croaker street came into the Near East Relief headquarters, Broad and Locust streets, yesterday and left fifteen cents to be sent to Smyrna refugees. "This means a whole lot to me, but I'm glad to share it with some of those

FAIR DIRECTORS TO PASS ON FUNDS

Stotesbury Expected to End Silence on $20,000,000 Project Plag

The Board of Directors of the Sesqui-Centennial Association will meet in the Bellevue-Stratford this afternoon to discuss ways and means of raising the $20,000,000 necessary to finance the fair.

MEET THIS AFTERNOON

Members of the board, as well as many others who favor an international exposition in Philadelphia in 1926, are waiting with interest to learn the attitude of E. T. Stotesbury, chairman of the Permanent Finance Committee, since it has been definitely decided that the fair will not cost over $20,000,000. Mr. Stotesbury's committee, composed of Mr. Mason, Ellis A. Gimbel, John Wannamaker, Mrs. Arthur H. Lea and himself, has not met since October 15th's election, and therefore has no report to submit to today's meeting of the board. On the contrary the Special Finance Committee, composed of Mr. Mason, Mr. Gimbel, Judge Bonnell and Richard Wagoner, has been exceedingly active. Upon his return from Europe Mr. Stotesbury said he did not favor a large international exhibition, but he has no intention, however, whether he considers $20,000,000 within the scope of a "large international exhibition."

WORLD WAR VETERAN IS VICTIM OF GASSING

Neighbors of John J. Flynn Draps Homes as Tribute

The neighborhood of Twenty-seventh and Wharton streets is paying tribute today to the memory of John Joseph Flynn, twenty-eight-year-old veteran of the World War, who died Sunday as a result of being gassed with the United States Army in France.

Popular sympathy for Flynn's family, his wife and three small children is shown by draped American flags projecting from houses in the block. Flynn enlisted early in the war and was in France eight months. Tomorrow he will be given a military funeral. The services will be attended by detachments of soldiers from John B. Garland Post, American Legion, and from the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

CITY TAX TOTALS DROP

$2,379,208 Was Collected During Month of October During October $2,379,208 was collected in taxes by the city. The total collected for the first ten months of the year was $24,548,812.

This sum is $120,000 less than taken in for the first ten months of last year. The tax rate for this year is twenty-five cents less than last.

IF IT'S A USED AUTOMOBILE, YOU WANT TO FIND IT ON PAGE 37.—Ad.

$100,000 ESTATE INVOLVED IN ATLANTIC CITY ARREST

Woman Says She Signed Complaint Against Husband Under Duress

Atlantic City, Nov. 3.—A lost will, involving possession of an estate in Virginia, alleged to be valued at $100,000, was given today as the reason for the arrest of William I. Fisher, store detective, who was brought before Magistrate Max Rheinberger last night charged with non-support of his wife and family.

Fisher was released when his wife appeared with an attorney and swore that she had signed the complaint under duress. She is charged with the same by mutual consent, although, it was stated, the husband has contributed to the family's support.

William V. Sinclair of Rosslyn, Va., a brother of Mrs. Fisher, is charged by her with having appeared in her home accompanied by Steven A. Armstrong, of Washington, D. C., said to be a private detective, and by threats with making her sign the warrant. She reported afterward and personally went to the justice of the peace and had the warrant quashed. The two men were then arrested and held under $1000 bail for "investigation."

According to Fisher, he and his wife are contesting the proposed settlement of an estate of a deceased aunt. He charges that Sinclair wanted him out of the way so that his plans would not be hampered.

SAVED BY SENSE OF HUMOR

Recently in that remarkable case, "As the Woman Says It," Sarah D. Lowrie completed the long and arduous task of editing the "Ladies' Edition" of the "Public Ledger." She appears regularly in the "Evening Public Ledger," a Habit.—Ad.

MRS. CHARLOTTE THOMAS

Old-Time Germantown Resident a Victim of Heart Attack

Charlotte M. R. Thomas, seventy-two years old, was found dead yesterday in the parlor of her home, 5447 Morris street, Germantown. She was descended from Jacob Rinker, one of the earliest inhabitants of Germantown.

Mrs. Thomas will be buried tomorrow in Ivy Hill Cemetery. The Rev. William P. Lee, pastor of the Westside Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Mrs. Thomas was reading a newspaper when she was struck by a heart attack. She is survived by four sisters and two brothers. Her husband died sixteen years ago.

MOTORTRUCKS KILL TWO CHILDREN HERE

Boy Run Down on Dauphin Street, Girl in Oak Lane

Two children were killed yesterday by motortrucks. A truck driven by Alexander Hamilton, 4500 Merion avenue, struck and killed Anthony Pote, fourteen years old, 2312 Aramingo avenue, last night, as he was crossing Dauphin street near his home. The driver made every effort to stop his six-ton truck, which was loaded with gravel. The boy was rushed to St. Mary's Hospital, where physicians said death had been instantaneous. The driver was arrested.

Mary Beigfried, ten years old, 7215 Chestnut avenue, Oak Lane, was fatally injured yesterday, when she was run over by a truck near her home. A passing motorist picked up the child and took her to the Jewish Hospital, where she died a short time later. Ogontz police later arrested George Black, Oxford Pike, Lansdale, driver of the truck. According to witnesses, the girl was playing on the street and fell under the truck as it passed her.

G. O. P. WOMEN ISSUE PAPER

Pennsylvania Elephant Makes Its Bow With Interesting Number The Pennsylvania Elephant, a monthly magazine for Republican women made its first appearance today, in time for spirited comment and advice on next Tuesday's election.

An etching of Clifford Pinchot, from a drawing by Dorothy Fischer is on the front cover. Signed articles were contributed to this first issue by Florence Riddick Boyd, women's publicity editor for the Republican National Committee; Mrs. Lucretia Blankenbush; Mrs. George Horace Lorimer; Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, first vice chairman of the Republican National Executive Committee, and Miss Sarah D. Lowrie of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

The issue contains a forceful appeal from Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, vice chairman of the Republican State Committee, who called for a Republican victory by an overwhelming majority.

The publication office is at 1315 Cherry street.

WILL OF STERRETT TO BE READ TODAY

Prosecutors and Poison Cake Victim's Lawyers and Brothers to Be Present

The will of W. W. Sterrett, poisoned by a cake sent through the mails to his Devon home, will be read this afternoon in the administration offices of the Philadelphia Trust Company. Prosecutor Windle, Assistant Prosecutor McGowan, the Sterrett lawyers, and three of Mr. Sterrett's brothers will be present.

WIFE TO BE QUIZZED AGAIN

Mrs. Sterrett, who also was poisoned, will not be sent home today from the Bryn Mawr Hospital. It was said her condition remained unchanged.

Chief Inspector Williamson and Prosecutor Windle will visit the hospital after the will is read and again question Mrs. Sterrett.

JUDGE ROGERS' FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

Honorary Pallbearers Are Members of Common Pleas Courts Funeral services for Judge Joseph P. Rogers, who died Wednesday forenoon, are to be held at his home, 2412 Golf road, Wynnefield, tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Following the services at the home, reunion mass will be celebrated at St. Matthias' Church, Bryn Mawr and Highland avenues, at 10 o'clock. The interment, at St. Denis Cemetery, Ardmore, is to be private.

The honorary pallbearers will be members of the Common Pleas Courts of this city, as follows: Judges William H. Shoenaker, Charles E. Bart-Cherry street.

TWO BURNED IN FIRE AT BROAD AND GIRARD

Neonday Blaze in Dyeing Establishment Quickly Extinguished

Two workmen were burned today during a fire in the dyeing establishment of Ashton Dorfner & Sons, 1824 West Girard avenue. They are Alfred Loose, fifty years old, 1514 North Tenth street, and Herman Berlin, twenty-one years old, 808 North Sixth street. They were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. Their condition is not serious.

The fire was extinguished in a few minutes before it could spread to chemicals. Olga Dorfner, swimming star, now Mrs. Harry E. Schoenbut, is a daughter of the founder of the business.

Man Shot in Poolroom Fight

During a quarrel in a poolroom at 3020 West York street early today George Coles, proprietor of the place, shot Paul Brokina, thirty-first and York streets, in the stomach. Brokina was taken to the Samaritan Hospital. Coles was arrested and will have a hearing before Magistrate Belcher at the Park and Lehigh avenues station.

APARTMENTS TO SUIT EVERY PURSE

and most every requirement may be found quickly by consulting the apartment columns on page 58.—Ad.

Diamonds Supreme quality and the brilliance only to be secured by correct cutting. J. E. CALDWELL & Co. CHESTNUT STREET BELOW BROAD

America's Foremost Specialists OPPENHEIM, COLLINS & Co. Chestnut and 12th Sts. For Tomorrow—Saturday Very Extraordinary Values Offered

Women's and Misses' Coats Misses' fur trimmed Sport Coats, of novelty tweeds, with shawl collar of raccoon. Value $59.75 45.00 Misses' Coats, straightline and bloused models, beaver, wolf and caracul trimmed. Value $75.00 55.00 Women's Coats of Arabella with cord trimming and collar of self material or fur. Value $98.00 85.00 Women's Coats of Marvella, richly trimmed with beaver, caracul and squirrel. Value $135.00 115.00

Will Close Out Tomorrow—Saturday Richly Furred Three-Piece Suits Fur Trimmed Three-Piece Suits.....Value $98.00.. 69.50 Fox Trimmed Three-Piece Marvella Suits.....Value $125.00.. 89.50 Wolf Trimmed Three-Piece Marleen Suits.....Value $150.00.. 98.00 Fur Trimmed and Braided Marleen Suits.....Value $175.00.. 125.00

Women's and Misses' Dresses Misses' Cloth Dresses in flare and basque models, also Canton Crepe Dresses. Value $35.00 22.50 Women's and Misses' Dresses of Georgette, Canton and richly beaded silk crepe. Value $55.00 38.00 Imported beaded Dresses of silk crepe, also Dresses of Georgette and Canton. Value $75.00 48.00 Women's and Misses' high cost Dresses of chiffon, Georgette and satin Canton. Value $95.00 58.00

HARRIS Coats and Wraps Styles that follow the mode, though adding the exquisite little touches that make "Harris" selections different to the point of exclusiveness. Yet prices are held to moderation. Our long experience as manufacturers and designers demonstrates its value now in quality of fabric and style of these Coats; plain and fur-trimmed. 49.50 to 375.00 Typical of the Many Unusual Values Coats of the wanted materials; beaver and squirrel collars. 75.00 Coats in blouse, straight and draped. Richly fur trimmed. 110.00 EXTRAORDINARY OFFERING Entire Stock of Dresses For Misses and Women An exceptional opportunity to select from a most diversified collection at prices that argue worth-while value-giving. Canton Crepes Poiret Twill Satins Metal Cloths Velvet Chiffon Lace Taffetas Brocade Chiffons 19.00 29.50 39.50 to 175.00 Values 39.50 to 225.00 JUVENILE APPAREL "Different"—as pretty as it is practical and low of price. Coats in an assortment of styles, for every age from 2 to 16. The larger sizes appropriate and of line suitable for the Miss and little Woman. Coats of mannish tweed, lined or with solid color backs. } 15.00 Ages 6 to 16..... Sets—Special—2 to 6 Years. Smart Coat and Hat } 32.50 to match..... } 6.95 Coat—Special—2 to 6 Years. Chinchilla, with belt, notched collar..... } 6.95 Coats for Dress—Plain and Fur-trimmed. Of bolivia; some have collars of opossum and nutria Ages 6 to 16, } 35.00 to 45.00 Children's Hats, 2.95 to 8.95 A selection that includes correct style for every type, for every need from school to dress. Of felt, scratched felt, velours, duvetyne and velvet. We Specialize in Apparel That Slenderizes the Larger Woman