NATIVES NOT RELIABLE

Army Officers Question Their Availability as Soldiers.

New York Sun Special Service

Washington, Feb. 8.—Some army officers do not look with much favor upon the proposition to organize regiments of natives of the Philippines. An army officer of duty in the Philippines says in a letter: I wonder what those who favor this scheme will say when they hear of the result of two instances where the natives were armed by the Americans. One was in the province of Camadines Sur, where a native police force of twenty men was armed and equipped. The first night after being sworn in and receiving their arms the natives deserted, bag and baggage, to the insurgents. The other instance was that of a company of Macabebes, who were in the service for a year. They hung on until they had become as well drilled as a native could be in that length of time. They were thoroughly instructed in the use of the Krag-Jorgensen rifles, learned to shoot fairly well, and then deserted, with all the government property in their possession, to their "deadly enemies," the Tagalogs.

DUKE MAY VISIT US

New York Sun Special Service

London, Feb. 8.—Australia will after all not be disappointed. Accompanied by the Duchess, the Duke of Cornwall and York will leave England about the end of March or the beginning of April, in time to reach Australia early in May. The Opper, which will be converted into a royal yacht, will be escorted by a couple of cruisers. It is rumored that the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall will also visit Canada and the United States.

MICHIGAN MINISTER LOSES

London, Feb. 8.—A verdict was rendered to-day in favor of Rev. Bernard Spink, who was sued for libel by Rev. Tuberville Cory Thomas of Chicago, formerly a pastor at Ishpeming, Mich., but a resident of England since 1897. The alleged libel consisted in a charge of immoral conduct.

BAR AMERICAN MEAT MEDICAL BILL IS IN

Austrian Butchers' Association Is Starting an Agitation. Important Measure Introduced by Senator Jepson.

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE FAVOR IT. RECOGNIZES ALL THE SCHOOLS

Consul at Edinburgh Reports on the Decline in British Metal Industry. Regular Schools Make Some Important Concessions to Osteopaths, Etc.

New York Sun Special Service

Vienna, Feb. 8.—The Austrian Butcher's association has suggested that the chambers of commerce throughout the country address a petition to the minister of agriculture and commerce demanding that imports of American meats be prohibited, because such imports are not required, as the native manufacturers can supply the market, and because the admission of American meats is prejudicial to the domestic trade and to cattle breeding in Austria. All the chambers of commerce, with the exception of that of Klagenfurt, promised to support the movement. The Klagenfurt chamber fears reprisals by the United States. It is suggested that instead of prohibiting importation of meat inspection regulations be more rigidly enforced.

BRITISH INDUSTRY DECLINES

Disastrous American Competition in Iron and Steel.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A report from United States Consul Fleming at Edinburgh, Scotland, sets forth an alarming decline in the metal industry of Great Britain and calls attention to the lamentable lack of thorough technical education among British engineers. The depression is attributed in part to a fall in prices of metals all along the line, but chiefly to the influx of American iron and steel at reduced prices. The press in general blames the manufacturers for not adopting labor-saving machinery and the workmen for their hostility to labor-saving devices. Mr. Fleming points out that all coal deposits in Great Britain are known and there are few fields that have not been worked for a long time. Nearly one-fourth of the output last year was exported, and the opinion begins to prevail that this amount is too great to send away, in view of the most important bills of the session was introduced to-day by Senator L. E. Jepson of Minneapolis. It is the successor of the "state medical" bill introduced last session, over which there was such an interesting fight. Senator Jepson's bill has the endorsement of the State Medical Association, which means the united support of allopathic and homeopathic physicians of Minnesota. The bill is more liberal in its terms than the one of two years ago. It not only recognizes all schools and "arts of healing," but gives all an equal standing under the law. A notable concession to the osteopaths and Christian Scientists is that applicants for licenses who belong to these schools will have their papers on therapeutics and diagnosis examined and marked by the members of the board representing their own particular school. There is a bill already in the senate in the interests of the osteopaths, who want a separate board to control their school, and one introduced by the "insurgent" osteopaths, who fear discrimination on the part of the dominant faction.

Meat of the Bill. Senator Jepson's bill is entitled "A bill to act to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery and the practice of the art of healing by all schools and all systems of treatment in the state of Minnesota, and to license physicians and surgeons and all persons engaged in such practice of the art of healing, and to punish persons violating the provisions of this act." It provides that the governor shall appoint a state board of medical examiners of twelve members. They are to be appointed among the different schools of medicine and systems of healing, as nearly as may be, in the proportion of one member to each one hundred, or major fraction thereof, practitioners of each school or system of healing, not to exceed seven members from any one school or system. They are to hold office for three years, four retiring each year.

WILCOX HAS REFORMED

Hawaiian Delegate Says He Is Now a Loyal American.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The charges against Delegate Wilcox of Hawaii were taken up to-day by the house committee on elections. Representative Robinson of Indiana appeared as his counsel. Mr. Wilcox is accused of writing letters to the Filipino urging them to fight for independence. The written answer of Mr. Wilcox says in regard to the letters dated Jan. 31, 1899, and March 8, 1899, that the conditions at that time and the legal status of the Hawaiian Islands with respect to the United States were entirely different from those later and at the time of his election. He says he is now sincerely and thoroughly an American, believing in and heartily supporting their institutions.

George D. Gear, who makes the charge, was asked to produce the original letters.

This board will meet and hold examinations of candidates for license to practice, the four regular meetings being on the second Tuesday of March, June, September and December of each year. The board is to be paid only from the revenue derived from examinations, and the compensation is not to exceed $3 a day for services, and mileage. The board will fix the compensation of its secretary, who shall be one of its members.

Persons now licensed to practice medicine or surgery are not affected by the act. Those desiring licenses must present evidence of the time spent in the study of medicine and surgery or system of healing. Prior to July 1, 1901, applicants must prove that they have attended at least eighteen months' lectures at a college of medicine and surgery, or system of healing. After that time the applicant must have attended four full courses of lectures of twenty-six weeks each.

Examined by Their Own School.

Applicants must submit to examination in anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, pathology, obstetrics, diagnosis and therapeutics. But all papers on therapeutics and diagnosis shall be examined and passed upon by the representatives of the board of the school or system of healing of which the applicant is a member, and their decision shall be final. Those taking the examination will be known only by number, and the identity of the writer of each paper shall not be known to the members of the board, until the applicant has been granted or refused a license. The license can only be granted on a three-fourths vote of the board. The fee will be $20, and entitles the applicant to try again within a year in event of failure. The board may refuse to grant a license to any person guilty of unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, or any person convicted of a felony, or addicted to the liquor or drug habit to such a degree as to render him unfit for practice, and may, after notice and hearing, revoke for any such cause a license previously granted. The board may, at its discretion, dispense with an examination in the case of a physician or surgeon, or other person engaged in the art of healing, authorized to practice in other states and territories, who, on removal to Minnesota, presents his license and pays a $50 fee. This is limited to states demanding qualifications of equal grade with Minnesota, and which extend equal privileges to persons licensed to practice the art of healing in Minnesota. In its other provisions, the bill is practically the same as the present act.

Omega Oil

RHEUMATISM—The only thing that goes in where the roots of Rheumatism are located is Omega Oil. The little Swiss green herb that they put into this liniment is the thing that does the work. The doctors can't explain how or why Omega Oil cures Rheumatism, but it does do it as sure as you're born. Begin by taking a nice warm bath. Wipe yourself thoroughly dry with a towel. Then pour a little Omega Oil in your hand and rub the place that hurts like a good fellow. Keep up the rubbing until all the oil goes into the pores of the skin. If the pain is stubborn, put some Omega Oil on a piece of cotton and bind it on the sore spot over night. In some cases a cure will come in one treatment, but in real bad cases you have to keep on doing this way quite a little while. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

Omega Oil is for sale in most drug stores. Any druggist can get a supply of his wholesaler. If your dealer does not keep it, the Omega Chemical Co., 337 Broadway, New York, will mail you a bottle, prepaid, if you send 50c in cash, money order or stamp.
