FIGHT IS $500,000 REVENUE PLUM, U. S. TAX FIGURES SHOW

Dempsey Must Pay $161,270 Income Tax, Carpenter Gets Off With $93,334.

New York, June 9.—Uncle Sam never drew on a boxing glove in his life, but he'll make more money than Jack Dempsey, Georges Carpentier or Tex Rickard, on July 2.

Figures which will doubtless bring sleepless nights to Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns, and cause Francois Descamps, manager of Carpentier, more worry than a newspaper photographer, are quoted by internal revenue officials as follows:

Dempsey's income tax for $300,000, approximately what he will receive for the battle, will amount to $161,270. Carpentier's, when exemptions for his wife and child are subtracted, will total a modest $93,334.

That makes the score on the division of the purse read: U. S. government, $254,694; boxers, $245,306. The marked difference between the taxes of the boxers is due to the surtax on the difference between $300,000 and $200,000. Dempsey, however, possesses an advantage in that case, in that he will have an entire year in which to pay differential installments, the first payment due March 15, 1922.

Government profits on the bout also include the 10 per cent amusement tax exacted by federal authorities, which will amount to approximately $100,000. The state of New Jersey will exact a like sum.

Promoter Tex Rickard, whose profits may be $100,000, will be taxed an amount which will bring the total government revenue from the encounter to considerably more than $500,000, the richest sporting plum in history.

Three Streams Closed to Fishing in State

New York.—Ineffective pitching, due to the elimination of freak deliveries, is responsible for the slugging of major league baseball clubs this year, according to Tris Speaker, one of the world's champion Cleveland club.

FRANCE WILL MEET MONK FOWLER HERE NIGHT OF JUNE 20

California Lightweight Agrees to Terms and Weight for Next Legion Card.

The headline fighters for the next Legion card, which will be held in Great Falls June 20, are Monk Fowler of New Orleans, who has been making Great Falls his headquarters, and Earl France, the fighting lawyer from California, who recently won a referee's decision over Johnny Schauer of St. Paul in Great Falls and who is matched to fight Clonie Tait, Canadian champion, at Butte, June 15. After considerable dickering between managers and the Legion promoters, terms were finally agreed upon, although the weight question loomed up again and it looked for a time as though the fight would fall through. Jack Russell, Fowler's manager, and Billy Rose, who guided the pugilistic destinies of France, both made their wants known. In the absence of Roy Schuman, one of the Legion promoters, the brunt of burden rested on the shoulders of Frank McDonnell and, after several long distance calls to Rose at Butte, verbal agreement was finally made and the two shifty lightweights will fight it out in the 130-pound main go of the next card.

Fowler will again be forced to concede poundage to meet one of the fighters in demand in Great Falls. France and his manager held out for a weight of 135 pounds at 3 o'clock give or take a pound. Russell failed to see this, because it would be all give on the part of the Monk, although he might like to take a pound or more. Rose finally agreed that France would make 135 and take a pound, which will bring him in at 8 o'clock at 133. A forfeit of $150 will be posted by the managers and the Legion promoters are bound to get the after losing the forfeit in the last fight for failing to have this stipulation in the lawyer's contract.

France is considered the lightweight champion of the west and a win over him will mean much to the Monk. Fowler is determined to wrest the crown from the lawyer's head and will begin his training for the fight today (Friday). He will do a little road work today and assume heavier training duties the first of the week.

France has a good bout in prospect and Eddie White and the other Havre promoters can see their way clear they will try to match Fowler with Billy DeFoe, St. Paul featherweight, who has been on the trail of Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, for about six months. DeFoe is now in Montana and if he can persuade some Great Falls club to pay him enough, will cancel a fight he has in the east to appear against Fowler. The DeFoe show is planned for the 2nd of July, when the Firemen's convention will be held. Jack Russell is anxious to have his boy meet a real featherweight and has assured the Havre promoters that he will meet DeFoe there if they succeed in signing up the St. Paul feather.

The semi-windup of the next card will bring together Pete Bros, Great Falls middleweight, and "Kid" Savage, Cleveland, Ohio, who was middleweight champion of Camp Sherman. Savage will be a trifle lighter than Bros but is said to have made an enviable record at Camp Sherman against heavier men. Bros will begin working today (Friday), but will not assume any heavy training until the first part of next week. The bout will be six rounds.

The preliminaries for the next card will be arranged today (Friday). Roy Schuman, who recently ambled into Great Falls from the east, is a possibility for a place on the preliminaries and it is probable that he will be signed to meet Frankie LaDue, Great Falls lightweight. Gordon Colbrook and Gene Polchie, Havre lightweights, are also under consideration. It is not certain whether there will be two four-round preliminaries or only one six-round introductory bout.

"One Round" Smith, the Great Falls colored middleweight, has been matched for Lewistown, June 28 against Billy Freeman, another colored pugilist. When Smith was told by Fred Goldham his manager, the amount he was going to get for the fight, Smith stated, "Man, a'd fight Harry Mills fo' that dough."

DEMPESEY SEEKS TIP UPON CARPENTIER'S STYLE OF FIGHTING

Asks Whether Frenchman Uses Crouch; Perfects Own Famous Shift Maneuver.

Atlantic City, June 9.—Jack Dempsey displayed his curiosity for the first time, Thursday, to learn the fighting style of Georges Carpentier, his opponent in the world's heavyweight championship contest at Jersey City, July 2.

Dempsey sought this first hand information from a newspaper correspondent and old-time friend who had just arrived from a week's stay in the French boxer's camp. The heavyweight champion wanted to know if Carpentier fought from a crouch or hit from a standing up position and the position from which he started the dangerous right-hand punch.

When told that Carpentier fought from a standing position, rather than a crouch, Dempsey asked: "Is he hard to hit? If I can hit him, I can lick him."

The Profiteers obtained the championship of the league at the game played Tuesday against the legion. The game was the tightest of the season, with no scores made until the third inning, when the legion pitcher fell down and, before the inning closed, the Profiteers had run up a score of eight.

In the fourth inning the Profiteer's pitcher lost control and passed several before a substitute was put in, letting the legion even the score. In the last inning, the Profiteers gained one and the total stood 9 to 8.

A double header will be played Sunday at Harlowton. The Sodusters coming in from farms to take on the Profiteers and Doughboys in turn.

CARPENTIER LACKS OLD DASH NOW; MAY BE PLAYING POSSUM

Heretofore Has Seemed to Forget Presence of Reporters and Has Shown Speed.

Manhasset, N. Y., June 9.—After a vigorous two-hour workout in the woods Thursday morning, Georges Carpentier slowed down and gave only a slight performance for newspaper men in the afternoon.

The session after lunch consisted of shadow boxing, bar punching and calisthenics and consumed little more than half an hour. He lacked the speed and dash that has characterized most of the challenger's workouts. Carpentier tipped the scales at 174 Thursday and is now 1-2 pounds heavier than when he started training.

Folks herabouts who would like to view Carpentier going through his paces during his secret training sessions, but can't, have expressed the opinion that the challenger is fooling the public. They believe his somewhat listless attitude when boxing for the newspaper men is but a ruse to conceal his real condition.

There is no doubt that the dubious prize money of $100,000 track full of speed, but he is not likely to seem to forget himself when the newspaper men are watching him and display a few of the traits that have made him famous.
