

TEACHERS' LIST FOR NEXT YEAR IS DETERMINED

Contracts Are Mailed to 183; School Board Committees Are Reappointed.

The report of the teachers and salaries committee, which is composed of C. D. Elliott, H. H. Stanley and R. B. Noble, recommending teachers and their respective salaries for the public schools of Great Falls for next year was presented to the school board and adopted by it Monday night at regular session.

Committees for the next year were appointed as follows: Building H. H. Stanley, Willis T. Burns, Robert H. Swain; teachers and salaries C. D. Elliott, H. H. Stanley and R. B. Noble; insurance R. B. Noble, F. C. Lampen, and R. H. Swain; finance and taxation F. C. Lampen, H. H. Stanley and C. D. Elliott; auditing R. B. Noble, F. C. Lampen and Willis T. Burns; laws, rules and regulations W. T. Burns, C. D. Elliott and R. H. Swain.

To Close Old School

It was decided that the school at the packing plant east of Great Falls be discontinued next year because some of the pupils had moved away leaving only a small number of pupils there.

Mrs. E. J. Yeomans was chosen to take charge of the night school at the Franklin building in the place of Mrs. Powers, resigned. Resignations of Miss Reenie Trautman of the Lowell school, Miss Thirza Brown of the high school, Miss Margaret Knight of the Whittier, Miss Nell Kinsey, assistant supervisor of music, and Miss Betty Mather of the McKinley school were accepted.

Contracts were let for various school supplies including sweeping compound, brushes and brooms, hardware and janitor's supplies and paper.
