

Headline: Others do and will profit. Journal Wants bring buyer and seller together quicker than any other kind of advertising

Accidental Shootings. Special to The Journal. Onkita, Minn., Feb. 1.—Andrew J. Wall, of this village, was trying to crowd a shell into a 22-caliber revolver when it exploded, the ball passing through his right hand and grazing his face.—Henry Roddis, of Leslie township, while splitting wood, was struck under the right eye by a steel wedge, which crushed the right cheek bone and made a painful wound.—Anton Anderson, employed upon the farm of Louis Anderson in West Union town, accidentally shot himself through the instep of the left foot, making necessary the removal of several pieces of bone.

Green's Hotel Burned. Special to The Journal. Greene, Iowa, Feb. 1.—The Depot Hotel was destroyed by fire yesterday, with a loss of $2,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. A number of traveling men barely escaped and several of them lost their grips and sample cases, while others lost wearing apparel. Two elevators and a cold storage building, near by, were by fire several times and were only saved by hard work.

Proposed Electric Line. Special to The Journal. Spencer, Iowa, Feb. 1.—Local men of means are trying to interest in the proposed proposed electric line from Roscoe to this place, and from here to Lake Okoboji and Spirit Lake.

A Visitor From the Yukon. Special to The Journal. Sturgis, S. D., Feb. 1.—William Bradley, who has been mining in the Yukon for three years, arrived last week for a visit with relatives. He will return to his possessions in May.

Would Begin a New. Special to The Journal. Winona, Minn., Feb. 1.—A petition in bankruptcy has been filed here by Edward Baker French, of St. Charles, a farmer. Liabilities are placed at $1,072.50, and assets at $225, all exempt.

Indian Convict Gets a Bride. Chamberlain, S. D., Feb. 1.—Recently a Rosebud Indian named Martin Iron Shooter stole a horse for which he was found guilty by the Indian court and sentenced to the Indian penitentiary. In stealing the horse, however, he was but getting ready for more important operations in the larceny line, for it is now reported that he made his escape, taking with him in his light a buckskin sash and at last accounts he was still enjoying his honeymoon.

Marriage Licenses. James E. Taylor and Julia Adelaide de Vall. Stephen M. Wilder and Estelle Learned.

Deaths. James T. Smith, 306 Jackson street S. Jan. 31, 1901. Gabriel Erickson, 249 Jackson street NE, Jan. 30, 77 years. George W. Stevens, 412 Twelfth avenue N, Jan. 29, 22 years.

Patrons of the want page should cut this out for reference as it will not appear every day.
