

SPRAY OF THE FALLS

Ticket dance tonight, Odeon.—Adv. Ideal Beauty Parlor, Phone 6069.—Adv.

Rainbow Beauty Parlor, Phone 6442.—Adv.

W. J. Roulston of Choteau spent Monday in Great Falls.

S. H. Scanlan was in Great Falls Monday from Helena on business.

O. J. Brendgood of Libby is in Great Falls for a short business visit.

Exhibition fine millinery, Routsahn's exclusive shop, 19 4th St. So.—Adv.

Mrs. E. V. Blankenship was visiting in Great Falls Monday from Bozeman.

W. W. Heffelfinger of Minneapolis has returned to Great Falls on business.

C. T. Welch came in from Helena Monday for a few days' visit in Great Falls.

George Hay of Raynesford was among the out-of-town visitors in Great Falls Monday.

P. A. Stanley of Ulm was among the out-of-town business visitors in Great Falls Monday.

L. E. Lincoln came in from Lewistown Monday for a short business visit in Great Falls.

Leo H. Logan and F. C. Gall were business visitors in Great Falls Monday from Miles City.

John J. Greene came in from Choteau Monday for a few days' business visit in Great Falls.

W. M. Burlingame, president of the Equity Cooperative association, has gone to Glasgow for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steffani returned to their home at Stockett Monday after a brief shopping visit in Great Falls.

Dr. Perry Zenor of the Bureau of Animal Industry left Monday night for Havre to spend two weeks inspecting the cattle in that territory.

Miss Etta Moran, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Columbus hospital last week, is improving rapidly, it was reported Monday.

Mrs. H. E. Knight and son, C. J. Knight, of Calgary, Alberta, were in Great Falls Monday returning to Calgary from a year's visit at Manhattan, Kansas.

Mrs. D. M. Sovereign and sons, Alton, Donald and Chester have returned to Great Falls from Los Angeles, Calif. where they spent the winter. Mrs. Sovereign will make her home in Great Falls.

Mrs. Frank Zonker left Monday afternoon to return to her home at Cascade after accompanying her sister, Miss Montana Coughlin, to Great Falls. Miss Coughlin will enter training at the Columbus hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stine and children of Minot, N. D., were in Great Falls Monday on their way to Lewistown to make their home. They are moving to Montana in hope that the change of climate will benefit Mrs. Stine's health.

John A. Curry, formerly city editor of The Tribune, has returned to Great Falls for the summer. Mr. Curry has been spending the winter months at his old home in Terre Haute, Ind.

Earl Chichester returned to Pendroy Monday after spending Sunday in Great Falls visiting relatives and friends. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Chichester, and their son, who have been making California their home for the last few years, are planning to return to Great Falls in June to live.

Mrs. O. R. Duncan of Big Timber was in Great Falls Monday en route to Havre to attend the annual state convention of the neighbors of Woodcraft. Among others in Great Falls en route to this convention Monday were Mrs. Bertha Holmes, Mrs. H. B. Bauer and Mrs. J. W. Koble of Livingston and Mrs. Eleonora Pegg of Miles City.

BIRTHS

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Raab at the Deaconess hospital. Mr. Raab is assistant manager of the Ryan Mercantile Co.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Briggs, 309 Twentieth street north, March 13 at the Deaconess hospital.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Skinner of 1924 Fourth avenue north, March 14 at the Columbus hospital.

The United States treasury holds $88,000,000 of Polish bonds, taken in exchange for food and clothing sold to the Poles.

AFTER 3 YEARS CASE UP TODAY IN U. S. COURT

Action Is by State Bank of Halstead to Transfer Judgment to Montana.

After hanging fire in federal court for more than three years the case of the State Bank of Halstead against K. O. Slette, Clara Slette and J. I. Slette will be brought to trial this (Tuesday) morning when court opens. The suit is to recover payment on a note alleged to have been given the bank by the Slettes. The case was previously tried in Minnesota and judgment of $9,000 at six per cent interest was awarded the State Bank of Halstead by the supreme court of that state. Proceedings are under way to transfer the judgment from Minnesota to Montana. If this is accomplished the judgment given the State Bank of Halstead will amount to approximately $12,000. John T. Shea, an attorney at Glasgow, arrived in Great Falls Monday to represent the State Bank of Halstead in the suit.

Laws Goes to Leavenworth.

Jasper Laws who last Thursday pleaded guilty to impersonating a federal officer at Butte was sentenced Monday morning in federal court to serve one year and one day at the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas. Laws was arrested about 10 days ago at Odgen, Utah, while attending a prize fight and was brought to Great Falls last week for arraignment. He was jointly indicted last fall with James Burns at Butte. Both Burns and Laws are former members of the Butte police department. Burns pleaded guilty last fall and is now serving his sentence of 1 year and 1 day at Leavenworth.

Laws and Burns are alleged to have taken a quantity of moonshine in a fake raid on the home of Tony Pinter, 1813, South Arizona street, Butte, on May 22 and later the same evening to have taken still away from Frank Rottcher while representing themselves to be federal prohibition officers.

Joe Pasich was found guilty of having supplies for an illicit still in his possession near Anaconda and was sentenced to serve 30 days in the Cascade county jail.

Fred Hoyt appeared in court Monday and changed his plea of not guilty to guilty on the third count for having an illicit still in his possession. He was sentenced to $100 fine and costs.

Mike Arcury of Laurel was found guilty of forging the endorsement on a government check and was sentenced to $1 and costs and four months in jail. The check forged amounted to $81.61. Arcury was defended in the action by Mrs. Emilie E. Sloan of Laurel. He had previously served two months in the county jail at Laurel.

Motion Day March 21.

Alex Montebone entered a plea of not guilty to manufacturing liquor and having an illicit still in his possession at Asbur in Musselshell county. The case was set for trial Saturday March 19. George A. Judson will defend Montebone.

An announcement was made by Federal Judge George M. Bourquin Monday that on next Monday, March 21, the court will hear all motions and demurrers and petitions for intervention of automobiles to be sold at auction by the United States marshal.

To Keep Lane Open Leading to His Land Belt Man Sues Woman

Petition was filed in district court Monday by Matt Richardson of Belt, for an injunction restraining Mary A. Graham from closing a private road between his ranch and the Belt-Armington road. He has used a lane across the defendant's land for 25 years. Mr. Richardson relates, and he proposes to assert a claim to the right-of-way adverse to the defendant's title. The plaintiff informs the court that he is compelled to use the lane in hauling feed to cattle on his land and that he will suffer irreparable damage if he is forced to discontinue using the road. The defendant, he asserts, has had knowledge of his crossing the land for the last 25 years, but she closed up the lane March 1, 1921, the petition starves. The lane joins the main road at a point between Belt and Armington.

Strain Brothers

THE BIG STORE

SPRING 1921

Tomorrow We Offer for Your Approval The Exhibit of Spring Fashions

Afternoon--3 to 4 P. M.

Evening--8:15 P. M.

at the

at the

Women's Apparel Salon

Automobile Show

--to which the public is extended a cordial invitation to review the newest creations in--

Suits -- Wraps -- Frocks -- Millinery -- Footwear

Our Spring 1921 Millinery Exhibition Tomorrow

You are cordially invited to inspect our beautiful exhibit of New Spring Hats which pay eloquent tribute to the charms and graces of womanhood.

—Strain's Second Floor.

36-Inch Chiffon Taffeta, $2.19

One of our best quality chiffon taffetas, with Swiss finish. Offered in the staple and desired shades for spring, including the favored shades for sports wear. A regular $2.95 quality. Low priced today at $2.19

40 Patterns Plaid Skirtings, $3.19

Can you imagine anything more tantalizing than a collection of forty of the newest and most stunning plaid, stripe and check patterns of skirting in the entrancing shades for spring? They are simply irresistible. Especially, when priced at, the yard $3.19

40-Inch Georgette Crepe, $1.39

Being our regular $2.00 quality georgette crepe. Offered in all the desired shades for spring $1.39 wear. Low-priced today at $1.39

Embroidered Shantung Silks, $1.98

A new creation for spring are these natural colored Shantung silks with embroidered dots of contrasting shades. Quite pleasing for spring dressmaking. Embroidery in shades of rose, copenhagen blue, jade and navy. Regularly priced at $2.75. Offered today at, the yard $1.98

59c 36-Inch Black Sateen, Special 29c

Has a lustrous sheen and the desired weight for bloomers and petticoats.

75c Imported Madras Shirtings, 49c

Offered in an excellent quality and pleasing woven stripes.

44 Inch Linen Finish Indian Head, 25c

Special $25c

(Strain's Main Floor.)

GOSSARD

Corsets and Brassieres That Make an Art of Grooming

It is all in knowing. Our corsetiere knows. You may not realize the improved effect you can secure with your new clothes and your old ones by wearing them over a foundation of correctly fitting Corsets and Brassieres. Comfort, style and an easy grace of movement are attainable when properly fitted to the right style of Corset. Allow us the privilege of serving you in the selection of this costume detail.

GOSSARD MODEL 225

—Of excellent quality, flesh-pink batiste. Has the favored low-top style and is but lightly boned. Moderately priced, $3.25.

GOSSARD BRASSIERES

—Of pink silk jersey, $3.95.

—Pink flowered brocade satin, $2.75.

—Of novelty pink brocade, $1.25.

—Of pink mesh material 65c.

—Strain's Second Floor.

Dress Accessories

Gloves

Prevalence of the short or flowing three-quarter length sleeve is the cause for the long Glove remaining in favor. To match the smart grey footwear are lovely staples in fine kid, chamouise and silk. Mode, tan, beige and white are most charming and unusual. From $2.95 to $8.75.

Neckwear

Clever beyond words are the new gilets of brocade, the eyelet vestees, the lacy collars and every other bit of the new Neckwear infinitely feminine in every dainty exquisite detail. High collars, low collars and Peter Pan collars, one finds them in every conceivable combination of colors, fabric and style. They add a most modern touch to last Spring's clothes, too. From $1.00 to $9.50.

Beads

New frocks call for new Beads. The last word are the fine strands of silver Beads which closely resemble seed pearls. Others of barbaric beauty have handsome single bead ornaments in amulet fashions. Coro pearl beads continue in the popularity. From 75c to $3.00.

Tuxedo and Tie Back Sweaters

—will delight the heart of every woman who looks upon them. The new tie-back silk sweater is to be highly favored this spring; likewise the Tuxedo style with its saucy pockets and belt. Colors are—gray, rose, jade, and black and white.

$12.50 TO $45.00

—Strain's Main Floor.

A New Jersey Slip-On Smock

—comes in navy blue or brown, the collar and cuffs of white linen and the narrow punch work suede belt of a harmonizing shade make the slip-on smock an ideal sports wear or school girl garment.

PRICED $12.00

—Strain's Main Floor.

Dress Accessories

Veils

Feminine subtlety lurks in every filmy mesh of the new Veils. Sheer, Chantilly, filet and occasional meshes, chamille dotted and other Veils in all the desired shades of Spring are daily receiving the attention of women who appreciate the smartness and verve the Veil adds to the simplest of costumes. From $1.00 to $6.00.

Handbags

Such fascinating Bags there are in which to tuck away all the little indispensables. Flat envelope shapes bear the cachet of approval from Paris, while brocade melon shape Handbags find wide favor. Tooled leather, beaded and silk Bags of all kinds are here to add a correct last touch to Spring costumes. From $1.50 to $13.50.

Hosiery

With skirts so brief and slippers so fascinating no woman is neglecting to supply herself with plenty of the new Hosiery. Lace clocks grow more surprising and unusual. Embroidery and lace effects reign on, while very sheer plain Hosiery occupies enviable popularity. In all the new grey and other street shades. From $1.00 to $6.00.

CASH AND CARRY

- Pearl Tapioca, lb. 10c
- Swift's Picnic Hams, lb. 23c
- Bread, 16-oz. loaves, 3 for 21c
- Nutula, 2 lbs. 55c
- Q Brand Coffee, 3 lbs. $1.00
- Large Fat Bloater Mackerel, each ... 35c
- Sugar, 5 lbs. for 50c
- Cocoanut, lb. 25c
- Swansdown Instant Cake Flour, pkg. 53c
- Kellogg's Korn Krisps, pkg. 9c

EXTRA SPECIAL

- Head Rice, 5 lbs. to a customer, today, 25c
- Sapphire Flour, 98 lbs. $4.50

SANDAHL GROCERY

There Must Be Plenty of New Blouses to Go with a New Suit

Crisp tub blouses with smart little platings and bindings in color, Peter Pan collars and cuffs, frilly jabots and other significant details are so inexpensively priced that no new suit need be without a generous supply. For special luncheons or tea parties are delightfully giddy colored crepes and silks, lavishly decorated with embroidery, beading and appliques. No one will want to miss the very special values now being offered. From $2.95 to $32.50

$2.95 TO $32.50

—Strain's Second Floor.

