A SERIOUS SCHISM

Omaha Painters Need an Arbitrator to Help Them Out.

A. G. Bainbridge, business agent of the local painters' union, and vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, has gone to Omaha, Minn., with full authority to settle a serious disagreement which has existed between the painters of that city since the consolidation of the local unions...

FAITH IN THE GOVERNOR

Geo. W. Morey's Views on the Reported Choice for Labor Com'r.

George W. Morey, one of the applicants for the position of labor commissioner, is prepared to accept gracefully the decision of Governor Van Sant as to whether he wants for the place no matter who it may be. This is what Mr. Morey has to say as to his position...

DISCUSSED THE TRUSTS

Paper by James K. Scott at Stonecutters' Meeting.

James K. Scott of the Stonecutters' union read an interesting paper on "Trusts and Their Evil Influence," before the Union club, hall of the Building Trades council, random block, last night. The paper brought out considerable earnest discussion...

SERVANT GIRLS' PLANS

A Meeting to-morrow for the Purpose of Organizing.

The servant girls of Minneapolis expect to form a union at a meeting to-morrow at Alexander's hall. Members of the Trades and Labor council predict that there will be between 50 and 100 members to start with...

NEW OFFICERS IN CONTROL

Various of the City Unions Install or Elect Officers.

The electrical workers last evening installed the following officers: President, J. J. Reynolds; vice-president, W. G. Barnes; recording secretary, Sellers; financial secretary, F. E. Lester; foreman, C. E. Burns; inspector, J. M. Cassidy; second inspector, William Dugan. The Coopers' Machine Room Operators' union, No. 75, Tuesday night, elected the following officers...

Council, John W. Nee, M. Olson and F. Johnson. The glaziers' union last evening installed the following officers: President, Herman Dose; vice-president, H. W. Deery; corresponding secretary, A. H. Page; financial secretary, A. Strand; treasurer, C. O. Pease; sergeant-at-arms, Thomas Dunn; outer guard, William Patie; inner guard, C. G. Lee, J. G. Johnson was selected as delegate to the Trades Labor Council. Thomas Dunn was elected trustee.

Team Owners to Meet

The Minneapolis team owners will again endeavor to effect an organization at Alexander's hall to-night. Owners of not more than five teams are eligible to membership. The large transfer companies have looked upon considerable uneasiness upon the part of the teamsters. As a protective measure they effected an organization this week, after a series of meetings.

Sign Writers to Get Together

The sign writers are going to "get together." J. H. Carter has been agitating the subject of organization and he says that out of 200 writers in the city a strong organization can be perfected. The members of this craft, he finds, are in a bad way now. Some of them have been doing outside work during the winter at $1 per day. His reports are that they are enthusiastic over the union proposition.

An Investigation Is On

The Trades and Labor Councils want to know why Miss Tanager, president of the Laundry Workers' union, was recently discharged by the concern employing her, and has appointed a committee to ask why. It has been asserted that she was incompetent. To this she answered by asking why her salary was twice increased shortly before she became the head of the union. The Trades and Labor Council and the Carpenters' union have voted her $10 each as out-of-work benefits.

Bar-tenders Organize

The bartenders organized at Alexander's hall Wednesday evening. Another meeting will be held Tuesday night.

of the river, and it was only by the great exertions that his body was rescued, and brought back to the Maryland shore.

"The brigade of General Gorman, three miles below, at Edwards Ferry, was only slightly engaged, I think, and the men of the old First Minnesota have never been able to explain why they were not ordered up to the assistance of General Baker. The echoes of that awful disaster have resounded almost down to this day. General Stone was accused of disloyalty, was tried by the congressional committee on the conduct of the war, and although I think he was never convicted his usefulness was destroyed and he finally resigned his commission in the army and entered the service of the State of Minnesota as one of General Stone's official family or his friends ever believed him guilty, and we all believed the
