CARPENTER BOXES FOUR ROUNDS WITH SPARRING PARTNERS

Puts in Two Periods Each With Joe Jeanette and Joe Gans, Using Famous Punch.

Manhasset, N. Y., May 26.—Breaking out of his light training schedule, Georges Carpentier Thursday boxed four rounds with sparring partners and worked almost an hour in the gymnasium.

The challenger put in two rounds with Joe Jeanette and two with Joe Gans. Carpentier was given a chance to use his overhand knockout punch to advantage.

Georges punched the bag for 10 minutes, worked on the mat for 10 more, closing with 25 minutes of shadow boxing.

Carpentier's condition, adding that the challenger was faster and in much better shape than in his bout with Levin.

Paul Journe, French heavyweight and sparring partner of Georges Carpentier, aspirant to the world's heavyweight boxing title, looks, beside Georges, like the sides of the Grand Canyon to the burro.

DEMPESE TRIES OUT OPEN AIR ARENA IN EIGHT FAST ROUNDS

Thousands Persons, Nearly Half of Them Women, Pay to See Champion Work.

Atlantic City, N. Y., May 26.—Jack Dempsey boxed for the first time in his open air arena Thursday.

After shadow boxing five minutes, Dempsey exercised two rounds each with Jack Renault, Larry Williams, Alex Trabantis and Joe Benjamin, the Pacific coast light weight, who joined the champion's training staff Wednesday, winding up his work out with some bench exercises.

Although the sun was shining, a chilling wind gave Dempsey some difficulty in getting loosened up.

Just before the first round with Williams ended, the champion caught him with a rasping left hook, opening a cut over the right eye.

The four rounds with Trabantis and Benjamin were tame, as Dempsey did not attempt any solid, hard hitting.

Dempsey was measured and the following figures were given out: Height, 6 feet 1 inch; neck, 10 1/2 inches; reach, 71 inches; waist, 33 inches; thigh, 23 inches; calf, 15 1/2 inches; ankle, 9 inches; biceps, 14 1/2 inches; forearm 14 1/2 inches; wrist, 9 1/2 inches.

Martin Burke, a New Orleans heavyweight, has reported at the camp.

BROSS SIGNED UP FOR BOUT MONDAY AT FORT BENTON

Great Falls Middleweight Will Get Acid Test When He Meets Stroble.

Pete Bross, Great Falls middleweight, will receive an acid test in his next bout, which will be held at Fort Benton Memorial day, May 30, on a wrestling and boxing program staged by the American Legion Boxing club of Fort Benton.

Stroble will undoubtedly fight the same style fight as Bross and will not be as much of a challenge as the Havre fight. The bout will be six rounds.

The special feature of the program will be a wrestling match between Mike Yokel of Salt Lake City, champion of the middleweight title, and Dave Jones of Fort Benton, contender for the middleweight championship.

The regular shoot of the club will be held Sunday and there will probably be a challenge shoot for the Wilcoxson medal cup. This trophy was won last Sunday by Martin Grinde of Dillings, who had a perfect score, breaking 25 birds straight. E. O. Price of Great Falls was high in the regular shoot last Sunday with a score of 92, breaking 23 out of 25 birds. G. M. Frazier of Choteau was first in the registered shoot, winning 46 out of a possible 50 birds for a score of 92.

WHILE WAITING

Have you looked into the future of this great old wonder state? Have you pondered on the problems that confront us all of late? Must we wait for many summers ere there's work for those who toil? Can't we have some small improvement while we're waiting for the Oil.

Shall we find oil up at Choteau, Or upon the Benton dome? Will the Fowler wells be gushers? Will we strike it nearer home? Why of course if we keep boosting. This old state will boom some day. For remember that old adage—Where there's a will, there is a way.

If you have the will, Mike has the way, by which you can save five to ten dollars on your Spring Suit $25, $35 and $45

Shoot in Mid-Week Will Be Added to Gun Club Program

Preparations will be made soon for a mid-week shoot of the Great Falls Rod and Gun Club. Many of the members are not in favor of the Sunday shoot and would rather utilize their time on Sunday for an outing with their families. A midweek shoot on the Sunday shoot will afford an opportunity of choosing between the two shoots or participating in both.

The regular shoot of the club will be held Sunday and there will probably be a challenge shoot for the Wilcoxson medal cup. This trophy was won last Sunday by Martin Grinde of Dillings, who had a perfect score, breaking 25 birds straight. E. O.
