

THE HELPING HAND

HELP IS THE OPEN DOOR THROUGH WHICH BEAMS THE LIGHT OF HOPE

DR. COLE IS THE HOPE OF THE HOPELESS, THEIR STAR IN THE NIGHT OF DESPAIR.

TO THE MAN whose manhood is impaired by mental strain, business cares, anxiety, sorrow, loss of wife or family—to the man whose manhood is impaired by vices, dissipation, indiscretions or excesses;—to the man whose vitality is assailed as a result of worry and hard work;—to the man of modest, but brilliant prospects, throwing away his birthright and impairing his health by corrupt practices, dissipation and excesses;—to the poor man who never had Christian advice; to the man whose blood is tainted with disease of any kind—to all unfortunate men—my heart goes out in sympathy.

STOP, THINK, REFORM.

BE A MAN. ASK FOR HELP. SEE OLD DR. COLE.

OVER EXERTION OF BRAIN AND NERVES TELLS THE SAD STORY.—MEN, God has put a brain in you to develop thoughts. Why don't you stop a while and think? Why do you go on violating the laws of nature, keeping bad company, frequenting vile resorts, practicing vicious habits, when you know these things injure your health and shorten your lives? You ought to know better. Look at the signboards erected by pollution. Read, you who have abused the precious life God gave you—read the epitaph of your impending doom—it is clearly stamped upon your withering brain and atrophied body.

VICTIMS OF ABUSES AND EXCESSES, reclaim your manhood. Sufferers from folly, overwork, dissipation, regain your vigor. Think of the mental anguish, gloomy forebodings, shame and sorrow in store for you if you do not heed my timely warning. Do not judge with nature. Do not put your soul to shame. Do not cripple the intelligence by injuring the brain. THE BRAIN is the organ of the mind, the mainspring of life, which enlightens the universe; impair it and your chances for success in this world and the world to come are greatly diminished. Derange it and life is but a shadowy existence. Will you quit? Will you abandon evil habits and shun profane associates? Will you exert will power to be a man? To reform the injury already done seek the advice and counsel of this kind, old, fatherly physician who offers you his helping hand. He will aid you to rise above your wrong doing, make a man of you, and will lift you one resplendent day of joy. He offers you honest, faithful service. New advanced treatment, expert skill. You are invited to call or write. Our sacred confidences pledged. Free consultation. Plain envelopes. No C. O. D.

SHOT FOR SNOWBALLING

ENRAGED FARMER DRAWS A GUN

Three Litchfield Lads Are Wounded, One of Whom May Not Survive.

Special to The Journal.

Litchfield, Minn., March 9.—For shooting and seriously wounding three boys, who were snowballing him, Andrew Kaddeis, a farmer, was arrested yesterday. He is being held in jail to protect him from rough handling by a mob.

Kaddeis was driving past a schoolhouse when the boys began to pelt him. He drew a shotgun from the box of his car and fired into the crowd. Richard Madison was probably fatally wounded, and John Halvorsen and Fred Frazee were badly hurt.

"PIGGERS" TAKE THE HINT

General Rush for Tall Timber at Carlington, N. D.

Special to The Journal.

Carlington, N. D., March 9.—Carlington is excited over the edict issued by Attorney-General Comstock that saloons must go. As a result, persons who have been running the place have left on an extended vacation. The open saloons were brought to the attention of the attorney-general by the real estate firm in Carlington, the members of which are opposed to the sale of liquor. Complainant made and names of witnesses who could give testimony furnished. Mr. Comstock ordered the state's attorney of Foster county to proceed against the alleged violators if, after he had examined the witnesses, he found the evidence sufficient. Several witnesses were examined and while this was in progress the persons running the place escaped.

The fine weather of the past few days has revived talk of building and there will be a good deal of work done this spring. On the "Range" ranch, south of this city a new barn 32x70 will be built, as well as a commodious residence. The contract has been let to Contractor Bigger of this city. In Carlington several large barn and house will also be built. There will be much building in Jamestown also. In Carleton several store buildings will be built as soon as the weather permits.

TERM CUT SHORT

Change of Venue Taken in Railway Cases at Black River Falls.

Special to The Journal.

Black River Falls, Wis., March 9.—Circuit court adjourned last night. It was thought the term would last at least two weeks, but in the five Omaha railway cases a change of venue was taken and the cases known as the "Range" cases will be heard by some other judge. The term has been continued until May in order to give Charles Weber, who was shot, a chance to recover.

"INCURABLE" HEART DISEASE SOON CURED!

By The Great Specialist in Treating Weak and Diseased Hearts, Franklin Miles, M. D., L. L. B.

Will Send $2.50 Worth of His Special Treatment Free as a Trial.

To demonstrate the unusual curative powers of his new and complete special treatment by mail for heart disease, short breath, pain in the side, oppression in the chest, irregular pulse, palpitation, smothering spells, puffing of the ankles, or dropsy, Dr. Miles will send two dollars and a half worth free as a trial, to all who mention this paper.

His treatments are the result of twenty-five years of careful study, extensive research, and remarkable experience in the treatment of the various ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, which so often complicate each case. So astonishing are the results of his complete special treatment that he does not hesitate to offer all persons a trial free.

Nothing could be more generous. Few physicians have such confidence in their remedies. There is no reason why every afflicted person should not avail themselves of this exceedingly liberal offer, as they may never have another such opportunity. No death comes as suddenly as that from heart disease.

Mrs. A. Krock of Huntington, Ind., was cured after thirty physicians failed; Mrs. Flora Grastor of Bristolville, O., after twenty-two; Mrs. H. W. White, the noted actor, after a score had pronounced him incurable; Mrs. Frank Smith of Chicago, after five leading physicians had given her up; Mr. Julius Keister of Chicago, after ten; Mrs. R. Parker after sixteen failed.

A thousand references to and testimonials from, Bishops, Clergymen, Bankers, Farmers and their wives will be sent free upon request.

Send at once to Franklin Miles, M. D., L. L. B., 209 State St., Chicago, Ill., for trial treatment free if it is too late.

NO MORE DISAPPOINTMENTS

Apportionment Lost at Pierre at the Last Moment.

HOUSE VOTED TO NON-CONCURRENCE

The Movement for Reconsideration Came Too Late—"Boxers" Made a Failure.

Special to The Journal.

Pierre, S. D., March 9.—The seventh session of the legislature of South Dakota adjourned this morning at 2:30 o'clock. The only thing accomplished during the evening session was to secure concurrence of both houses to the amended confirmation bill. No agreement was reached on apportionment and the old apportionment of 1895 will prevail until the session of 1907.

This condition of affairs is clearly the result of plotting on the part of the leaders of the house combine. They planned to defeat apportionment in the hope of being able to force an extra session at which another try could be had at capital removal. At various caucuses they tried to key up their followers to the belief that it was their sacred duty to stand by the house bill and force the senate to concur. The plausibility of this scheme was demonstrated by the assertion that the house consisted of eighty-seven members and the senate of forty-five, and surely the greater numbers should dominate the lesser. Several times the anti-apportionment senators undertook to break up the deliberations of the conference committee by moving calls of the senate and demanding that the house bill, which was not in possession of the senate, be substituted for the senate bill. The younger majority on its part and upon suggestion of Seward, a member of the conference committee, recalled the house bill from the committee during its deliberations. Five o'clock the committee brought in to the senate a report signed by the three senate members and two of the three house members, Everett and Price. Concurrence in this report was carried against the house by a vote of twenty-seven to eighteen.

In the face of this English moved reconsideration of the vote taken during the afternoon by which the senate refused to adopt the house bill. In the meantime the house, on motion of Packard, prompted by Senator Martin (pop.), moved for non-concurrence in the conference report, which motion prevailed by a vote of forty-six to thirty. Everett one of the signers of the report, voting with the majority.

When this message reached the senate, Loomis, who had grown weary of the struggle in which he had played so prominent a part as leader of the obstructionists, made the usual formal motion that the senate notify the governor it was ready to adjourn. This motion was carried unanimously on a viva voce vote.

PACKARD RECALLED.

English tried to further retract the struggle, but was deserted by his colleagues. Johnston of Davison urged that it would be a grave mistake to adjourn without passing some kind of a bill. Both he and English were then put under protest to this effect entered upon the journal. By this time the house leaders became convinced they had gone too far, and would have retraced their steps if they could. Packard moved reconsideration of the vote of non-concurrence, but many of the members had left the hall and the motion was defeated. A motion to adjourn sine die was then put and carried after the usual formal communications.

The leaders of the anticombine are not pleased with the outcome. They failed to defeat the special appropriation bills, as threatened at one time; they failed to do anything serious to the general appropriation bill; they failed to punish "Charley" Burke, and they failed to make an instrument of the apportionment matter, as the governor has expressed a determination not to call a special session. On the other hand, they voted for every appropriation bill that passed. The house minority and the senate majority are in high feather.

The codification bill as finally passed provides for the appointment of a commission of three lawyers, to be appointed by the governor with the consent of the supreme court. This commission will codify, compile and annotate the laws, making such changes as are usually allowable in such cases, and will submit their work to the legislature of 1903. This code will include all laws, with such additions and amendments as may be thought desirable by the commission and the legislators. Fourteen thousand dollars was appropriated for the work, being $5,000 for the commission, $1,000 for clerical assistance and $7,000 for printing. The books, when completed, will cost not to exceed $5.

GUNDERSON'S OIL BILL LOST.

The oil bill which Gunderson has been pushing for sixty days was indefinitely postponed by the action of the house. Gunderson tried to get the house conference committee to take it up again, but could do nothing.

Governor Herreid removed Joseph Meyer, oil promoter and former mayor of Hurley, was appointed to fill the vacancy. The governor vetoed the bill allowing members of the legislature ten scholarship each in the state educational institutions.

AUTHORITIES DISAGREE

Miss Cass May Not Establish Rights to Welton's Property.

Special to The Journal.

Fargo, N. D., March 9.—There is a wide divergence of opinion among attorneys here as to whether Miss Nellie Cass will be able to secure the property of George H. Welton, who left a holographic will in her favor. The will was written on one of his letter heads and entirely in his handwriting but was not witnessed. Some of the courts hold that where the decedent actually writes the will and his handwriting can be proved beyond question there is no necessity of witnesses. The further fact that Welton entirely overlooked his wife and three married children is regarded as against Miss Cass' chances. On the other hand, they who favor her, somewhat similar in nature, is now before the supreme court and involves the right of certain children to inherit, where they have not been mentioned in the will. It is said to be the first time the matter has been brought before the supreme court and the decision may affect the Welton will.

Terence Martin, formerly of Fargo and now in the real estate business in Seattle, is taking the "Nelson" cure, and a notice has been published in the local papers of a meeting of his creditors March 18. Mr. Martin was one of the earliest settlers in Fargo and was at one time wealthy.

LYFORD POOLED THEM

Itinerant Repair Man Arrested on Suspicion at Fargo.

Special to The Journal.

Fargo, N. D., March 9.—The police arrested G. D. Lyford and thought they had a regular walking arsenal. He had a gun or two, a small searchlight, two punches, a pair of pliers and some keys. It looked like a good haul and visions of a reward for bank burglars and dangerous criminals lived out in the western part of the county and was a kind of itinerant repair shop. The revelers had been given him for repairing and was proven so harmless that his release was ordered.

Fargo candidates for aldermen have been in no hurry to get their petitions filed pending the action of the legislature on the Murphy bill to make the terms of Aldermen four years and doing away with an election this year. The bill failed and Monday is the last day. It is said Aldermen Schreuth and Ames of the first and second wards may have no opposition. Ex-City Auditor Rupert may contest Alderman Stanford's election in the third. In the fourth Candyman Everhart and John Hoagan, a popular railroad employe, are both said to be after Mr. Barton's official shoes. W. D. Allen in the fifth will have J. W. Sutherland and another candidate or two in the fight, and there are said to be several candidates in the sixth, where the east side of the ward wants representation.

MUCH BAD BLOOD SHOWN

Fatal Termination of a Case Near Crafton, N. D.

Special to The Journal.

Crafton, N. D., March 9.—The death of Joseph Ganache from smallpox is reported by Dr. LaBerge, the county superintendent of health. His was the first and most serious case at Oakwood. He came recently from the plerines of northern Minnesota and undoubtedly contracted the disease there. His home was near Montreal, Canada. There are three other cases, all of a mild type, which are rigidly quarantined, and no difficulty is anticipated here from the disease.

It is practically settled that Graton will have its long-sought-for state institution. Senator Cashel's bill, providing for the appointment of a board of trustees for the institute for the feeble-minded and the erection of the building, passed both houses. It is confidently expected it will be signed.

SALOONKEEPER BOUND OVER.

Special to The Journal.

Fergus Falls, Minn., March 9.—J. T. Bjerkvold, a saloonkeeper of Clithrell, was brought in on the charge of permitting gambling in his place of business. The complaint was preferred by Sven Turquist, the village marshal, who charged him with permitting poker games to be carried on. Bjerkvold was bound over to the grand jury but held in Montreal. The grand jury held in the St. Cloud district opened in this city yesterday with a good attendance. The afternoon was devoted largely to a good-fellowship meeting, and Rev. C. E. Ames of Pelican Rapids, delivered a stirring address in the evening.

MONTVIDEO MAY HAVE SMALLPOX.

Montevideo, Minn., March 9.—George Arnold, who has been in the northern part of the state, and recently returned to his home in this city, is reported to have smallpox. Several young men in town have visited him since he has been sick. The board of health is taking vigorous measures to prevent the spread of the disease.

MEAT THIEVES CAPTURED.

Humboldt, Iowa, March 9.—For several months a gang of thieves has been at work near here, combining operations chiefly to hen roasts, corn cribs and slaughter houses. On the 6th they robbed the slaughter house of Andy Bush at Filmore City, taking three quarters of beef including the hide. Some nice detective work located the meat, and last night Jim

WADENA MEN ORGANIZE A BANK.

Special to The Journal.

Wadena, Minn., March 9.—W. A. Baumback, C. J. Baumback and E. J. Austen have organized a bank at Bemidji. Mr. Austen to be manager. J. Vidon, jeweler, and Miss Louie Howard were married last night; Joseph Asken of Menasha has leased the Joseph hotel.

TAYLOR SURRENDERS HIS OFFICE.

Special to The Journal.

Huron, S. D., March 9.—The office of public examiner has been turned over by Gen. Maris Taylor of this city to his successor, H. N. Cooper of Canton, who is now here preparing to transfer the office to Canton. For several months to come General Taylor will be occupied in the settlement of the affairs of the building and loan company at Aberdeen. About an inch of snow fell here Thursday night, but it soon disappeared under the rays of a warm sun Friday morning.

FEDERATION WILL ASSIST

Strikers at Cedar Rapids Are Encouraged to Hold Out.

Special to The Journal.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, March 9.—The Federation of Labor of this city held a secret meeting which lasted until a late hour last night discussing the existing strike of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern Railway employes. Nothing was given out for publication, but it was learned that the federation has decided to assist the strikers and has framed a communication to National President Gompers. The coal heavers joined the ranks of the strikers yesterday, and the firemen had to load their own tenders. It is stated that the switchmen will go out this afternoon, and efforts are being made to induce the pumpmen to work out also. There is no absolute confirmation, however, that the strikers will quit work.

Negotiations between the company and the strikers have ceased, but no new men have as yet been secured, nor has any striker left the city in search of other employment.

It Will Include Practically Every Company in the Country.

Special to The Journal.

Geneva, N. Y., March 9.—E. H. Palmer, treasurer of the Empire State Tin Can Manufacturing company of this city, says of the plans of the tin can trust:

The capital stock is to be $75,000,000, one-half preferred and one-half common stock. The company will be known as the American Can company. Judge William H. Moore of New York, the principal stockholder in the Empire State tin can company, will be the principal stockholder in the American Can company, but the companies will have no organic connection.

JOINS BOUTELLE

Congressman Sprague of Massachusetts in McLean Asylum.

Special to The Journal.

Boston, March 9.—With his mental faculties deranged and hope of recovery very slight, Charles F. Sprague, former representative in congress from the eleventh Massachusetts district, is an inmate of the McLean asylum in Chicago, an engineering school in which Congressman Boutelle is confined. Mr. Sprague's term in congress expired last Monday.

Mr. Sprague recently came into prominence by inviting the committee of the District of Columbia to dinner, including Mr. White, a negro. Other members of the committee refused to accept and the invitations were withdrawn.

KENOSHA MAN HURT

He Is Knocked From a Train by a Viaduct in Chicago.

Special to The Journal.

Chicago, March 9.—A man, supposed from papers found in his pockets, to be Robert Steinback of Kenosha, Wis., was found unconscious on the Chicago & North-Western railway tracks under the Indiana street viaduct. The police believe that he was stealing a ride to his home, when he was struck by the viaduct and knocked from the train. He will probably die.
