Friend, Foe Comment on Inauguration of Harding

French See Champion; Must Remedy Unrest, Tokio; Outlook Drab, Vienna; Rome Hopeful.

Paris, March 5.—French official circles, after careful study of President Harding's inaugural address, regarded it as justifying French opinion that the United States would always champion France in matters of right and justice.

Orders, issued Friday, opening the White House gates to the public gave a new touch of life to the executive offices and grounds when visitors flocked in hundreds to the White House doors and into the receiving room of the president's office, presenting a picture in striking contrast to the quietude of the closing days of the Wilson administration.

Mr. Harding's work day began early. Before nine o'clock he was wading through the first batch of mail. After an hour's dictation he began a succession of conferences with his newly installed cabinet officials and kept an unbroken schedule of appointments with members of his official family and others until 1:30, when he took lunch with members of his family.

ROSEBUD SENATOR POLISHES HIS HATCHET AT BEGINNING OF EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

Says Legislature Will Give People That to Which They Are Entitled If Governor Will "Observe His Oath of Office and Cease to Guide" Houses; Message Coming on Tuesday.

Helena, March 5.—Holding that Governor Joseph M. Dixon has exceeded the authority vested in him by endeavoring to usurp the powers of branches of the state government other than the executive and giving notice that if he will keep his hands off the legislative branch, the members of the legislature will give to the state that "to which it is entitled," Senator J. E. Edwards of Rosebud county, leader of the anti-Dixon forces in the senate, served a warning upon the governor in a brief talk on the floor of the senate Saturday noon.

The ultimatum was delivered by the senator from Rosebud soon after the convening of the extraordinary session of the legislature and at a time when committees were out of the room notifying the house and the governor that the senate was organized and ready for business.

Raps Dixon's Attitude. "The governor of this state," said Senator Edwards, "in an excellent message presented to the joint session at the convening of the seventeenth legislative assembly recommended the passage of certain laws upon which we were all agreed and insisted upon the observance of strict economy."

Two Committees in Senate. Upon motion of Edwards the senate reorganized its members in two committees to serve during the special session. He explained that the senate was thus divided during the last special session and that the scheme worked admirably, one-half the personnel of the senate being fully aware of the contents of the bills passed. The committees were chosen by rolling every alternate name on the roll call for the committee on finance and claims, and the other half for the committee on judiciary. The committees selected their own chairmen. Edwards was made chairman of the committee on finance, claims, and burlesque, of Cascade county, and the judiciary committee.

PERSONNEL OF COMMITTEES. The committee on finance and claims is composed of Edwards, Anderson, Burgess, Church, Connelly, Cowan, Dearborn, Hefflin, Heron, Junod, Green, Griffin, Halay, Hazelbaker, Henderson, Jensen, Kinney, Larson, Lewis, Love, McCone, Maina, Page, Paul, Norvik, Slattery, and Stewart of Deer Lodge.

PERSONNEL OF COMMITTEES. The committee on judiciary is composed of Burlingame, Booth, Clark, Coburn, Coon, Cooper, Craig, Dixon, Foster, Gibson, Greenup, Hasland, Harmon, Hefflin, Heron, Junod, Kirton, Leuthold, Long, Loy, McKay, Mears, Parter, Pauling, Siegfried, Stewart of Meagher, and White.

REGULAR SESSION ENDS. The regular session of the seventeenth legislative assembly was brought to a close a few minutes after 2 o'clock Saturday morning—twenty-six hours beyond the constitutional hour of adjournment. For the first time in several sessions the house was the first to complete its labors and notify the senate that it was ready to adjourn sine die.

"Pocket Vetoes" Cement Tax. In the few minutes intervening between the time when the assembly adjourned sine die, Governor Dixon was unable to return the bill with his veto message. Instead the measure will be killed by a "pocket veto," holding the tax rate on the house floor.
