Geo. Benz & Sons, ST. PAUL AND MINNEAPOLIS.

Charley of the Utes explaining that he did not want a wife, that he already had one and that the whole thing was a mistake due to his ignorance.

He received a reply saying that all preparations for the wedding had been made for next week and that if he failed to be on hand there would be trouble.

DISPLEASED WITH "BOB"

Loss of Immigration Board Keenly Felt in Northern Wisconsin.

Special to The Journal.

New Richmond, Wis., Feb. 15.—A storm of protest is going forth from all over northern Wisconsin over the action of Governor La Follette which practically amounts to abolishing the state board of immigration. The governor practically dismissed the secretary and the only active member of the board, George W Taylor, an appointee of Governor Schofield, owing to alleged extravagance, and that, under the circumstances, amounts to doing away with the board. People acquainted with the facts declare that the state board of immigration has done more than any other agency to advertise northern Wisconsin farm lands and has brought to the state a most desirable class of settlers.

IRON LANDS AT STAKE

Old Litigation Between Breitung and the Pioneer Renewed.

New York Sun Special Service

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 15.—Attorney McCree has instituted quo warranto proceedings in behalf of Edward N. Breitung of Marquette to test the question of the legal existence of the Pioneer Iron company. Breitung claims that the company's thirty-year term expired in 1887 and that it voluntarily dropped out of existence and never sought to exercise further corporate rights until recently.

Newspaper Articles the Basis for a Church Inquiry—O'Gorman's Communication.

New York Sun Special Service

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 15.—A sensation was created in Catholic circles by a communication from Thomas O'Gorman, bishop of South Dakota, in reference to Father William Kroeger, the priest healer of Epiphany, this state. The bishop's communication is based upon recent newspaper articles descriptive of the great number of patients from all parts of the country going for treatment to Father Kroeger, in which, among other things, it is stated that "in his own chapel he celebrated mass, his employees and such patients as wished attending."
