

CAMERA CATCHES NEWS OF WEEK

BEAUTY WON BY MECHANIC

This Canadian beauty, Marjorie Smith, 18, who was Miss Toronto at the Atlantic City pageant, was married to J. Clifford Splan, Toronto mechanic.

CANDLER'S BROTHER A BISHOP

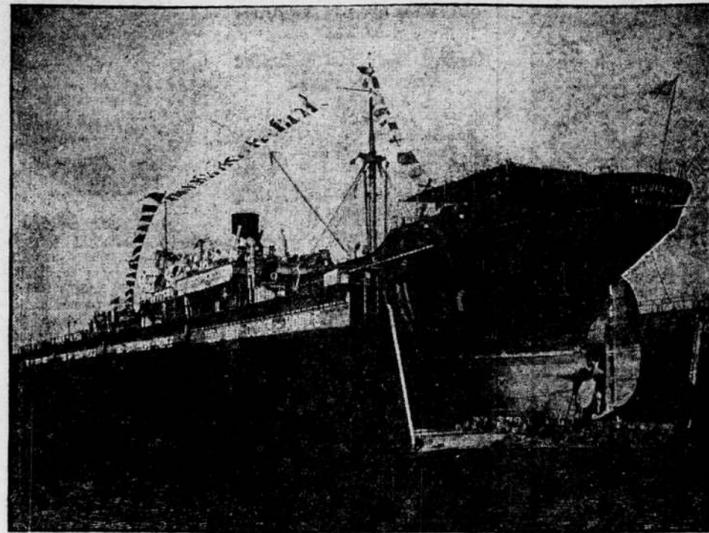

Here is an exclusive picture of Asa G. Candler, aged Atlanta millionaire (right), whose fiancée says he jilted her, and his brother, Bishop W. A. Candler.

English Railway Manager Returns

After a long visit to this country Sir Henry W. Thornton of England, chairman and president of the Canadian National railways, returned to England aboard the Olympic, accompanied by Lady Thornton and their daughter, Miss Ann Thornton.

SHIP OPENS DRY DOCK TOWED FROM N. Y. TO MOBILE

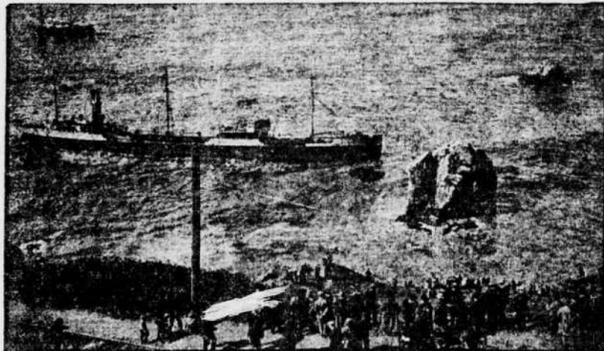

This dry dock was towed from Brooklyn, N. Y., to Mobile, Ala., where the United States shipping board freighter Duquesne, first steamer docked, officially opened new plant.

SHARPSHOOTER OF THE CLOUDS

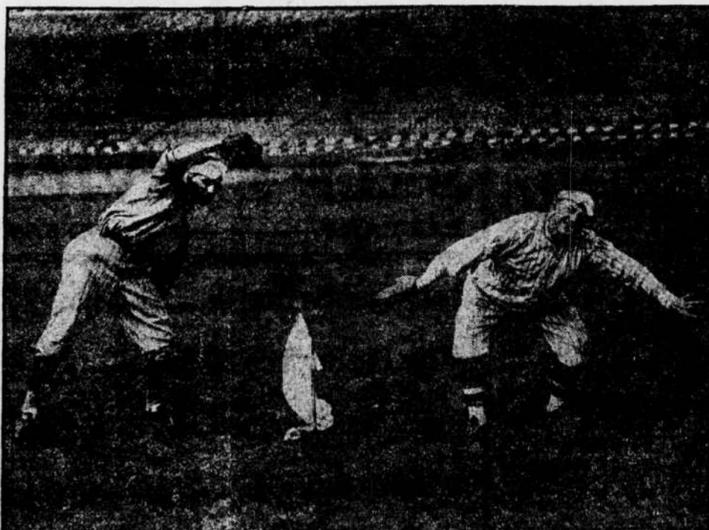

These two naval machine gun experts, J. W. Buckley (left) and J. A. Frestros, chief machinist's mates, won the aerial machine gun contest at Washington, D. C., scoring 214 hits in 53 seconds.

THIS TANKER IS AT THE SEA'S MERCY

The oil tanker Lyman Stewart (foreground) is on the rocks off the Golden Gate, near Cliff House, San Francisco, after collision with a freighter in a thick fog.

NICK AND AL DO THEIR STUFF FOR FANS

This is the great tennis game which Nick Altrock (right) and Al Schacht, famous baseball comedians of the Washington club, staged for the early birds during the world series. The white flag is supposed to be the net. The ball cannot be seen, for there wasn't any. It went almost as good as their boxing match and would get them a job on any vaudeville stage.

SAD SEQUEL

Mrs. Alice Clarkson, Denver, is a divorcee, after saying husband wooed her six years and left her three days following wedding.

HONORS

After 34 years of active service in New York fire department, William K. Beyer (above) was honored with award.

Guilty of Murder

Mrs. Ivy Giberson was found guilty of the murder of her husband. She was tried at Toms River, N. J., and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

SPEED

Lieut. A. W. Gorton, U. S. N., won Curtiss marine flying trophy race at Detroit, making 132.65 miles an hour in a navy TR-1 seaplane.

FITTING

Alice: What are you going to do with your alimony?
Virginia: I think I'll put it into Liberty bonds.—Life.

RIDE 'EM, CLARE!

No celebrity in the world is safe with Clare Sheridan 20 miles away.—Life.

FORCE OF HABIT

If all the boarding-house dwellers in Greater New York were placed end to end, they would reach.—Life.

A SINGLE-TRACK MIND

North: I can get you six per cent.
West: Great! Man, I can taste it already!

"No, I mean for your money."
"Well, I expect to pay for it, of course.—Life.

CONGRESSMAN'S WAR RECORD

In the presence of General Pershing, Secretary of War Weeks bestowed Distinguished Service Medal on Representative J. P. Hill of Maryland.

WALKING AWAY FROM WINTER

Cold weather's coming, so Teddy Boyle (left) and Eileen Coughlin of New York started to hike to Florida on capital of $1.25.

BUS COMES TO GRIEF

This motorbus, crowded with school girls, jumped a parapet into a Naples canal. All the occupants had a miraculous escape from death.

CHILDREN'S POET HONORED

American school children contributed their pennies to this bronze memorial of Eugene Field, recently unveiled at Chicago.