Fourteen Weeks of Soup. The Philadelphia Charitable society has been in operation for 38 years, and for 14 weeks of each year, during the cold season, has given away every day 75 gallons of soup and 300 loaves of bread. It is true that the amount of nourishment and warmth contained in bread and soup is great, but the same nourishment in a much more palatable form is contained in "Golden Grain" beer. It has the strength of the purest barley malt and hops, from which it is brewed. Sparkling and delicious, it should be in every home. Telephone "The Brewery," 486 Main.

The Society of the Second church of Christ, Scientist, contemplates erecting a building in the near future upon its property at the corner of Second avenue S and Eleventh street.

A number of Northern Pacific employees will go to St. Paul this evening to attend a birthday party in honor of San Gorman, who is given at his home, 435 Case street. All his friends are invited.

Gilbert Chandler, aged 77 years, a resident of Minneapolis since 1889, died at his residence, Minneapolis Park, Jan. 16. He left a wife, two children, Elmer and Florence, both of this city; a sister, Mrs. Harriet Atkinson, of this city, and a brother in Washington.

The Hennepin Savings and Loan Association elected its officers for the current evening. President, John O'Donnell; first vice-president, Thomas Johnson; second vice-president, M. E. Cody; secretary, Gus J. Pasley; treasurer, E. C. Larpeteur; attorney, John J. McNeil.

A loss of $200 was caused last night by a fire in the clothing establishment at 19 High street. Above the store is located the Great Northern Hotel. When the fire broke out, the rooms were filled with smoke. The lodgers were all more or less frightened, but escaped in safety.

D. V. Freidenburg, 110 Fifth avenue S, a miller at the Cataract mill, narrowly escaped death yesterday. One of the large stones was being removed and Freidenburg was working below. The stone slipped and went crashing down. Luckily, it struck a protrusion on the ceiling and Freidenburg received some severe bruises, but is in the city hospital.

"PRISON REFORM" The Subject of Maude Ballington Booth's Y. M. C. A. Lecture. Among the women orators of the present day none has attained such eminence as Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth, who holds a conspicuous position on two continents. Her position is unique, holding as she does the love of humanitarianism throughout the civilized world. Her life is devoted to the cause of humanity, and every penny received from her lecture engagements she contributes to the furthering of the work of certain reforms. Her talents are not confined alone to platform oratory, for she is a writer as well. Her revenues from this source are very large, all of which she unselfishly donates in the same manner.

A PIONEER GONE James K. Wilson Passes Away at Soldiers' Home Hospital. James K. Wilson died in the soldiers' home hospital last night of chronic dyspepsia and heart disease. Mr. Wilson served during the civil war as a sergeant in company of the First Minnesota mounted rangers, and as a second lieutenant in the First Minnesota heavy artillery, his combined service being nineteen months. He was born in Ohio and was 63 years old. He was one of the oldest among the pioneers of Minnesota, having settled here in 1852, and ever since remained a citizen of this state. He was buried in company of the First Minnesota mounted rangers, and as a second lieutenant in the First Minnesota heavy artillery, his combined service being nineteen months.

JUSTICE Is portrayed as a woman, yet a woman's rights are those that they get can benefit of her powers. There is little justice, it would seem, in the suffering that many women undergo month after month.

Justice acts upon the legal maxim that ignorance of the law cannot be pleaded in mitigation of punishment. It is ignorance which causes so much womanly suffering. Ignorance of the requirements of womanly health, ignorance on the part of those who attempt to cure and fail, and ignorance of the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, drives wind, drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

When I first wrote to Doctor Pierce concerning my health, says Mrs. Mollie E. Carpenter, of Linnar, Cumberland Co., Tenn. "I was so weak I could not write a few words until I would have to rest; was so weak I could hardly walk. Words cannot express my suffering; dizziness, fainting, palpitation, shortness of breath, black spots or else shining lights before my eyes, terrible headache, numbness in my arms and hands, and many other things. My weight went down; constipation, falling of the uterus, disagreeable discharges through my bowels. The fact I was dressed from head to foot. Now I can do my own washing and cooking. I can eat bread and butter, and a six quart pail in the (full of water), and carry both one-fourth of a mile and never stop to rest. I used thirty bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and twenty-five bottles of 'Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y."

A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA Mrs. Jean Martin Brown Dies After a Brief Illness. Mrs. Jean Martin Brown died last evening at the Martin residence, 423 University avenue SE. Mrs. Brown contracted a severe cold three weeks ago, which developed into pneumonia, causing her death.

Mrs. Brown was a member of one of the first and prominent families in the city. Her father, Captain John Martin, is the president of the First National bank. Her funeral arrangements will be announced later.

The Death of Queen Victoria Is Mourned.

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT Addresses Delivered and a Message to the New King Is Drafted.

The Sons and Daughters of the British Empire met last evening in the Johnson Conservatory of Music to eulogize the dead queen, Victoria, and properly express their grief at her demise. The meeting was presided over by Dr. J. T. Moore, Rev. T. W. McLean of St. Mark's church, who was born on English soil, was the first speaker to follow the presiding officer.

Thomas H. Russell read an original poem, entitled "Victoria in Memoriam." Mr. Russell was at one time an English soldier. E. H. Morphy, British vice-consul at St. Paul, delivered a eulogy, saying that the meeting was not an assemblage of Americans, but of Canadians, or of Scotchmen, but of those who had admired Victoria as a sovereign, and mourned her death.

The music for the evening was furnished by a quartet consisting of Miss Edith Hall, Miss L. B. Wasserzieher, Harry Whittier, Glanville Richards, Russell Patterson acting as accompanist. The quartet sang "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," and "O, Come to Me, Ye Light," and Miss Wasserzieher, "O, Rest in the Lord." The audience joined in singing the hymns, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Auld With Me," "God Save the King," and "America."

A Message to the King. The following message was adopted by the audience, which will be sent to his majesty, Edward VII.: In behalf of the Minnesota branch of the Sons and Daughters of the British Empire, we wish to extend our grief for the death of our beloved queen, her majesty, Victoria.

St. Paul's Memorial Plans. The memorial services in St. Paul will probably be held in Christ church with the full Episcopal ritual and a combined choir formed from the different churches. Rev. Mr. Wilkinson addresses the students at Hamline university to-day in memory of the queen. Rev. F. T. Webb of St. Paul's church in this city has arranged to hold a special service in memory of the queen at an early date.

Victoria Grove, Woodman's circle, last night adopted resolutions lamenting the death of Queen Victoria, and ordered that she be eulogized. The resolutions were read by Rev. Mr. Webb, and the choir sang "O, Rest in the Lord." The meeting was a very enjoyable affair, and was well attended.

Masons Also Mourning. The grand lodge of Minnesota, A. F. and A. M., in session at St. Paul, yesterday sent a cablegram of condolences in his grief to King Edward VII. of England. Reports were read showing the growth of the grand lodge in attendance and funds. Last night an exemplification of the third degree was given, and to-day the election of officers was held. The grand lodge, delivered by Grand Orator D. T. Cahoon, of St. Cloud. The reunion of the Masonic veterans last night was a very enjoyable affair, and was well attended.

GO OUT TOGETHER The Way With Pops and Single Crops in South Dakota. "South Dakota is in good shape," said H. C. Jewett of the wholesale grocery firm of Jewett Brothers of Aberdeen, who is at the Nicollet, accompanied by Mrs. Jewett, on his way south to spend the winter. "The new crop is in good shape, and the farmers are rapidly cutting loose from the one-crop idea. The people are tired of populism and also because they had confidence in the republican candidate for governor. South Dakota is beginning to get good progress. The grain industry, and it is a good thing for the state, as a general thing, in good shape, and their methods of handling the trade are improving every year. Business is making rapid progress toward a cash basis. A few crop failures taught our merchants the wisdom of taking a look before the leap, and of letting the other fellow take the long chance. They learned the lesson of conservatism thoroughly. I think that the wholesalers in all lines in South Dakota are well pleased with the results of last year. Aberdeen wants to give the town a chance at the wholesale trade in that section. It does not look as if the question of rates will be brought up by our legislature. Our railroad rate case is in the federal supreme court."

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES Last Night's Crossley-Hunter Meeting One of the Best. The evangelists, Crossley and Hunter, yesterday forenoon held a very interesting revival service in the chapel at Hamline university. It was attended by the students of the institution. The services last night at the Wesley church were most impressive. The number of seekers was so great that the church seekers had to be vacated to accommodate them. At the close of the services nearly fifty persons had recorded their decision to become Christians.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the evangelists held services at the Bloomingdale Avenue M. E. church. To-night there will be a song service at the Wesley church, tomorrow night, being the last meeting of the week, the addresses of the evangelists will be upon the subject of the parlor dance.

MUST BE VACCINATED Lumber Firms Won't Employ Loggers Who Are Not. The state board of health has instructed local boards of health to notify the negligent citizen who does not report cases of eruptive diseases resembling smallpox, or measles that he is liable to arrest. Many of the lumber companies in this city signed the following agreement, made with the state board of health: That from now on we will employ only men who show evident successful vaccination, or of having had smallpox, or who are vaccinated at the time they enter our service.

PUBLIC MUST BE INTERESTED Dr. Kiehle's Views Regarding the Midway Normal Plan. J. D. Bond, assistant superintendent of the St. Paul public schools, yesterday held a conference with educators in this city regarding plans for a normal school between the cities. Superintendent Jordan was not prepared to give an opinion, but promised that the matter should have due attention. Dr. D. L. Kiehle was in favor of the proposed school, but felt that the business men and the general public should be interested, for without their assistance efforts would be in vain.

COURT CLERKS' ANNUAL They Elect Officers and Transact Other Business. The state association of district court clerks held their annual meeting in St. Paul yesterday. The sessions were extensive. The officers were elected, as follows: A. Blomberg, president; H. J. Ramsett, secretary; L. S. Briggs, treasurer; E. P. Barnum, vice-president. The executive committee is composed of E. A. Rogers, president; J. E. P. Flygare, A. K. Doe, L. S. Briggs, E. P. Barnum, H. J. Ramsett, John Raetz, O. J. Simmonds, F. L. Warner.

IT WENT TO KANSAS Minnesota's Low Grade Wheat Is Traced to Sunflower State. It has been disclosed that some of the low-grade wheat of the northwest last year was shipped to Kansas to be mixed with Kansas hard wheat and thence exported as Kansas Turkey wheat. A large amount, it is said, was shipped to Chicago for the same purpose. Minneapolis millers give a mixed wheat a wide berth and an outside market has to be found for all of this wet and "bin burn" grain.

THEY KNEW A GOOD THING IT WAS A DREAM

BANKS THAT TOOK C. OF C. BONDS Some Further Details of a Very Neat Little Deal All at Home.

As stated in The Journal, the loan for the new Chamber of Commerce has been placed in this city. Previous announcements have been somewhat general, but it is now possible to give the facts more in detail. The loan was taken by five of the large financial institutions of Minneapolis—the Minnesota Loan and Trust company, the Northwest National bank, the Security bank, the First National bank, and the National Bank of Commerce.

The amount of the loan is $400,000. The loan is not a mortgage loan, but a loan on the Minnesota Loan and Trust company stands as trustee. Twenty thousand dollars' worth of bonds will be paid off every year. The arrangement of paying off the loan annually makes the issue particularly strong. The interest rate is 4 1/2 per cent.

BIRDS OF PASSAGE "South Dakota has no primary election discussion to consider, as is the case in Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota," said a prominent South Dakota official. "The state seems to be taking to capitol removal talk really during the past few weeks. Pierre's lack of railroad facilities and the fact that it is not centrally located give rise to this more than the aggressive ambition of any town with designs on the capital. The capital once located is a hard thing to move. There are so many wheels within wheels and rolls to roll that the capital crowd can usually guard their own interests. A railroad to the Hills country from Pierre would stop rumors of removal. As it is now, the Black Hills people are obliged to go a long way round before reaching the capital."

N. O. Welkos, merchant, of Omomee, N. D., is at the Nicollet. Mr. Welkos is here to buy his spring stock.

Gilbert Elting of Mayville, N. D., is at the Nicollet. Mr. Elting is president of the Park River Mining company, whose mine is at Hope, Idaho, and in which many people in both Dakota are interested.

Orange Wright of Grand Forks is at the Vendome. Mr. Wright says that the recent blizzard in North Dakota was one of the worst squalls since the storm of 1896.

J. A. Montgomery, clerk of the federal court, arrived from Fargo this morning and registered at the Nicollet. He is accompanied by Mrs. Montgomery.

August Mittelstad, merchant, Milbank, S. D., is at the St. James. Mr. Mittelstad is here on a purchasing expedition.

August Lindert of Echo, Minn., is in the city. Mr. Lindert is a good trader in dry goods. Echo merchants pulled a good trade last year.

Mrs. B. F. Nesbitt of Fisher, Minn., is at the Vendome.

H. A. Root of Michigan City, N. D., is at the Vendome. He says that the hills west of the city have plenty of snow—a foot on the level.

B. F. Partridge, the Fergus Falls merchant, is in the city. Partridge is a well represented in the United States senate, and the people of the town are well acquainted with both Clapp and Nelson.

C. A. Morrison of Ellendale, N. D., says that Ellendale is interested in the reports of the proposed extension of the Milnor branch from the northern Pacific southwest to the Black Hills.

George Bartlett, general merchant, Hector, Minn., is in the city buying goods.

S. A. Swanson of Red Lake Falls is at the Nicollet. Mr. Swanson states that the people of Red Lake Falls believe that county division a success. The new county is prosperous. Red Lake Falls has grown rapidly in the past few years. The mills along the Crow and Thief rivers are preparing for a big run.

E. S. Allen, assistant United States attorney for the city, is in the city. Mr. Allen ventures the prediction that the next Dakota legislature will pass some kind of a primary election law. There is a chance for the people of the state to elect their representatives. He believes that the administration of Governor White will be the best in the history of the state.

J. E. Platt of Clark, N. D., is at the Vendome. Mr. Platt was for years a member of the state board of agriculture in South Dakota. He is now a member of the county board of agriculture in South Dakota. The country around Clark is meeting with good success in the stock industry, a lesson which the farmers of the state seemed to have learned early.

R. L. Palmer and wife of Wheaton, Minn., are at the St. James, returning from a trip south. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were obliged to return sooner than they had intended on account of the Palmer house at Wheaton being quarantined. For a time there were several cases of smallpox in the town, and it was but recently that the quarantine was raised.

IT WAS A DREAM

Fake Hopes Raised by Car's Erratic Course.

A STREET CAR'S QUEER RUN When Everybody Had "Moved Up in Front" It Started for the Suburbs.

What a sigh of relief went up from the passengers crowded into a small "Hennepin to Thirty-first street" car at 6 o'clock last evening when the conductor announced that he was going to make a through run to the end of the line.

He realized, he said, that he was carrying human beings, not sardines. The street railway company had determined to better the present crowded conditions of street cars at the supper hour by running "through" cars to the end of the line to the outer terminals on the main traveled lines. The crush which results every evening is almost intolerable, and passengers have been grumbling audibly about the long train of indignities to which they have been forced to submit.

The woman, who suddenly finds a horrid and unpleasant odor, is not the only one who is annoyed. The conductor, having failed to make connections in his wild clutch for a strap—is getting to that stage of irritability where she no longer sees the funny side of such incidents, mirth-provoking though they may be to other passengers.

The painful operation of having one's toes stepped on is also becoming unbearable with the average, long-suffering, patient passenger. The novelty of the thing is wearing off.

The fresh conductor who fights his way savagely through the "crush" has also very nearly reached his limit. Regular patrons of the Hennepin avenue lines have been known to form a citizens' league, whose duty it shall be to fall on the conductor when occasion requires, by way of tit for tat.

By pushing a few cars, filling each comfortably and then disregarding the "always room for one" tradition, it is thought that the "through express" can be made a long-needed institution which has come to stay.

When the car which established the precedent, closed gates at Hennepin and Fifth street last evening, it ran straight through to Thirty-first street without a stop, except at other line crossings.

P. S. Sad News—The street railway management says that no general change has been made in the forming an honorable system of filling cars beyond their capacity.

THE CITY WAS NEGLIGENT SUPREME COURT GIVES DECISION

In Case of McDonald vs. St. Paul—Other Decisions Handed Down Yesterday. The following decisions were handed down by the supreme court yesterday: State of Minnesota, respondent, vs. John Traas, appellant.

Syllabus: First—A complaint charging a person with a failure and refusal to commute or work an assessment of highway labor, authorized to be assessed by G. S. 1891, section 178, which wholly fails to allege in or for what year the assessment was made, and which wholly fails to negative the exceptions contained in the second section of the act authorizing the assessment, is fatally defective.

Second—Such defects go to the sufficiency of the complaint to state public offense, and are not cured by the fact that the complaint is amended to make the objections to the trial court.

Judgment reversed. —Brown, J. C. E. Peaslee, as receiver of the Manufacturing and West of Duluth, appellant, vs. Loretta Ridgway and Edgar W. Marshall, respondents.

Syllabus: First—A power of attorney authorizes the foreclosure of a real estate mortgage, executed in the form of a deed, under chapter 232, G. L. 1897, which substantially complies with the statute and describes the mortgage with reasonable certainty, is sufficient to authorize the foreclosure.

Second—A notice of foreclosure of mortgage by advertisement, which incorrectly states the page of the record book in which the mortgage is recorded, is not defective, and the foreclosure proceedings conducted thereunder are void.

Third—A judgment creditor, holding a legal lien upon the property covered by a mortgage so foreclosed, and so defective and void, may maintain an action to set the foreclosure proceedings aside, without showing the insolvency of the judgment debtor, or that the mortgage property is of greater value than the mortgage debt.

Judgment reversed. —Brown, J. M. D. Grover, appellant, vs. Fred Bach and Maggie Bach, respondents. Syllabus: Held, that the finding of the jury to the effect that the plaintiff was not the owner of the note, which is the subject of this action, is not sustained by the evidence. Order reversed and a new trial granted.
