In Social Circles In A Floral Bower

Shute-Boutell Wedding Solemnized Last Evening.

MANY FRIENDS AT RECEPTION Several Hundred Called With Good Wishes—Joy-Small Nuptials Last Night.

The marriage of Miss Flora Elizabeth Boutell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Boutell, and Royal Boardman Shute of Crookston, Minn., was solemnized last evening in the most magnificent appointments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boutell on Kenwood parkway. Southern surlax veiled the doorway in the hall and wreathed the doorways and windows. The alcove in the living-room was a bower of green, the all palms reaching to the ceiling. Among the green, carnations and anemone lilies were arranged most effectively. Pink begonias, roses and carnations touched the color to the masses of green in the reception-room and red carnations and roses brightened the hall. In the dining-room a mound of ferns and red roses were in the center of the table and the green banded mantel and buffet were relieved with roses. The lights were shaded in red.

The bridal music was furnished by Emil Ober-Hofer, who played the "Lohengrin" march as a prelude to the "Cavalleria Rusticana" during the service and a program of Chopin after the service. The bride's brothers, Walter and William Boutell, stretched the white satin ribbons that formed the aisle. Bruce Shute was usher and Louis Preston of St. Paul best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Pauline Gordon and Muriel Allen and they wore yellow silk mull over yellow and red satin ribbons. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a handsome imported gown of white satin with oversleeves of Paris muslin and rose point lace. The skirt was shirred and finished with hemstitched ruffles and lace insertion and the bodice had shirrs and fine tucks with a lace bertha which was caught by a cluster of orange blossoms. She wore a veil carried by two bridesmaids. The service was read by Rev. Charles B. Mitchell and was witnessed by about 100 friends.

A large reception for several hundred relatives and friends followed. The bride couple were assisted in a procession by the bridesmaids, P. D. Boutell and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shute, Messrs. and Misses W. T. Boutell, W. D. Boutell, Victor Gaesdinger of Montreal and Louis Elston and assisted through the rooms. Frappe was served in the dining-room by a group of the bride's girl friends, Misses Myrtle Wilcox, Irene Dean, Elizabeth Faise and Elizabeth Carleton. A program of music was furnished during the receiving hours by a string orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Shute left in the evening for New Orleans and on their return they will be at home in Crookston, where the bridegroom is connected with the Crookston Lumber company. The bride's going-away gown was of brown with trimmings of silk and gold braid. The guests included Messrs. and Misses, P. S. Trotter, Dubuque, Iowa; E. B. Shute, Coon Rapids, Iowa; H. B. Miller, Marshalltown, Iowa.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Jay, 509 E. Franklin avenue, was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, when Miss Hatie Cecilia Jay and David Albert Small were married. The service was read by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick in a beautiful setting and palms relieved with pink roses. The parlors and hall were hung with southern surlax and the dining-room was in pink and white with carnations in the center of the table and pink ribbons in silver candelabra. White ribbons twisted with surlax fell from the chandelier to the corners of the table. Miss Lillian Holmes played the Mendelssohn march as the bride, accompanied by Misses Mary and Edna. The stais. She was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Anna Cullen of Chicago, who wore yellow tulle trimmed with panne velvet and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's gown was of white mousseline de sole over white silk. The trained skirt was finished with two deep flounces caught with rosettes of liberty silk. The bodice had yoke and underarm of Mechlin lace and the lace and ribbon bolero was fastened with a brooch of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Edwin Helesser was best man. The eighty guests present included Mr. and Mrs. John Bell of Glencoe, Mrs. Joseph Care, Jordan, and Mrs. E. Coddington of Hopkins. Mr. and Mrs. Small will be at home at 1904 Eleventh avenue S., after Feb. 15.

The ushers were Richard O'Brien of St. Paul, Frank Joy of Eau Claire, Wis., and Charles Hoy. Miss Barbara Naughton of Duluth was maid of honor and Terence Connolly, Jr., was best man. The service was read by Rev. J. J. Keane and was witnessed by a large group of friends. The bride wore a gown of white and red with a large train. Immediate relatives were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Connolly on Forest avenue. There were thirty-five guests and Mr. and Mrs. Nevens were presented with a number of pretty gifts.

China Isn't First Always. China has not yet notified us that she had "discovered" long before the flood the salt elixir of life. It is this to be another exception to the rule that "China discovered everything ages ago." The other exception is "Golden Grain Belt" beer, for China has never been able to produce so pure and healthful a beverage as this. The secret lies in brewing it from the purest barley malt, flavored with prime hops and carefully aged. It is as sure an elixir of life as was ever found for it strengthens the nerves and refreshes the body. Every one needs just such a tonic, to give a case, telephone "The Brewery," 486 Main.

Palmyra, the oriental luxury for the bath, has won its way with giant strides to popular favor. It would indeed be surprising if so good a thing remained long without the recognition of superior merit.

Public taste is critical and critical folks have become warm friends of Palmyra. And so has Palmyra become a good friend of everybody too. When the idea was first conceived to produce a bath and toilet soap so far superior to everything else as to win its way by sheer goodness, the world was raked over for the best, the very best cleansing, healing and beautifying properties that money could buy.

The pure Malsga Olive and Palm Oils were imported direct from the Orient in original package, scientifically combined and moulded into the sweet-scented cake that bears the now familiar name of Palmyra.

History tells us how, in ages past, the fair and beautiful anointed their bodies with oil of Olives to make their skin soft and white, and how the oil of Palms was used to heal and soothe.

These wonderful agents skillfully blended in Palmyra possess the power to purify, cleanse, soften, soothe, beautify and keep the skin clear and healthy.
