

SHERIFF WINS 30-MILE RUN, NABS DUFFY, BOOZE CARGO

Cuts Corners, Heads Fugitive and Blocks Road With Car at Belt Bridge; Arrests A. W. Hogan and F. J. Barth and Captures Second Load of Liquor While Returning to Great Falls.

With Sheriff Bob Gordon speeding up hill and down dale at sixty miles an hour, "Alec" Duffy, an alleged bootlegger, was captured in Belt Sunday morning after a 30 mile chase.

The chase started on the Valeria driveway near the Belt road. Duffy's car was noticed by the sheriff making for the Belt road and a race for the junction of the two roads resulted in Gordon heading Duffy off the road.

Rape into Belt. Reaching the Valeria highway once again, Duffy "stepped on it" and with Gordon a close second both cars raced for the Belt road. Duffy, reaching the junction of the roads first, went straight for Belt. Entering the town close behind Duffy's car, Sheriff Gordon jumped the curb at the sharp curve near the bridge, entered the highway ahead of Duffy, and placed his car across the road.

"You're a wonder, believe me," Duffy is said to have told Sheriff Gordon after the capture. "You've caught me all right, but the race was worth it, and the best man won."

Two More Arrested. Hogan asked the banded figure, "Sure," said Sheriff Gordon, and the arrests were made. With the three alleged bootleggers in one machine Gordon picked up Deputy Sheriff Fred Huotari, who had been waiting on the Valeria highway once head off the machines and the three men were brought to Great Falls and lodged in the county jail. "The chase was the best I ever made," said Sheriff Gordon, "and I know that it was worth it, as Duffy has been suspected of transporting liquor for a long time but we could never get him. Both cars were loaded with liquor and I have been told were headed direct for Denver."

Bar Dying Statement in Wilson Murder Case at Lewistown

Lewistown, May 1.—In the case of Charles Wilson, charged with the murder of his wife last December, the state Saturday examined a number of witnesses, developing circumstantial evidence to indicate that Wilson shot his wife in some quarrel at their apartment in Mrs. Wilson's rooming house, depending on getting in a so-called dying declaration which County Attorney Stewart McConochie secured on December 17, two days after the shooting.

After extended argument, Judge Ayers ruled that, as there had been no foundation, the statement could not be admitted. The trial continued until Monday.

WANT GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS G. N. VETERANS HERE

Railway Men Request Louis Newman to Invite Joseph M. Dixon to Convention.

Governor Joseph M. Dixon of Montana may be the principal speaker at the eighth annual convention of the Great Northern Veterans' association to be held in Great Falls, June 13, according to an announcement by Louis Newman, former mayor of Great Falls, who has been asked by local railroad men to invite the governor to the convention.

The request came Saturday evening when Great Northern railway men requested Mr. Newman to journey to Helena and invite Governor Dixon to the celebration of veteran employees of the Great Northern system. Mr. Newman stated Sunday that he would leave for Helena shortly in an effort to induce the governor to accept the invitation.

Plans for Entertainment. Elaborate plans for the Great Northern Veterans' association convention are being arranged by L. E. Jones, secretary of the local commercial club, who has charge of the entertainment program during the veterans' visit to the city.

I Am the Baby I Am Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow I am the Baby. I am the youngest Institution in the World—and the oldest.

The Earth is my Heritage when I come into being, and when I go I leave it to the next Generation of Babies. My mission is to leave the Earth a better place than I found it.

With my million little Brothers and Sisters I can do this, if the World does not impose too many handicaps. Now I need Pure Milk and Fresh Air and Play.

When I am a little older I shall need good Schools in which to learn the Lessons of Life. I want to live, laugh, love, work, play. I want to hear good music, read good books, see beautiful pictures.

I want to build Houses and Roads and Railroads and Cities. I want to walk in the woods, bathe in the waters, and play in the snow. I am Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow. If you will make my way easy now, I will help you when I grow up. I am your hope—I AM THE BABY.
