CONSUMERS' STRIKE FORCES WAGE DROP IN TEXTILE MILLS

And pulled out a dear little rug in soft colors, exactly the price the little old lady could afford to pay. It had been marked down, the Grand Person said, and he asked her about the color of the curtains, and what do you think—when he looked at the price tag again it was lower than he thought, and there would be enough left to buy two pairs of curtains!

And the Grand Person went to the department with the little old lady, and she was a queen in disguise or something, and worked as hard to show her exactly the right kind of curtain for her windows, as if she'd been going to buy out the store.

No wonder the Grand Person is a floor manager or something—he's a human being as well as a business man. And he knew just how bewildered and anxious the little old lady was, the minute he looked at her, and how tired and discouraged she was getting when he caught sight of her. I wonder if he thought, too, the warm surge of comfort that came over him when he took her under his protection and acted as if she were worth looking at even if she was old and tired and a little shabby?

What a great thing it is to be a gentleman—even if you can only show it in the courtly manner with which you sell a rug!

I saw a man in one of the rug departments that very day who acted as if every one who came in to look at a rug was a connoisseur nobody who had to be taken down somehow, and he was the one appointed by those on high to accomplish the task.

He had a bullying, dictatorial manner, and a contemptuous smile that ought to put him out on the country road breaking stones for a living.

Does He Know?

I wonder what kind of a crushed, seared little woman he keeps locked up in the place he calls "home." But, most of all, I wonder how on earth he keeps his position for five minutes.

I wouldn't buy a rug of him if he gave it to me half-price, and every floor in my house were bare. I wonder if he ever realizes why his sales are so few, or if he thinks shoppers are a head-bolted lot, anyhow, and don't know what they want or why they want it.

Yes, if I were a big merchant I'd get out Aunt Sally to come in from the country every so often and go shopping—not only in my own shop, but in every other shop in town. And I'd have my stenographer in the room with her notebook handy, when Aunt Sally began to tell me the story of her day's rounds.

Public Attitude Blamed by President of American Woolen Company.

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 10.—The public attitude against maintaining the wages of textile workers at high wartime rates, William Wood, president of the American Woolen company, said Monday night in reference to the reduction of 22 1/2 per cent in the wages of operatives in the 50 mills of that company which was announced Monday. This cut brought into the lower wage levels of the textile trade in New England, the last important manufacturing interest involved.

Addressing the overseers of the American Woolen company's four mills in this city, at a dinner Mr. Wood said that the decision to reduce wages was reached "with a full regard for what is just" to the company's workers. "If the prevailing rate of wages could have been maintained, I would have only been no glider," he said, "but the attitude of the public is against it. They will not pay the prices which the present wages involve and we must all of us bow to the public will."

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Helena, Jan. 10.—Co-operative marketing and buying associations to be composed of men in the agricultural or horticultural industries would be legalized by the provisions of a bill which is to be introduced by Senator W. E. Harmon of Gallatin county for which notice was given Monday. It authorizes the formation of such associations "instituted for the purpose of mutual help and not having capital stock or conducted for profit."

The bill will provide that five or more persons engaged in the production of agricultural or horticultural crops may form a non-profit co-operative association to carry on the business of storing, processing, shipping or marketing such agricultural or horticultural products.

Crop Contracts' Text.

Under the subject of crop contracts, the bill reads:

"The by-laws may require the members to sell all or any part of their specifically enumerated agricultural or horticultural products and to buy all or any part of their specifically enumerated supplies exclusively through the association, but in no case may specification of a reasonable period, in each year, during which any member by giving to the association the notice prescribed in the by-laws, may withdraw and be released from his obligation to employ the services of the association in respect to such products and supplies."

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

A Cincinnati Barber Tells How to Make a Remedy for Gray Hair.

A well known resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce bay rum, a small box of Barb's compound and 4 ounce glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

'TARIFF' ON LABOR MORRISON URGES BEFORE SENATORS

We Object to Throwing Doors Wide Open With 1,819,272 Jobless in U. S.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Protection for the American laborer from foreign "imports" on an equality with the protection accorded American products by tariff laws, was asked of the senate immigration committee Monday by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Morrison added that the position of the federation was that of straight-out protection, without any reservation for a period of two years from alien labor. "We object," said Mr. Morrison, "to throwing the doors wide open, flooding the American labor market with cheap European labor and denying the American workers the same protection you give his products under the tariff laws."

He told the committee that reports just received from labor officials in 111 cities showed the total number of unemployed in those places to be 1,819,272, and said he would not dare estimate what the total of all cities would show. Figures submitted by Mr. Morrison showed the unemployed in Greater New York to be 300,000; Detroit, 150,000; Philadelphia, 235,000; Baltimore, 20,000; Chicago, 200,000; Cleveland, 115,000; St. Louis, 40,000; Boston, 50,000; Milwaukee, 40,000; San Francisco, 15,000; Seattle, 9,000, and Pittsburgh 20,000.

"It is a high crime," Mr. Morrison continued, "for any man in the face of these figures to advocate bringing millions of men from Europe and adding them to the number of unemployed already here."

SYMPTOMS WOMEN DREAD

Mrs. Wilson's Letter Should Be Read by All Women

Clearfield, Pa.—"After my last child was born last September I was unable to do all of my own work. I had severe pains in my left side every month and had fever and sick dizzy spells and such pains during my periods, which lasted two weeks. I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing others so much good and thought I would give it a trial. I have been very glad that I did, for now I feel much stronger and do all of my work. I tell my friends when they ask me what helped me, and they think it must be a grand medicine. And it is. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish."

—Mrs. HARRY A. WILSON, R. F. D. 5, Clearfield, Pa.

The experience and testimony of such women as Mrs. Wilson prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct such troubles by removing the cause and restoring the system to a normal condition. When such symptoms develop as backache, bearing-down pains, displacements, nervousness and "the blues" a woman cannot too promptly try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
