BATTLESHIP

Move to Name One of the New War Vessels.

They Will Probably Let the Subsidy Bill Come to a Vote.

PUT THE REPUBLICANS ON RECORD

Friction Between Senators and Representatives Over Army Appointments.

There is a possibility of more or less friction between senators and representatives from Minnesota over the control of the twenty appointments, which will fall to the state under the new army reorganization bill.

Senator Nelson has been very busy all winter with matters of important legislation and is believed to have given the appointment of army officers from Minnesota under the new bill little or no attention.

A caucus of democratic senators will probably be held soon for the purpose of deciding what shall be done regarding the subsidy bill.

TAX BUCKET SHOPS

INDIAN UPRISING OVER

Mr. Pettigrew Has Apparently Been Reached, and all that remains to be done is to give Chitto Harjo, the chief Snake, who has caused all the trouble, a preliminary hearing and send him to Muskogee for trial for treason.

MICHIGAN HAS OLDEST WOMAN

New York, Jan. 31.—After searching six months for the oldest persons in the world, the committee on vital statistics of the Hundred Year Club of this city has prepared a report which shows that the oldest man is Izak Rodofsky, of Moscow, Russia, who is in his 126th year, and the oldest woman, Mrs. Nancy Holladay, of Battle Creek, Mich., who is 117.

MCKENZIE MINE FIGHT IS ENDED

Famous Cape Nome Receivership Contest Is Reported to Have Been Set-tled Out of Court.

All the Charges Will Be Dropped and There Will Be No Grounds for an Investigation.

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—The Chronicle says a complete settlement has been reached out of court between Alexander McKenzie and the defendants in the suits over the mines for which McKenzie was appointed receiver by United States Judge A. H. Noyes in the district of Alaska, in which property valued at over $10,000,000 is involved.

By this settlement, the Chronicle states, all the rights to the famous Anvil and Dexter Creek mines are vested in the Pioneer Mining company. This property includes the Discovery claim, which has produced more than a million dollars worth of dust.

Litigation in what are known as the Chippe cases is at an end. This includes suits brought recently in the superior court of San Francisco for sums amounting to $430,000 by Lindeberg, Lindholm and Bryntson against McKenzie for damages which they claim to have sustained by his action while receiver.

All the charges made before the attorney general and the president of the United States will be dropped and withdrawn; there will be no grounds for the proposed congressional investigation.

NOT KNOWN IN WASHINGTON

The Department of Justice Has Not Heard of Settlement.

Special to The Journal.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Senators Hansbrough and Carter and the department of justice knew nothing of the settlement of the Noyes-McKenzie case in San Francisco until it was made public through The Journal's news.

REVENUE THROUGH BRYAN

Judge Noyes' Private Secretary Makes Sensational Statement.

A. K. Wheeler, private secretary to Judge Arthur H. Noyes of Minneapolis, who returned Tuesday from Washington, was greatly pleased upon learning of the turn of affairs. Mr. Wheeler had received private information more than a week ago that a satisfactory settlement was in sight.

Those familiar with the case will not be at all surprised. The settlement is, of course, a cause for great congratulation among the friends of Judge Noyes. He has stood gamely by his guns during this whole trying affair, confident that he would emerge with unclouded reputation. The vindication appears to have been very complete. All of the charges were trumped up against him; in fact, no specific charges were preferred against the judge. In a general way, mostly through the newspapers, he was accused of bribery, corruption and malfeasance in office, but no one ever had the courage to put those allegations into writing and thus bring on an official investigation. The moving parties were content to flood the authorities with newspaper clippings, in hopes that through such agitation they could bring about Judge Noyes' removal. They wanted a judge whom they could handle, and he refused to be whipped into line. They manufactured falsehoods with which to blacken and besmirch his character. They were not satisfied with that temporarily to embarrass him by damaging his reputation throughout the country. It was enough for them to succeed in publishing and broadcasting the statement that he had proved himself to be a corrupt and unscrupulous man. Lane was chiefly instrumental in making trouble for Judge Noyes, because he expected Bryan would be elected. Lane was an ardent supporter of Bryan, having contributed $40,000 to his campaign fund. With Bryan president, he figured it would be an easy thing to secure Noyes' removal on any trumped-up charge of corrupt practice. Judge Noyes is still in San Francisco, where he is in San Francisco, will probably go back to Nome, and report to the court.

MAY THE REBELS WIN

Pettigrew Expresses the Hope in an Address in the Senate.

ATTACK ON THE ADMINISTRATION

On Motion of Frye the Army Report Displaces the Ship Subsidy Measure.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The senate to-day resumed consideration of the conference report on the army reorganization bill and Mr. Pettigrew asserted that the full record of acceptance, omitting such portions as were ordered from Washington and charged that only such facts were given to the public as suited the purpose of the administration. He expressed his indignation at the Paris commission had been sent to the senate in secret, the president had quoted copiously from them in his letter to the Philippines and the instructions to the Paris commission had been as did not suit his purpose. "And yet," he said, "the senate refuses to make the document public." General MacArthur's report had been suppressed for partisan purposes and the reports of the "fact commission" were colored on orders from Washington to fit the emergency.
