Featuring New Fall Frocks at Popular Prices

These Are Priced From $19.50 to $39.50

First of all your new frock must speak of faultless tailoring, beyond all misunderstanding. Fabric may be largely what you please—poiret twill, tricotine, canton crepe, satin—but tailored it must be the last stitch perfection.

The styles strike more or less an entirely new note, the skirts being very, very short and the sleeves full, loose and flaring. Then there are the popular jumper styles.

Charming new effects in ornamentation are achieved with self-tone embroidery, shinning moire ribbon and dull metal beads.

As to colors—Black is first choice for fall and early winter wear, then there are browns and navys in a pleasing variety of hues.

Not least among the many other charming features of these new frocks are the prices—being especially moderate and within reach of all.
