FILL HUMANITY WEEK QUOTA

Donation of $500 Puts Canvass for Salvation Army Budget Over the Top; Kiwanis Club Announces $7,500 Raised.

A joint personal subscription of $500 telegraphed by John D. Ryan and C. F. Kelley of the Annapolis Copper Mining company to the annual Salvation Army budget placed the "humanity week" committee of the Great Falls Kiwanis club in position Wednesday to announce that the budget quota of $7,500 had been fully raised.

"The canvass this year was for the largest sum ever asked in Great Falls for an annual budget and there was some hesitancy in fixing the total at $7,500, but the work needed that amount and the club membership was confident it could be raised. There is a lot of credit due the donors."

The budget this year is approximately $2,000 larger than raised one year ago, caused by the reduction of operations at the larger industrial plants and general conditions. The canvass was made by five groups of Kiwanians, headed by Lee Singer at the Paris store. Each home in the city was asked to subscribe $1, these donations being in addition to general subscriptions made by the households and in the business district.

Found Needy Cases
Cases where immediate relief was needed were uncovered during the canvass by the workers and supplies and clothing were sent out from Army headquarters before the budget work was completed. Frequently the canvassers accepted donations of a few cents from people who believed themselves safe from want, but who could give no more than the mites they offered. There were instances where proffered donations were not accepted because of the obvious need of the donors. Belt was credited with a total donation of $124 and $60 was subscribed at Stockert.

Make Fall Quota Possible
Data relating to the canvass and the Salvation Army's work in Great Falls was furnished to Mr. Kelley and Mr. Ryan when the canvass was begun and it was their subscription that made possible realization of the full quota. At the Kiwanis luncheon last Monday it was announced that $6,800 had been subscribed in cash and pledges, the greater portion being in cash, and prior to receipt of the replies from Mr. Kelley and Mr. Ryan the club had raised the total to $7,000 with a $200 donation of its own. Of the whole amount raised, more than $700 was subscribed by members of the club.

"We are in position today to announce that the Salvation Army budget is fully raised," said Mr. Ryan and Mr. Newman Wednesday. "We are over the top in handsome style, the last lap being covered with the donations from Mr. Kelley and Mr. Ryan. Only a small portion of the subscriptions is in pledges, and the pledges are 100 per cent bona fide."

Promise Housewives
Lower Turkey Price
Than One Year Ago

Until Great Falls dealers make further progress in laying in stocks of Thanksgiving turkeys, the price consumers will pay for the national bird this year will not be finally determined, but all dealers agree that turkeys will be very materially lower than in 1920. A few hundred pounds of turkeys have been purchased by one market, but not until later in the week will the wholesale price be so established that the retail price can be fixed.

One year ago turkeys cost from 30 to 55 cents a pound at Thanksgiving time and dealers believe that this year the figure will be perhaps 30 per cent or more lower. The supply of geese, chickens and other poultry is not so large and the price of these items will probably range around that of last year.

SECURE TIMBER
WITHOUT PERMIT
IS FOREST RULE

Eliminate Formalities Where User Wants Dead Wood for Domestic Use.

People desiring dead timber for fire wood, fence building material and other domestic purposes may obtain supplies from the Jefferson and Lewis and Clark forests without first obtaining permits. This is a newly established policy with the forest service, but the regulations require that timber thus obtained shall not be sold or used in stores, hotels or other commercial establishments according to Supervisor W. B. Willey.

No Limit for Family Use
The proprietor of a store or hotel may obtain free timber for his own family. The amount taken by an individual is not limited, so long as it is used at his home for the family's benefit. The only stipulation imposed by the forest service is that people who remove dead timber must not damage living trees, must leave their camps and cuttings in an orderly condition and use care to prevent forest fires.

Forest rangers will supervise free cuttings, and anyone found violating the regulations will be denied further access to the timber.
Encourage Use of Timber
"It is the desire of the forest service," said Supervisor Willey, "to encourage the use of all dead timber within the forest boundaries, and in so doing to accommodate the public and supply its needs with greater dispatch."

The supervisor stated that approximately 4,000,000 feet of dead timber has been annually cut and removed from the Jefferson and Lewis and Clark forests, distributed among about 1,500 users.

HAVE PROGRAM
TO STOP MAIL
ORDER BUYING

Association Formed to Halt Flow of Money to Outside of State.

Racked by business men and merchants of the state, the Montana Trade-at-Home association has entered the field with the avowed purpose of bringing about large reductions in the volume of mail order buying. Organized work has begun in different Montana cities and it is intended that the work will be carried on with the assistance of every community.

A. A. Dwight and T. B. Haugavaut, representing the association, will today (Thursday) begin explaining the purposes of the association to Great Falls business men. Expenditures of proceeds from membership fees at places where it is furnished is a salient feature of the association's program. Mr. Dwight and Mr. Haugavaut stated.

Huge Sums Diverted
"Amounts sent out of Montana every year to mail order houses varies from $7,000,000 to $15,000,000 yearly, and this means a loss of from $2,000,000 to $4,000,000 from the established trade channels in the state," said Mr. Dwight Wednesday evening. "The one great objective of the association is to defeat this system of buying. We are now fighting under the slogan of the Montana dollar for Montana, and the organization has already received a very cordial response from cities where its program has been presented."

"It is estimated that at least 95 per cent of the buying done outside of the state could be competed with at home if the home dealer were given a chance. Our program is that of conducting an educational campaign and to give as much publicity as possible to the facts we have assembled. The association is not a trade organization, but a trade helping organization. It is a medium through which merchants can be helped in meeting outside competition."

Headquarters at Billings
The association has headquarters at Billings and R. M. Hart is president of the organization. Leon Shaw and B. R. Albin are vice presidents, and Joe L. Markham is manager and secretary. The advisory board is composed by T. C. Power, A. W. Miles, W. H. Newcom, C. O. Hummer, B. B. Brisco, W. D. Symmes, F. O. Wilton and G. A. Jeffrey. Mr. Dwight and Mr. Haugavaut expect to be in Great Falls during the next week.

POSTAL PUTS BAN ON SMALL LETTER

Diminutive Envelope Condemned for Holiday Use by Postoffice Department.

Of all the varieties of mail which passes through the hands of postal employees during the holiday rush, the post office department has singled out the diminutive envelope as the one which finds the least favor with the mail handlers. Small envelopes have become vogue for holiday use during the last few years and Hubert Work, first assistant postmaster general, is authority for the assertion that the little squares have retarded all postal work and caused the disfiguring and mutilation of mail.

So serious is the menace of the small envelope that Mr. Work has issued a general warning against their use. No envelope should be smaller in size than 2 3/4 by 4 inches, he states, for these reasons:
Addresses will be obliterated by cancellation.
Will not run through facing table; necessitating extra handlings with consequent delay to all mail.
Delay in cancellation because of awkwardness in putting through cancelling machine.
Delay through difficulty in assorting.
Liability to loss or damage, as small sizes do not protect packages and cannot be securely tied.

ACCOSTED WOMEN;
NEGRO FINED $10

Colored Entertainer Says Complainants Were Old Schoolmates.

Otis Larson colored, who said he was an entertainer and sold horse for a living, was brought before Police Magistrate H. A. Sheppard Wednesday on the charge that he had accosted two women on the street. After the two women had testified that the defendant had stopped them on the street and told them stories that were later found untrue, the court decreed that Larson had been to free as an entertainer, and fined him $10.

Larson denied that he had ever said anything uncomplimentary to the women and when the magistrate asked him how extensive his operations were as an entertainer, he replied that he had often sang and played the piano at a road house. The defendant said that he knew both of the women complainants well, having gone to school with one of them many years ago.

The second annual convention of the fifth region of the National League of Woman Voters, which includes Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming and Montana, will convene November 21 and 22 at Hotel Fort Des Moines, Des Moines, Iowa. All sessions except the mass meeting will be held in the ball room at the hotel. Mrs. James Paige, director of the fifth region, has sent out a plea urging the women of the six states to make a special effort to attend this convention in order to prove to the national organization that a regional convention is good business for the league and to act with other bodies in determining how better living conditions may be brought about with the amount of money at the disposal of the league, and how to eliminate public waste, and the possibilities of obtaining not only enforceable laws, but law enforcement.

Program of Speakers

On the morning of November 21 the meeting will be called to order by Mrs. Walter S. Brown, president of the Iowa League of Woman Voters. Greetings to the visiting delegates will be extended by Mrs. E. Armstrong, president of the Iowa State Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. Walter S. Brown. The response and regional address will be made by Mrs. Paige. Among the speakers will be Mrs. A. F. Rice, president of the Montana League, and Mrs. Sumner T. McKnight, national treasurer of the league. Following a luncheon conference on child welfare and social hygiene, an afternoon session will be called to discuss legislative work of the league and its political activities. Governor Kendall of Iowa will preside at the evening session. The principal address of the evening will be made by Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the National League of Woman Voters.

Washington Governor
Refuses Extradition
for Great Falls Man

Information that the governor of Washington had refused to honor the extradition papers prepared for the return of Jerry Rice to Great Falls from Tacoma was received Wednesday by Sheriff Bob Gordon in a telegram from Deputy Sheriff Jack Abrams. The telegram said that Deputy Sheriff Abrams had started for Great Falls. Rice was arrested in Tacoma on a warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. He is alleged to have secured $300 on property on the statement that the property was not mortgaged. When Deputy Sheriff Abrams arrived to take Rice into custody, he found that Tacoma authorities had released him on $1,000 bail.

NOBLE IS HELD FOR TRIAL IN FEDERAL COURT

Sheriff Identifies Alleged Whisky Runner as Man He Chased 50 Miles.

Harvey Noble, proprietor of a Great Falls garage, was held for trial in federal court on a charge of transporting intoxicating liquors after a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner W. S. Frary Wednesday. Mr. Frary reserved decision until 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, several hours after he had heard the evidence presented by Sheriff Bob Gordon and deputies.

Noble is Identified

The story of the spectacular automobile race for a distance of 50 miles, in which Sheriff Gordon and his deputies and Noble, the alleged driver of a Studebaker automobile loaded with Sandy McDonald whisky, figured, was retold by the officers during the course of the hearing. All of the officers positively identified Noble as the driver of the car, which was abandoned in a field after the gas tank had been riddled with bullets.

Sheriff Gordon testified that he was near enough to the fugitive car to be certain that Noble was at the wheel. He told of directing Deputy Sheriff Fred Huotari to fire into the gas tank as a means of halting the machine. When the fugitives realized that they could not escape, the sheriff said, Noble and a companion began dumping the liquor cargo into the road.

Noble was arrested several days ago and he demanded a preliminary hearing. He was later released on $300 bail. The trial is expected to come early in the December term of federal court.
