Hargrove's for Quality, Service and Value.

Is it wide enough to admit the largest spring suit value in town?

Can you stand the shock of seeing a delivery boy, with our name on his cap, walk up to your front door, with more actual clothing value, than you have seen since the war?

This ad greets you with the news of GREAT VALUES—great values in spring suits made by famous makers, and sold by this store at the lowest prices between Long Island Sound and Long Beach, California.

And in back of the printer that set this paragraph—is this store—glad and anxious for the test to prove this claim.

Give us the opportunity.

19 Sprinters Enter for Drake Relays

Des Moines, April 20.—Several heats will be necessary in the 100-yard run at the Drake relays Saturday, the number of entries indicate. Nineteen have signed their intention of competing in the run, among them being Hayes, Notre Dame; Hamilton, Missouri; and Geary, Nebraska. Nine entries have been made for the 120-yard high hurdles, a new event for the Drake relays. The entries include Patterson of Drake; Beck, Ames; Crawford, Iowa; Wright, Nebraska; and Price, South Dakota university.

Cambridge, Mass.—Probably acceptance by Harvard and Yale of the suggestion from Oxford and Cambridge universities that their track teams come here for a joint international meeting late in July was indicated by Major Fred W. Moore, graduate manager of athletics at Harvard.

Massillon, Ohio.—General Paulette, former first baseman of the Philadelphia National league baseball club who was placed on the ineligible list of organized baseball by Commissioner Landis several weeks ago, has been released by a semi-professional team here, following protests from other clubs against his playing here while the decision is in force.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Sixty men have reported for spring football practice at the university of Michigan.

Calgary, Alta.—Milton Steengraffe, former Calgary pitcher, recently awarded to the Chicago White Sox by a ruling given by Federal Judge K. M. Landis, is not satisfied with the decision and does not intend to report to Chicago, according to Manager Devine of Calgary.

Ruth Makes Second Home Run of Season, Red Sox Lose, 8 to 4

Detroit Americans Pound Mails From Box, Beat Champion Indians 9 to 6. New York, April 20.—The New York Yankees closed their first home stand Wednesday by defeating the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 4. Russell, a former Yankee, did well until the seventh inning, when Ruth broke a tie score by making his second home run of the season, with Peckinpaugh on base. Meusel smothered him, game in the eighth with another home run, made with Ruth and Pipp on base.

DETROIT 9, CLEVELAND 6. Detroit, April 20.—The Detroit Americans drove Mails from the box with seven hits in the third Wednesday, and won from Cleveland, 9 to 6. The Tigers accumulated five runs during the inning. Oldham led Cleveland to five consecutive hits that netted two runs during the first seven innings. Walter Stewart, a recruit pitcher, who relieved Oldham, was hard hit in the ninth, the visitors obtaining four runs from four hits, a pass, an error and a sacrifice.

Resolution No. 8. Whereas, since the last annual meeting of this association, our membership has seriously suffered with the depression and sense of loss in the death of these honored citizens of the state.

Resolution No. 9. Whereas, referring to the law passed two years ago, providing for the classification of ranch lands, appraising them at their true cash value, and establishing a percentage of the appraisal valuation for taxation purposes, we regret to report that the law has resulted in establishing an artificial and inflated valuation of ranch lands and ranch property, and livestock.

Resolution No. 10. Whereas, the exceedingly high freight rates to market prohibit the sale and disposition of livestock; and Whereas, there are large numbers of cattle in Montana and more particularly in the Big Hole basin where there are six or seven thousand head which must be disposed of immediately, and we have reason to believe these cattle could be shipped to points in Dakota, Nebraska, and feed in transit markets to be finished and would fill the ever increasing demand for first class beef, and Resolution No. 11. Believing the spread in price of cattle and meat is much too great and that there is unjust profit somewhere between the producer and consumer. Be it resolved, that the Montana Stockgrowers' association extend by legislative action to create proper government supervision of the handling of all meat and by-products.
