FARESE IS TRYING TO CORNER BUFF FOR TITLE BOUT

If He Doesn't Get Battle Within Ninety Days, Will Claim Championship.

New York, Dec. 21.—Leo P. Flynn, manager of Harold Faresse, the Jersey "Speedball," has offered Lew Diamond, manager of Johnny Buff, bantamweight champion of the world.

Faresse is the chap who a month ago happened into Philadelphia and decisively trimmed Al Ziemer.

Johnny Kibane, Pete Herman, Charley Beecher, Andy Chaney, Benny Valgar and Jack Sharkey, bantams and featherers, have bowed in defeat to the clean-cut 21-year-old Jersey knuckle whirler.

Flynn, who is a veteran handler of fighters, predicts that for the first time in his career he will manage a champion—providing Buff is persuaded to meet Faresse.

Carl Tremaine, the Cleveland phenom, is another highly-touted star, who is anxious to continue evading the issue with Faresse.
