Count Susini Dies in a Tenement in New York City. HE HELD THIRTY-EIGHT ORDERS He Controlled the Cigarette Industry and Was Known for His Philanthropy.

New York Sun Special Service

New York, Jan. 22.—Count Joseph de Susini, who was accounted ten times a millionaire in Cuba in his palmy days, when he controlled the cigarette industry there, died a poor man in a tenement at 312 East Eleventh street.

The count's death was caused by eczema, resulting from a wound he received in a duel in 1878 when he was commander of the leading young bloods in Havana, and when stories of his gallantries were the nightly talk of the cafes.

To the other people in the tenement at 312 East Eleventh street the rank and past wealth of the Count de Susini were quite unknown. They knew his son was a teacher of languages and that he was a far better educated man than the rest of them; but the old gentleman they seldom saw.

He was the possessor of thirty-eight orders altogether. His parents were descended from the nobility of Corsica, whence the title had been one of the highest. Count de Susini's father was one of the wealthiest tobacco merchants of Havana.

On his father's death the count succeeded to the business and built it up rapidly. He was the founder of the "La Honduras" cigarette factory, which had a capacity of 6,000,000 cigarettes a day, and employed 5,000 hands. This factory was for years one of the sights of Cuba.

In the days of his greatest prosperity, when his fortune was estimated at $10,000,000, Count de Susini provided for the care and instruction of fifty orphans, and had printed in the printing department of his factory all the books for the char schools and other benevolent institutions of Havana.

In the late seventies he was elected mayor of Havana, and after that he was sent as a delegate to the Spanish cortes.

CHICAGO VERY WICKED

Leads the World in Crime, Says State's Attorney Dineen. Chicago, Jan. 22.—"Chicago leads all other cities of the world in crime," said State's Attorney Dineen, addressing the Chicago Congregational Club.

He quoted statistics to show that arrests and prosecution of crime here were greater in proportion to population than in London or New York. He charged that the leniency in prosecution was largely responsible for this condition.

"Badly Crippled."

Rheumatism at its worst is a sort of living death. It chains a man to a chair or binds him to a bed, and metes out to him a daily martyrdom. At the best rheumatism is a painful malady, interfering with pleasure and business.

To cure rheumatism it is necessary to eliminate from the blood the acid poisons which are the cause of the disease. This is effectually done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It carries out of the blood the corrupting and poisonous accumulations which breed and feed disease. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands and sends an increased supply of rich, pure blood through vein and artery to strengthen every organ of the body.

"I had been troubled with rheumatism for twelve years, so bad that I could not leave my bed," writes R. J. McKnight, of Cades, Williamsburg Co., S. C. "I was badly crippled. Three many doctors and two of them gave me up to die. None of them did me much good. The pains in my back, hips and legs and at times in my head, would nearly kill me. My appetite was very bad. Everybody who saw me said I must die. I took five bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery and in four weeks I was able to get up. My health is good after suffering twelve years with rheumatism."

Sunflower Oil Makes a Delicious Salad Dressing. ALMOST AS GOOD AS OLIVE OIL

Professor Wiley of the Agricultural Department Says There is Money in Sunflowers.

New York Sun Special Service

Washington, Jan. 22.—Salad dressing from sunflower oil is one of the delicacies promised from an extensive investigation of that plant by Professor Wiley, chief of the division of chemistry of the department of agriculture. He says the oil from sunflower seed is delicious as an edible oil, and one which, heavier than any other known vegetable oil, has the general properties of oil of olive.

COMBINE AGAINST HILL

FRIENDS OF THE CAN. PACIFIC They Don't Want the Great Northern to Break Into the Crow's Nest.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—Friends of the Canadian Pacific are loyal Canadians generally have combined to defeat what is known as the "Hill bill," the measure designed to allow the Great Northern road to penetrate to the Crow's Nest coal region. A similar measure before the last session of parliament and it was opposed by every interest favorable to the Canadian Pacific.

The issue involved, according to the Canadians, is not the mere right of the Great Northern to tap the coal fields of the Canadian Rockies, but whether the Dominion government will permit American enterprise to gain a foothold in territory which should be reserved for its own railroads.

There are many interests ready to fight for American methods in Canada. The wheat men, for example, have longed for years to find a way of bringing the Canadian Pacific railroad to terms, and they think they have found it in championing the cause of the Great Northern. There are also certain railroad interests in Canada opposed to the high-handed manner in which the Canadian Pacific railroad is said to have carried freight and passenger business since it has enjoyed a practical monopoly of the western field.

The "Hill bill" is opposed by these interests, as it undoubtedly will be, a bitter fight will be waged through a large part of the coming session of parliament. SMELTING TRUST EXPANSION

J., smelting and refining and electrolytic copper plants; at Pueblo, Colo., smelting and refining and copper reduction plants; at Aguas Calientes, Mexico, smelting and refining and copper reduction plants; at Monterey, Mexico, a smelting plant; in South America, various smelting interests; also valuable leases and contracts running a number of years in the United States, Mexico and South America. WOMAN'S KIDNEY'S

Women as Well as Men Suffer and Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

To Prove What Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy, Will Do For YOU, Every Reader of The Journal May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

Among the many famous cures of Swamp-Root none seem to speak higher of the wonderful curative properties of this great kidney remedy than the one we publish in The Journal this week for the benefit of our readers. "You have no idea how well I feel. I am satisfied that I do not need any more medicine, as I am in as good health as I ever was in my life." So says Mrs. Mary Englehardt, of 283 Madison street, St. Louis, Mo., to a reporter of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "For more than ten years I had suffered with what the doctors termed female trouble; also heart trouble, with swelling of the feet and limbs. Last summer I felt so badly that I thought I had not long to live. I consulted a doctor after doctor and took their medicines, but felt no better. The physician told me my kidneys were not affected, but I felt sure that they were the cause of my trouble. A friend recommended me to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and I must say I derived immense benefit almost from the first week. I continued the medicine, taking it regularly, and I am now in splendid health. The pains and aches have all gone. I have recommended Swamp-Root to all my friends, and told them what it has done for me. I will gladly answer any one who desires to write me regarding kidney or bladder troubles. There is such a pleasant taste to Swamp-Root, and it goes down so easily, that it drives them out of the system."

MRS. MARY ENGLEHART.

How to Find Out If You Need Swamp-Root.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. So when your kidneys are weak or out of order you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fall to do its duty. If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the famous new discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone. Many women suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood. They are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for the many ills that beset womankind. Neuralgia, nervousness, headache, puffiness or dark circles under the eyes, rheumatism, a dragging pain or dull ache in the back, weakness or hearing down sensation, profuse or scanty supply of urine, with strong odor, frequent desire to pass it night or day, with scalding or burning sensation,—these are all unmistakable signs of kidney and bladder trouble.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to your condition, take from your urine on rising about four ounces, place it in a glass or bottle and let it stand twenty-four hours. If on examination it is milky or cloudy, if there is a brick-dust settling, or if small particles float about in it, your kidneys are in need of immediate attention. Other symptoms showing that you need Swamp-Root are sleeplessness, dizziness, irregular heart, breathlessness, sallow, unhealthy complexion, plenty of ambition but no strength.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice, and is taken by doctors themselves, because they recognize in it the greatest and most successful remedy that science has ever been able to compound. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles at the drug stores everywhere.

NOTICE—Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder remedy, is so remarkably successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers who have not already tried it may have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling all about kidney and bladder troubles and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. Be sure and mention reading this in The Minneapolis Daily Journal when sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
