Case Is Appealed to Supreme Court by D. Watson Robb

A certified transcript on appeal from district court to the state supreme court in the case of D. Watson Robb, Great Falls insurance man, against State Auditor George P. Porter and John E. Dawson, which was decided against the plaintiff during the last session of district court, was forwarded Monday to Helena for filing with the clerk of the supreme court.

Robb brought a $65,000 damage action against the state official and Dawson, another insurance agent, on the grounds that the cancellation of Robb's insurance license had injured his business and that Porter and Dawson had conspired to that end. District Judge H. H. Ewing, who heard the case, ruled against the plaintiff in a directed verdict filed on May 10. Robb served notice of appeal on September 14.

Commissioners Lee Dennis, Dan Boyle and Samuel Ross will arrive in Great Falls some time today.

Inspection of the property of the Great Falls Gas Co. will be made today (Tuesday) by E. G. Toomey, secretary and counsel of the state utilities commission, and Chief Engineer Bonner in and after the hearing called for Wednesday on the petition of the company for permission to increase its rates. Mr. Toomey and Mr. Bonner arrived in Great Falls from Helena Monday night.

The commission last year took a survey of the plant for the purpose of leasing it, its physical valuation and information for the hearing called for Wednesday by a further survey by Engineer Bonner the last inspection bringing the commission's data down to date.

Commissaries Lee Dennis, Dan Boyle and Samuel Ross will arrive in Great Falls some time today.
