GOOD MEN AND TRUE

Governor Herred's Appointments Commended on All Sides.

BILLS BY MUTUAL FIRE COMPANIES

Representative Wilmarth's Luck, but Losing Fight for a New Judicial Circuit.

Special to The Journal.

Pierre, S. D., Feb. 2.—Governor Herred is certainly fortunate in his appointments. It is universally conceded that his appointments for the board of charities and corrections could not be improved upon and he made equally wise selections for commissioners of the soldiers' home. I. D. Aldrich, who was appointed and confirmed as one of the regents of education on Thursday, is a graduate of Brookings college and his selection is therefore a recognition of the home product, so to speak. After graduating at Brookings, Mr. Aldrich took a course at Cornell. He has been superintendent of schools of Grant county for a number of years and is a successful institute conductor. Ivan W. Goodner of Pierre is well known throughout the state as a man of culture and marked ability. For many years he was reporter of the supreme court and at the present time is state's attorney of Hughes county.

J. P. Foster of Bangor, Walworth county, is a young man who has been a resident of the state since boyhood. He conducts a horse farm in Walworth county and has been a breeder of horses and fine stock all his life. He is a recent graduate of the Ontario veterinary college, one of the best institutions of the continent. During his junior year at this college he won first prize in diseases and treatment, physiology and chemistry, and second prize in anatomy and pathology. During the senior year he won first (a silver medal) in diseases and treatment, and anatomy, second prize in physiology, materia medica and chemistry, and honors in pathology. He has successfully practiced for five years.

Rev. Mr. Shanefelt and N. C. Nash, recently appointed commissioners of the soldiers' home, are here to consult with the governor over matters pertaining to the institution that will be placed under their care. They will not assume the duties of the office for some time, probably not until April 1. Both state they have not taken the matter of commandant under consideration and that the rumor that Captain Lucas is to receive the appointment is at least premature.

The duplicate insurance bills introduced in the senate and house relating to the incorporation of stock companies and the management of mutuals were prepared by representatives of the mutual fire companies. These bills provide that all mutual companies, whether doing business in fire or hail, shall be subject to inspection by the insurance commissioner and must receive a certificate to do business the same as stock companies. At present the mutuals are not under control of the commissioner and as a result much deception has been practiced upon the public by the mutual companies. It is claimed, for instance, that if the Watertown company had been subject to the commissioner the people of the state would have saved many thousands of dollars. The mutuals which are doing a legitimate business desire inspection in order to refute the charge that they are not safe and conservative.

The present law relative to the organization of stock fire insurance companies provides that the minimum capital shall be $150,000, while the minimum stock of foreign companies doing business in the state is $100,000. The pending bill provides that the minimum stock of both foreign and domestic companies shall be $200,000. In the case of domestic companies 25 per cent of the capital stock must be paid up when the charter is applied for and the remainder must be paid up within two years thereafter. The 25 per cent must be in cash and the remainder may be in real estate or other good securities of which the governor shall approve. At present the law stipulates that at least $100,000 of the stock of such companies shall be in United States bonds, which provision acts as a bar to the organization of domestic stock companies.

The mutual men do not claim to be philanthropists, but state they wish the requirements to be strict and yet reasonable, so that the business shall be placed on a legitimate footing.

Woman suffrage is in issue again, as predicted several days ago. Senator Williamson of Lake county has introduced the proposed amendment to the constitution and it will be pressed to a conclusion.

Attorney-General Frie rendered an opinion to the governor in the case of the veterinary surgeon in which he held that the term of the present incumbent, Dr. Elliott of Aberdeen, expired ten days after the expiration of the term of office of Governor Lee.

It is stated that some little delay is likely to occur in the appointment of the state oil inspector. It is settled that the appointee will be Emil Brauch of Turner county. The present incumbent, Joseph Meyer of Aberdeen, claims that his term expires in two years yet, and the matter will be thoroughly investigated before any action is taken. It is surmised that if Mr. Meyer is relying upon some technicality, the big majority of the public will not hesitate to see that means are found to oust him without any great delay.

The matter of establishing public school libraries is popular with the people if one may judge by the number of bills for that purpose that have been introduced. Several such measures are pending, and from the mass it is surmised the committee will have little trouble in formulating a good bill. The committee will probably report measures embodying the main features of the Hartman bill heretofore referred to, but changed to meet requirements in counties having individual school districts as well as in counties having districts with several schools.

The bill to increase the salaries of the governor and the supreme and circuit court judges was passed with an emergency clause, and is now the law of the land. That the third circuit, was excepted from the increase is probably due to the fact that Representative Seward, at whose request the exception was made.

Representative Wilmarth of Beadle county, made a hard and plucky fight for the creation of the ninth circuit from the counties of Spink, Beadle, Kingsbury and Miner, but the constitutional provision requiring a two-thirds vote to carry the proposition proved too much for him. Besides his work in behalf of the measure prior to the final vote, he made a masterly speech in its behalf and won support by his argument. Kingsbury county opposed the change, and Wilmarth charged in his speech that he had been approached with a proposition that he could have Kingsbury's vote if he would agree that Beadle county would not have a candidate for the judgeship.

Horner & Stewart of this city, and C. H. Winson of Sioux Falls have been engaged by Messrs. Smith and Bacon to defend their right to act as members of the board of charities and corrections. The commissions issued to them by Governor Lee. It is stated that W. W. Erwin of St. Paul was also consulted, but it is not known what he will appear. The attorney general, Charles E. Mearns, and the appointees of Governor Herred, will present the case to the supreme court on Feb. 12. The defendants' attorneys claim the case should be decided at once, and will argue it along that line.

The wolf bounty bill is having hard sledding in the senate and circuit court. Parliamentary ability to steer it successfully through the shoals that beset its path. One effect of the disposal of the bill will be to deprive the wolf of its ability as a railroad man. President Hays spent the night in his private car at Oakland, and started this morning on a tour of inspection of the western division of the Southern Pacific.

W. H. Crocker, speaking of the big deal, said:

IT IS A LARGE ONE

That Southern and Union Pacific Railway Deal.

HARRIMAN'S GREAT WORK

Vanderbilts Now Control Route from Hamburg to Hongkong—Effect on S. P.

New York, Feb. 2.—Additional details of the gigantic deal of yesterday by which the Southern Pacific railroad goes to the Harriman syndicate acting in the interests of the Union Pacific company, are very interesting. It is now said that both the Huntington and the Speyer interests in the Southern Pacific have passed to the control of the syndicate. The close identity of the Rockefellers, Vanderbilts and Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

The magnitude of the deal can be understood when it is known that upwards of $200,000,000 in value of the capital stock of the Pacific stock—were acquired. The big purchase insures a direct route from the Missouri river to the Pacific ocean under one ownership.

The price of the stock is not stated, but it is announced on excellent authority that the two great railroad properties will hereafter be operated on the community ownership plan, "in the closest possible harmony," according to one authority. All parties to the deal are reticent, and while the men in the street naturally doubt that the deal has been consummated, it is difficult to get at the precise facts.

Harriman's Deal.

Harriman is president of the Chicago & Alton road. He is also a director in the Union Pacific and in the Illinois Central, the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, and in the Oregon Short Line Railway company. The Union Pacific has already an outlet to the Pacific coast through its stock holdings in the Oregon Short Line and Oregon Railway and Navigation, but these connections reach the extreme northwest in connection with the Southern Pacific will give the Union Pacific a direct route from Ogden, its western terminus, to San Francisco. The Union Pacific at that point has a direct road from San Francisco to Omaha and Kansas City. Reports have already been current that negotiations were pending for the control of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, which would mean the Union Pacific at both Omaha and Kansas City and afford a direct route to Chicago, where traffic could be divided among the trunk lines which are being operated under the community of interest plan. Such a plan, however, is not necessary for a direct transcontinental line for Chicago and Alton to the coast with the Union Pacific at Kansas City and proceeds to Chicago, and the Illinois Central connects at Omaha and also proceeds to Chicago.

At Chicago the Alton is met by the Baltimore & Ohio for the Atlantic seaboard and thus is established a complete "Harriman" transcontinental route.

POLICY WILL NOT CHANGE

Idea of President Hays of the Southern Pacific.

San Francisco, Feb. 2.—President C. M. Hays of the Southern Pacific company, when asked if he thought the sale of the controlling interest in the company to the Harriman syndicate would lead to important changes of management or policy, said:

"I see no prospect of any marked change in Southern Pacific affairs so far as the public interest is concerned. What difference does it make to the public whether a railroad be owned by one man or whether its voting stock be held by a hundred different interests so long as it is managed in accordance with the public interest and liberal policy which conserves the best interests of the public as much as the interests of the stockholders?"

He has no reason to suppose, Mr. Hays says, that the change in management will be disturbed. He said he was on terms of friendship with the announced members of the purchasing syndicate and spoke highly of Mr. Harriman's ability as a railroad man. President Hays spent the night in his private car at Oakland, and started this morning on a tour of inspection of the western division of the Southern Pacific.

W. H. Crocker, speaking of the big deal, said:

Direct Line Hamburg to Hongkong. The Vanderbilt railroad and steamship interest will now have a direct line between Hamburg and Hongkong across the American continent. Whatever the Vanderbilts do they do well, and if it is possible to improve the service of the Southern Pacific road, the Vanderbilts will do it. With the increased connections of the Southern Pacific, San Francisco stands in a fair way of rapidly improving in importance as a shipping point.

Third Vice President C. C. Stubbs of the Southern Pacific, who is a warm personal friend of Mr. Harriman, says the change of ownership of the road was a big surprise to him. It was to the other officials of the road.

It is expected that H. E. Huntington will retire as a director and first vice president at the coming annual meeting in April next.

According to C. P. Huntington's will, his widow was left two-thirds of his $1,000,000 stock and his nephew, H. E. Huntington, the remaining third. In round numbers, the late magnate had 600,000 of the 2,000,000 shares of Southern Pacific stock. H. E. Huntington's portion was, therefore, 200,000 shares. On the supposed basis of $5 a share, he gets $1,000,000. Mrs. C. P. Huntington, on the same basis, realizes $2,000,000.

"NORTH COAST LIMITED"

N. P. Will Restore its Double Train Service. The Northern Pacific will place the "North Coast Limited" in service again on May 1. The double train resumption of double daily transcontinental service between St. Paul and Minneapolis and Tacoma, Seattle and Portland. The limited will leave the twin cities in the morning.

Transcontinental through trains Nos. 3 and 4 will be put in service the same day. No. 3 leaving St. Paul at 10:35 p. m. and Minneapolis at 11:30 p. m. No. 4 will leave Portland at 11:30 p. m. daily.

Cut-Lake and Rail Rates.

Shippers anticipate a reduction in lake and rail rates after the opening of the season. The all-rail lines have made a reduction, and it is expected that the lake and rail lines will take similar action before long. The present all-rail rate is $1.25, the differential line being allowed 10 cents. While the lake and rail officials will hesitate before cutting below their 75 cent rate, they may be forced to do so by all-rail competition.

Great Western's New Train.

The Great Western is building a handsome new train for its Kansas City service. The new train will leave Minneapolis at 10 and St. Paul at 10:30 each evening, arriving in Kansas City at 7 o'clock in the morning. This will be distinctly a wintering train, in addition to the three others now in service and which will be continued as at present. The present time between the twin cities and Kansas City will be cut thirty minutes.

Try for Health. I was reading your advertisement in the Ladies' Birthday Almanac and saw the wonderful Wine of Cardui prescribed. My health has been so bad for the past two or three years that I decided to try your Wine of Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am taking another bottle. A friend of mine was so helpless that I recommended it to her, and she is also using it and says it is doing her a world of good. I shall recommend Wine of Cardui and Theodora's Black-Draught in this settlement, as they are wonderful medicines. MARY A. MOORE.

WINE OF CARDUI. You may be well as Mary Moore. A million women have found relief in Wine of Cardui. From the continual agony of bearing down pains; from the languid suffering of leucorrhoea? Wine of Cardui builds up and regenerates the diseased organs and gives them strength and tone. If you are sick, and discouraged in the fight for health, try Wine of Cardui. It will bring you a quick cure.
