

MINNESOTA LOAN & TRUST CO.
 MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.
 Capital.....$500,000.00
 Guaranty Fund, $100,000.00

Interest 2% On Daily Balances.
 Allowed on Deposits. 2 1/2% On Monthly Balances.
 Legal Depository for Court and Trust Funds..... 3 1/2% On 6 Month Certificate.

INVESTMENTS—Excellent First Mortgages and Municipal Bonds for sale.
 TRUSTS—All classes of Trusts carefully administered.
SAFETY DEPOSIT VAULTS.

When in Minneapolis Stop at the New Golden West Hotel,
 Opposite Milwaukee Passenger Station
 Washington and Third Aves. So.
 Especially desirable for families and traveling parties. American plan, $2 to $2.50 per day; European plan, $3, $3.50 and $4.50, with choice restaurant at reasonable prices. Special rates by week and month.

EYES
 Examined Free
BEST
 Artificial Eyes.
OPTICIAN, 409 Nicollet

Millic
 The Progressive Photographer
 Fancy and Evening Waists, Handkerchiefs, Flowers, etc., FREE.
 427 Nicollet, over Verza's.

PROTECT YOUR HOMES FROM FIRE!
 By using KILFYRE, a dry powder compound which harms nothing but fire.
 BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
 Cross & Jackson, General Sales Agents, 208 Bank of Commerce building.

High School Books Cheap
 Harkness Caser.....25c, 35c, 50c
 Harkness Clero.....25c, 35c, 50c
 Harkness Latin Grammar.....50c
 All Second-hand High School Books bought, sold and exchanged. Minneapolis Book Exchange, 20 Washington Ave. So.

HIGH GRADE DENTISTRY
520 SYNDICATE ARCADE
LENOX AND STEIRLY
 MODERATE CHARGES.

That's Right
 When anybody wants to buy, sell or find anything, they first think of Journal wants.

That's Natural
 Because Journal wants are read by everybody.

That's Sure
 Take a good, long look at pages 10 and 11 in this evening's paper and you will be sure to see something that will make you say

That's Good.

THE CITY
 TOWN TALK

Four per cent paid on six months' deposits. Title Insurance and Trust Company.
 Choice farm and city mortgages for sale. Title Insurance and Trust Company.
 Irene Rahn, daughter of Charles J. Rahn, died at the city hospital at the age of 6 years.

The funeral of Miss Minnie Kaiser will be held from the family residence, 24 Emerson avenue N., at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon.
 Dr. Montgomery will preach at Hennepin Avenue M. E. church Sunday evening on the subject, "A Sensible Religion for Sensible People."

The funeral of Edward Zitzka, who died yesterday after an illness of many months, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Central Baptist church.
 Gilmore's grocery store, 109 Fourth avenue S., was robbed yesterday. A few boxes of cigars and some small change was all the booty the robbers secured.

The Century News Store, 4 Third street S., has the largest list of daily and weekly illustrated papers and monthly magazines in the city. Open Sunday, 9 until 11.
 Miss Minnie Kaiser, youngest daughter of Mrs. John Kaiser, died Jan. 17. The funeral will be Sunday afternoon from the family residence, 24 Emerson avenue N., at 2:30.

Frank T. Rose reported to the police last night that he had been robbed of $49 in cash and a diamond ring in a saloon at 225 First avenue S. The police are investigating the case.

Hennepin county, Royal Arcanum, will celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary with a musical and literary entertainment Friday evening, Jan. 25, at Rawlins post hall, Masonic temple.

The funeral services of Thomas Kellaway were held from Gleason's undertaking rooms Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at 225 First avenue S., 2, Foresters of America. The interment was at Lakewood.

"Industrial Caesarism" will be the subject of an address by Vernal Truesdell at the meeting of the social democrats at Richmond hall, Washington and Hennepin avenues, Sunday, Jan. 21.

Dr. Henry Cotton, a well-known physician of the South Side, is reported as being much improved in condition. Dr. Cotton has been ill at St. Barnabas hospital for some time with typhoid fever.

E. O. Wright has resigned his position with the Hennepin Elevator company. He will be associated with Edward J. Teitsworth, the attorney, 602-604 Guaranty Loan building, as an auditor and controller.

A Norwegian supper will be given by the ladies' society of the Nazareth Unitarian church next Sunday evening in the church parlors. The main course will consist of "luddeka" and "ra" broed.

The weekly conference of the Associated Charities will meet Monday at 4 o'clock in the rooms of the association, 202 Washington avenue S. Those interested in the practical side of charity are invited to attend.

Miss Minna V. Hall, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill, died suddenly this morning of pneumonia at her home, 2738 Park avenue. Funeral from the family residence Monday afternoon at 2:30. Interment private.

The Reissau-Reiner Land company of Grand Rapids filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state yesterday. The capital stock is $50,000. The Blackduck Mercantile company of Blackduck, also filed articles.

Svenska Dramatiska Sällskapet has just finished rehearsing "De Traegistriga Gubbarne" by Gustaf Geijer, and it will be performed at Narmanna hall to-morrow night. The play has required a great many rehearsals and the performance should be creditable.

For Rent—Within one block of Chamber of Commerce, you can rent room 7, McMillan building, 525 1/2 First street, N. D. Room is 52x15 feet, steam heated, well lighted, second floor front. Just the room for grain commission, fur, blackboard, stock, ruled for stocks and grain. Western Union cable in. Price of $25 per month and location can be duplicated. Call at Journal office for key.

Lyndale council, No. 836, Knights and Ladies of Security, was organized Tuesday evening at sixth avenue N. and Lyndale, by W. E. Henry, national president. Frank Kistler was elected president; James Kistler, financial secretary; and Sletanetz, recording secretary. This is the second council of this order to be organized in this state. The first council was organized about two months ago and is in a very flourishing condition. A third council is now being formed in New Boston.

DR. HILLIS' LECTURE
 The Subject Chosen for Minneapolis is Most Attractive.
 "The Tragedy of the Ten Talent Men from Socrates to Lincoln" is the unique subject of the lecture which Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, is to deliver in the Institute of Arts and Letters course at the Lyceum theater next Friday evening.

Dr. Hillis is one of America's great pulpit orators—scarcely anyone says the great. He has a most prolific mind, a mind which surrounds with attractiveness every subject he discusses and fills it with interest and instruction. He is a high-pressure speaker without display. Simple in manner, he gives the impression of being scarcely able to give utterance to the thoughts that crowd his tongue's end.

Yellow King Cigar
 Your best cigar. The king of its class.
 Genuine Goods
 And counterfeit prices at Toozee's.

Get Your Facts
 From a Journal Almanac, just out. Price 25 cents.

"THE SALT OF SALTS"
ABBAY'S SALT
 Effervescent
 The Salt Extracted from the Juices of Fresh Fruits.
FOR FILES OR HEMORRHOIDS.
 A teaspoonful in a glass of water at night and morning.

Dr. S. R. Harris, Worcester, Mass., says: "I find the Salt just the thing, not only a curative, but a preventive for Constipation and Piles and as a purifier. It is an alarming fact that almost every railroad man is troubled with Constipation and Piles. Abbey's Salt is just the thing for them, and I recommend it to every one who comes to me. It's really a Godsend."
 Sold by most druggists, or sent by mail, 25c. 50c, $1.00 per bottle.
THE ABBAY EFFERVESCENT SALT CO.,
 11 Murray Street, New York.

For Sale in Minneapolis by Voegeli Bros. Drug Co.

Prompt Relief for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and Sore Throat

OVERS
 Metropolitan Dye Works
DRY CLEANERS
 730 NICOLLET AVENUE
 MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

PORTO POPULAR TOURS
 $100. Feb. 2d and 16th, March 2d. Illustrated Programs, 21 days, all expenses, $19.
RAYMOND & WHITCOMB, 103 Adams St., Chicago.

Duke of Parma Cigar
 Smoke one and you will smoke another.
 Statistics Are Found
 In The Journal Almanac. Price 25c. On Sale at Journal Business Office.

WAR ON AT THE WORKHOUSE

Mr. Nord Prepares to Fight for His Place.
 Another workhouse row loomed up at last night's meeting. Superintendent Hagman is at odds with the workhouse men, and the latter are determined to fight for their place.

A Clash Between Sup't Hagman and Assistant Whalen Comes to Light.
 Orville Rinehart, Mayor Ames' new member of the board of charities and corrections, took his place on the board at last night's special meeting of the Central Baptist church, of which Mr. Smith was a member, states that Mrs. Smith attended morning service at that church and after the service spoke to him, telling him how much she enjoyed the sermon.

Whalen Asks an Investigation.
 Another workhouse row loomed up at last night's meeting. Superintendent Hagman is at odds with the workhouse men, and the latter are determined to fight for their place.

Interest Is Unabated
 Revival meetings continue. Announcement of special services to be held by evangelists to-morrow.

Flambeau's Fair
 Will open in Century Hall on Saturday, Jan. 26.

Retiring Forward
 Member of Ladies' Basket Ball Team Won't Play in Public.

Marlowe's Faust
 Washing of Dr. Richard Moulton's Lecture Last Evening.

The Weather
 The Predictions.

Cedar Avenue Bridge
 South Side People Agree on Location for the New One.

Liederkrantz Concert
 An Attractive Concert Arranged for To-morrow.

Duke of Parma Cigar
 Smoke one and you will smoke another.

Patrick McMahon Dies
 Patrick McMahon was found dead in his room at 102 Ninth street E. St. Paul, yesterday. Death was due to pneumonia. McMahon was a single man and 69 years of age.

James Kennedy of Fargo
 James Kennedy of Fargo, whom the North Dakota papers refer to as the new boss of Fargo, is in town on a business mission. Mr. Kennedy claims that Fargo is the best town in the United States of its size, and while the census enumerator could not make it ten thousand quite, another year will bring it to that mark.

Seattle Man in North Dakota
 A Seattle man who formerly lived in this part of the northwest is authority for the statement that Governor Brady of Alaska, ex-Governor Burke of North Dakota, who now resides at Duluth, were formerly members of the same orphan's home in New York. Burke migrated to the middle west to grow up with the country and became governor. Mr. Brady went to Alaska as a Presbyterian missionary, was appointed governor and is now in Washington telling the administration that Judge Noyes should be removed from Nome before the judge is shot.

Mr. Huntington of Duluth
 Mr. Huntington of Duluth is in the city. Mr. Huntington was formerly a resident of Aberdeen, S. D., and is a near relative of Senator McGilivray.

Senator McGilivray of Dickinson
 Senator McGilivray of Dickinson is looking on while the artists in the senatorial fight compile their figures. "We have a quiet session of the legislature at Bismarck," said the senator, "but there will be one good fight over the reapportionment of the state into legislative districts. The western part of the state has developed five times as fast during the last few years as the valley and the east. The development of the next ten years will be mainly in the western section and the people of that portion thereof will be entitled to only one representative in the legislature of the state, but to a congressman as well. We want an east and west district if the state is divided into congressional districts, and that means that the west wants one of its own hustlers to represent them in Washington. Then there need be no tears in the valley over the congressional nomination. If they were Mr. Spaulding, or any other good man they can fit it up without any interference from the west. Our part of the country is not anxious to be yoked to any part of the valley in a congressional district."

Joe Dietrich of Bismarck
 Joe Dietrich of Bismarck, whose acquaintance extends from the source of the Missouri river to the outlet, went to Bismarck in 1839, while the Indians were still sassy and annoying. Mr. Dietrich is in Minneapolis on a business mission. The history of the northwest will not be complete without his reminiscences. Joe began a successful business career in Dakota territory by selling wood to the boats that plied the river. He knew every man, woman and child connected with the Custer campaign and gives an interesting account of the exciting times at Bismarck on that July night when the boat brought the news of the Custer massacre. Mr. Dietrich says that Alex. McKenzie came to Bismarck from Brainerd in '72. McKenzie showed ability as a politician early, has always been successful, and he prophesies that he will win in his present controversy in Nome.

Farm lands are selling fast
 "Farm lands are selling fast in the western part of the state," remarked Senator Great of Mandan. "There has been some big trappers and the small farmers are buying rapidly. The poor crop of last year did not affect the tide of immigration in the least. It is sending many new settlers to the slope. General Wainwright has purchased 11,000 acres of land north of Bismarck and it will be but a short time before his holdings will have been sold to other settlers. If he keeps the land on the market, The Hyde Kooper interests recently purchased 18,000 acres south of Dickinson on which they are sure to clean up a nice stake. General Wauburn has a good paying line of railroad north of Bismarck. His venture in our state was a profitable one. Reports from the Washington land office show that North Dakota is doing a good business of the land office business of the country."

Judge A. W. Campbell of Aberdeen, S. D.
 Judge A. W. Campbell of Aberdeen, S. D., is in the city. Judge Campbell has been on the bench in his native state, and is talked of as a senatorial possibility in the election of two years hence.

M. R. Brown of Crookston
 M. R. Brown of Crookston left for home last evening after a day in the twin cities. Mr. Brown is connected with the stock department of the Great Northern. He expects to be in the city next year to beat the excellent record of last season.

George M. L. Ervine of Aberdeen, S. D.
 George M. L. Ervine of Aberdeen, S. D., is in the city. Mr. Ervine is one of the old line democrats of South Dakota who couldn't go the Bryan way and voted for McKinley. His best word to all is, "Just watch the smoke of South Dakota for the next few years."

J. E. Fladeland of Portland, N. D.
 J. E. Fladeland of Portland, N. D., is at the Nicollet. Mr. Fladeland was one of the early members of the North Dakota Drugists' association, and he is greatly interested in the efforts of the national association to perfect an organization in every city and state in the union.

A. White, the Breckenridge implement man, is at the Nicollet. Mr. White says that talk of drought did not affect the immigration into the valley. Fully 1,000 acres of new land will be made available in the spring of this year. This is land that was purchased years ago by speculators and but lately placed on the market. It was purchased at a low price, and the business men are not complaining on any other score.

Talk of secret caucus or rather one in which the public was not to be admitted in connection with the senatorial fight yesterday brought some reminiscences from the old days on secret caucuses in other senatorial fights. They cited the Ramey-Davis-McMillan fight, where John A. Ray and another confederate on the St. Paul plied climbed into the attic of the state capitol over the hall of representatives, and by an unskillful move Ray sent his pedal extremity through the plaster. The boys escaped through the attic window and the secret caucus was now in Olympia, Wash., practicing law.

Ex-Sheriff Zwicke of Polk county,
 was also a member of the legislature twelve years ago in the city. He is interested in the senatorial fight, and hopes that the seventh district will be given a fair show on its request for drainage.

E. E. Corlis of Fergus Falls,
 member of the capitol commission, is in town. With the rest of the disinterested delegation from Fergus Falls he sized up the efforts of the "Black Eagle" to down the rest of them.

L. Ellington, cashier of the Scandinavian-American bank at Crookston, is at the Nicollet. Mr. Ellington is a Presbyterian and wants to see the legislature do right when the drainage bill is up. The country tributary to the St. Vincent branch needs the big ditches badly.

John M. Turner, farmer,
 who was well known in the northwest as manager of the North Dakota Milling association, is now a resident of Hamburg, Germany, where he represents the Akron Cereal company's products and several American brands of winter wheat flour. Germany takes kindly to American cereals. The Minneapolis brands are also gaining recognition in that market.

Colonel E. C. Cooper of Grand Forks,
 formerly chairman of the republican state committee in North Dakota, is here on route to Chicago, where he will wed a sister of Senator McGilivray of Dickinson. Colonel Cooper has been listed as one of the possibilities in the senatorial fight two years from now, but refuses to affirm or deny the report. On this trip at least the colony is not talking politics.

James Kennedy of Fargo,
 whom the North Dakota papers refer to as the new boss of Fargo, is in town on a business mission. Mr. Kennedy claims that Fargo is the best town in the United States of its size, and while the census enumerator could not make it ten thousand quite, another year will bring it to that mark.

VALUABLES NOT FOUND

More Mystery in Smith Case
 Her Cloak, Furs and Watch Have Not Been Turned Over to the Family.

Word comes from Excelsior that still more facts which tend to establish an alibi for Mrs. Laura Jordan Smith, the temperance worker, are coming to light. Rev. E. R. Perkins, pastor of the Central Baptist church, of which Mr. Smith was a member, states that Mrs. Smith attended morning service at that church and after the service spoke to him, telling him how much she enjoyed the sermon.

Whalen Asks an Investigation.
 Another workhouse row loomed up at last night's meeting. Superintendent Hagman is at odds with the workhouse men, and the latter are determined to fight for their place.

Interest Is Unabated
 Revival meetings continue. Announcement of special services to be held by evangelists to-morrow.

Flambeau's Fair
 Will open in Century Hall on Saturday, Jan. 26.

Retiring Forward
 Member of Ladies' Basket Ball Team Won't Play in Public.

Marlowe's Faust
 Washing of Dr. Richard Moulton's Lecture Last Evening.

The Weather
 The Predictions.

Cedar Avenue Bridge
 South Side People Agree on Location for the New One.

Liederkrantz Concert
 An Attractive Concert Arranged for To-morrow.

Duke of Parma Cigar
 Smoke one and you will smoke another.

Patrick McMahon Dies
 Patrick McMahon was found dead in his room at 102 Ninth street E. St. Paul, yesterday. Death was due to pneumonia. McMahon was a single man and 69 years of age.

James Kennedy of Fargo
 James Kennedy of Fargo, whom the North Dakota papers refer to as the new boss of Fargo, is in town on a business mission. Mr. Kennedy claims that Fargo is the best town in the United States of its size, and while the census enumerator could not make it ten thousand quite, another year will bring it to that mark.

Seattle Man in North Dakota
 A Seattle man who formerly lived in this part of the northwest is authority for the statement that Governor Brady of Alaska, ex-Governor Burke of North Dakota, who now resides at Duluth, were formerly members of the same orphan's home in New York. Burke migrated to the middle west to grow up with the country and became governor. Mr. Brady went to Alaska as a Presbyterian missionary, was appointed governor and is now in Washington telling the administration that Judge Noyes should be removed from Nome before the judge is shot.

Mr. Huntington of Duluth
 Mr. Huntington of Duluth is in the city. Mr. Huntington was formerly a resident of Aberdeen, S. D., and is a near relative of Senator McGilivray.

Senator McGilivray of Dickinson
 Senator McGilivray of Dickinson is looking on while the artists in the senatorial fight compile their figures. "We have a quiet session of the legislature at Bismarck," said the senator, "but there will be one good fight over the reapportionment of the state into legislative districts. The western part of the state has developed five times as fast during the last few years as the valley and the east. The development of the next ten years will be mainly in the western section and the people of that portion thereof will be entitled to only one representative in the legislature of the state, but to a congressman as well. We want an east and west district if the state is divided into congressional districts, and that means that the west wants one of its own hustlers to represent them in Washington. Then there need be no tears in the valley over the congressional nomination. If they were Mr. Spaulding, or any other good man they can fit it up without any interference from the west. Our part of the country is not anxious to be yoked to any part of the valley in a congressional district."

Joe Dietrich of Bismarck
 Joe Dietrich of Bismarck, whose acquaintance extends from the source of the Missouri river to the outlet, went to Bismarck in 1839, while the Indians were still sassy and annoying. Mr. Dietrich is in Minneapolis on a business mission. The history of the northwest will not be complete without his reminiscences. Joe began a successful business career in Dakota territory by selling wood to the boats that plied the river. He knew every man, woman and child connected with the Custer campaign and gives an interesting account of the exciting times at Bismarck on that July night when the boat brought the news of the Custer massacre. Mr. Dietrich says that Alex. McKenzie came to Bismarck from Brainerd in '72. McKenzie showed ability as a politician early, has always been successful, and he prophesies that he will win in his present controversy in Nome.

Farm lands are selling fast
 "Farm lands are selling fast in the western part of the state," remarked Senator Great of Mandan. "There has been some big trappers and the small farmers are buying rapidly. The poor crop of last year did not affect the tide of immigration in the least. It is sending many new settlers to the slope. General Wainwright has purchased 11,000 acres of land north of Bismarck and it will be but a short time before his holdings will have been sold to other settlers. If he keeps the land on the market, The Hyde Kooper interests recently purchased 18,000 acres south of Dickinson on which they are sure to clean up a nice stake. General Wauburn has a good paying line of railroad north of Bismarck. His venture in our state was a profitable one. Reports from the Washington land office show that North Dakota is doing a good business of the land office business of the country."

Judge A. W. Campbell of Aberdeen, S. D.
 Judge A. W. Campbell of Aberdeen, S. D., is in the city. Judge Campbell has been on the bench in his native state, and is talked of as a senatorial possibility in the election of two years hence.

M. R. Brown of Crookston
 M. R. Brown of Crookston left for home last evening after a day in the twin cities. Mr. Brown is connected with the stock department of the Great Northern. He expects to be in the city next year to beat the excellent record of last season.

George M. L. Ervine of Aberdeen, S. D.
 George M. L. Ervine of Aberdeen, S. D., is in the city. Mr. Ervine is one of the old line democrats of South Dakota who couldn't go the Bryan way and voted for McKinley. His best word to all is, "Just watch the smoke of South Dakota for the next few years."

J. E. Fladeland of Portland, N. D.
 J. E. Fladeland of Portland, N. D., is at the Nicollet. Mr. Fladeland was one of the early members of the North Dakota Drugists' association, and he is greatly interested in the efforts of the national association to perfect an organization in every city and state in the union.

A. White, the Breckenridge implement man, is at the Nicollet. Mr. White says that talk of drought did not affect the immigration into the valley. Fully 1,000 acres of new land will be made available in the spring of this year. This is land that was purchased years ago by speculators and but lately placed on the market. It was purchased at a low price, and the business men are not complaining on any other score.

Talk of secret caucus or rather one in which the public was not to be admitted in connection with the senatorial fight yesterday brought some reminiscences from the old days on secret caucuses in other senatorial fights. They cited the Ramey-Davis-McMillan fight, where John A. Ray and another confederate on the St. Paul plied climbed into the attic of the state capitol over the hall of representatives, and by an unskillful move Ray sent his pedal extremity through the plaster. The boys escaped through the attic window and the secret caucus was now in Olympia, Wash., practicing law.

Ex-Sheriff Zwicke of Polk county,
 was also a member of the legislature twelve years ago in the city. He is interested in the senatorial fight, and hopes that the seventh district will be given a fair show on its request for drainage.

E. E. Corlis of Fergus Falls,
 member of the capitol commission, is in town. With the rest of the disinterested delegation from Fergus Falls he sized up the efforts of the "Black Eagle" to down the rest of them.

L. Ellington, cashier of the Scandinavian-American bank at Crookston,
 is at the Nicollet. Mr. Ellington is a Presbyterian and wants to see the legislature do right when the drainage bill is up. The country tributary to the St. Vincent branch needs the big ditches badly.

John M. Turner, farmer,
 who was well known in the northwest as manager of the North Dakota Milling association, is now a resident of Hamburg, Germany, where he represents the Akron Cereal company's products and several American brands of winter wheat flour. Germany takes kindly to American cereals. The Minneapolis brands are also gaining recognition in that market.

Colonel E. C. Cooper of Grand Forks,
 formerly chairman of the republican state committee in North Dakota, is here on route to Chicago, where he will wed a sister of Senator McGilivray of Dickinson. Colonel Cooper has been listed as one of the possibilities in the senatorial fight two years from now, but refuses to affirm or deny the report. On this trip at least the colony is not talking politics.

James Kennedy of Fargo,
 whom the North Dakota papers refer to as the new boss of Fargo, is in town on a business mission. Mr. Kennedy claims that Fargo is the best town in the United States of its size, and while the census enumerator could not make it ten thousand quite, another year will bring it to that mark.

HEARD IN THE LOBBIES

Senator McGilivray of Dickinson
 Senator McGilivray of Dickinson is looking on while the artists in the senatorial fight compile their figures. "We have a quiet session of the legislature at Bismarck," said the senator, "but there will be one good fight over the reapportionment of the state into legislative districts. The western part of the state has developed five times as fast during the last few years as the valley and the east. The development of the next ten years will be mainly in the western section and the people of that portion thereof will be entitled to only one representative in the legislature of the state, but to a congressman as well. We want an east and west district if the state is divided into congressional districts, and that means that the west wants one of its own hustlers to represent them in Washington. Then there need be no tears in the valley over the congressional nomination. If they were Mr. Spaulding, or any other good man they can fit it up without any interference from the west. Our part of the country is not anxious to be yoked to any part of the valley in a congressional district."

Joe Dietrich of Bismarck
 Joe Dietrich of Bismarck, whose acquaintance extends from the source of the Missouri river to the outlet, went to Bismarck in 1839, while the Indians were still sassy and annoying. Mr. Dietrich is in Minneapolis on a business mission. The history of the northwest will not be complete without his reminiscences. Joe began a successful business career in Dakota territory by selling wood to the boats that plied the river. He knew every man, woman and child connected with the Custer campaign and gives an interesting account of the exciting times at Bismarck on that July night when the boat brought the news of the Custer massacre. Mr. Dietrich says that Alex. McKenzie came to Bismarck from Brainerd in '72. McKenzie showed ability as a politician early, has always been successful, and he prophesies that he will win in his present controversy in Nome.

Farm lands are selling fast
 "Farm lands are selling fast in the western part of the state," remarked Senator Great of Mandan. "There has been some big trappers and the small farmers are buying rapidly. The poor crop of last year did not affect the tide of immigration in the least. It is sending many new settlers to the slope. General Wainwright has purchased 11,000 acres of land north of Bismarck and it will be but a short time before his holdings will have been sold to other settlers. If he keeps the land on the market, The Hyde Kooper interests recently purchased 18,000 acres south of Dickinson on which they are sure to clean up a nice stake. General Wauburn has a good paying line of railroad north of Bismarck. His venture in our state was a profitable one. Reports from the Washington land office show that North Dakota is doing a good business of the land office business of the country."

Judge A. W. Campbell of Aberdeen, S. D.
 Judge A. W. Campbell of Aberdeen, S. D., is in the city. Judge Campbell has been on the bench in his native state, and is talked of as a senatorial possibility in the election of two years hence.

M. R. Brown of Crookston
 M. R. Brown of Crookston left for home last evening after a day in the twin cities. Mr. Brown is connected with the stock department of the Great Northern. He expects to be in the city next year to beat the excellent record of last season.

George M. L. Ervine of Aberdeen, S. D.
 George M. L. Ervine of Aberdeen, S. D., is in the city. Mr. Ervine is one of the old line democrats of South Dakota who couldn't go the Bryan way and voted for McKinley. His best word to all is, "Just watch the smoke of South Dakota for the next few years."

J. E. Fladeland of Portland, N. D.
 J. E. Fladeland of Portland, N. D., is at the Nicollet. Mr. Fladeland was one of the early members of the North Dakota Drugists' association, and he is greatly interested in the efforts of the national association to perfect an organization in every city and state in the union.

A. White, the Breckenridge implement man, is at the Nicollet. Mr. White says that talk of drought did not affect the immigration into the valley. Fully 1,000 acres of new land will be made available in the spring of this year. This is land that was purchased years ago by speculators and but lately placed on the market. It was purchased at a low price, and the business men are not complaining on any other score.