EVANS' BILL VETOED

Measure Practically to Permit Polygamy in Utah.

LAW WOULD BE A BOOMERANG

Governor Says It Would React on Those It is Intended to Protect.

Salt Lake, Utah, March 15.—Governor Wells has vetoed the Evans bill, which virtually permits the practice of polygamy in the state. It was passed by the legislature of the insurrection of Mormon officials, but it aroused much criticism when its purpose became known, and even Mormon laymen urged the governor to veto it. The following is the veto message sent to the senate:

To the Senate: I have the honor to return herewith, without approval, senate bill No. 12, "An act amending section 441 of the revised statutes of Utah, 1898, in relation to the making of complaints and commencing of prosecutions in prominent cases."

No official act of my life has been approached by me with a sense of responsibility so profound as is involved in the consideration of this bill. It is a measure of the utmost importance, and in its consequences for good or ill it easily surpasses any other proposition that ever came before this commonwealth for legislative and executive determination.

But my oath of office, my duty as I understand it, and the conviction of my best judgment, and my conscience unite in demanding of me that I withhold my approval from this bill. Knowing this whole people as I do, it is my firm conviction that, whatever the present feeling may be, they will be sincerely grateful in the days to come if this measure is not written upon the statute books.

In my opinion nothing can be clearer than that this bill, if passed, would be welcomed and employed as a most effective weapon against the very classes whose condition it is intended to ameliorate. Furthermore, I have reason to believe its enactment would be the signal for a general demand upon the legislature for a constitutional amendment directed against certain social conditions here—a demand which, under the political circumstances, would surely be complied with.

For these reasons, briefly and imperfectly stated, and for many others which might be given at length, I am unable to approve the bill now before me. Very respectfully,
Heber M. Wells, Governor.

A CONVICT'S GOOD TURN

HE "BLEW" A SAFE AS A FAVOR

Merchant's Strong Box Could Not Be Opened—Novel Use of a B. C. Burglar.

Special to The Journal.

St. Paul, Minn., March 15.—A novel use was made in the neighboring city of New Westminster of the services of a burglar who was serving a term of imprisonment in the provincial jail. The heavy combination safe of a local merchant named Annandale got locked by some misadventure without any one in the place knowing the necessary key words whereby to open it. Local blacksmiths were called to make a good and speedy job of getting into the safe, a happy thought occurred to somebody. Why not ask Warden Armstrong of the jail to allow one of his confined crackmen to "take on" the job under supervision? The warden was seen, and, being a friend of Mr. Annandale and also feeling secure in his post, assented to the unusual proposal. He sought out one of his wards, a man named Mackenzie, who said he had no objection to help in the matter.

Mackenzie, accompanied by guards, was soon on his way to Annandale's shop. He went about his work quickly and systematically. He grinned at the drilling that had been done, but said that "it would do," though he intimated that the work was not really first-class from the burglars' point of view. He asked for dynamite, fuse and detonator, which were readily provided and the crowd of on-lookers divided rapidly as he poked the explosive into the holes in the safe door. "All clear!" said the crackman.

He lit the fuse and walked out of the office. There was a pause, followed by a dull explosion. The safe was open, wide open, for the door, ripped from its hinges, had been blown entirely off.

"It ain't exactly a fancy job," said Mackenzie, critically, "but its complete. It wouldn't have made such a mess if we'd covered her up with blankets before we blew her off."

The convict then returned to the jail, enjoying a cigar as a small reward for his professional services.

PROFITS BY FAKE HURTS

CHARGE AGAINST G. J. MOFFETT

He is Accused of Feigning Injury From Accidents for Damages and Insurance.

Omaha, Neb., March 15.—Gilbert J. Moffett, alias James D. Karah, has been arrested in Council Bluffs, on a charge of scheming to defraud by unlawful use of the United States mails. Moffett is charged with swindling twenty-one accident insurance companies, eight or ten leading railway companies of the west, the street railway companies of Omaha, St. Paul, Chicago and St. Louis. The detectives say he has gathered in over $10,000 within six years.

It is said that Moffett's scheme is to feign injury by accident, and to recover damages at the same time drawing relief money from accident companies.

RIOTS IN MOSCOW ARE SERIOUS

St. Petersburg, March 15.—News comes from Moscow that the city is excited over the riot which began there March 4. The disturbance continues several days, and it is reported that one student was killed and many were severely hurt in the conflicts with the police, who arrested 700 persons, besides noting the identity of many others. It is stated that the demonstration was directed against the Grand Duke Sergius, governor general of Moscow.

TO BLACKMAIL CLARK

Son of the Senator Declines to Be Bled for $5,000.

Butte, Mont., March 15.—The police officials have made public the details of an attempt to blackmail Charles W. Clark, son of Senator W. A. Clark, out of $5,000. Mr. Clark a few days ago received a letter directing him to send the money in small bills to "Wyo." Butte postoffice. The blackmailer added significantly that he was a dead shot.

The letter was turned over to the post-office authorities. The general delivery window was watched for several days and finally a small boy called for a package addressed to "Wyo." He was arrested and questioned. He said a masked man had given him 25 cents to call for the package. He proved his innocent competency and the blackmailer is still at large.

STUBBORN MINE FIRE

New York, March 15.—The employees of the Empire Iron and Steel company's Washington mine at Oxford, N. CALIFORNIA FRUIT WAR

San Francisco, March 15.—Canneries outside of the California Fruit Canneries Association have declared their independence, and there promises to be a lively trade war during the season, which opens in May. This will mean better prices for the fruit growers and possibly lower figures to the consumer. The California Fruit Canneries Association was formed two years ago by the absorption of twenty-five canneries, and has practically controlled the output of the state.

NEW YORK TAKES A HAND

New York, March 15.—State Controller Knight has decided to join the fight with that faction of the heirs of George Francis Gilman which seeks to establish his residence in New York. Should the courts decide that the legal residence of the millionaire was in this state, his entire personal property is liable under the inheritance tax law. If Connecticut was his home, the state controller can tax only that portion located in New York.

SENATE A ROUGH HOUSE

VOTE ON A BILL LEADS TO BLOWS

Wild Scene in Washington's Upper House—Libel Repeal Bill Defeated.

Olympia, Wash., March 15.—Representative Eustace of Pierce county and Senator Ruth of Thurston county came to blows on the floor of the senate.

The trouble arose over Ruth's vote in favor of postponing a bill to repeal the present libel laws of the state. Representative Eustace was on the senate floor and as soon as he saw that his bill was beaten, he walked over to Ruth and called the latter a liar and accused him of promising to support the bill. Ruth retorted sharply, and Eustace struck him.

The wildest excitement prevailed, and for a moment it looked as though the session of the senate would wind up in a disgraceful scene. Senator Baker of Klickitat relieved the situation by moving to adjourn until evening, and the motion was carried.

The defeat of the libel repeal law is a victory for the newspapers of the state.

DEATH OF JUDGE HAYES

Clinton, Iowa, Man Dies Suddenly at Marshall, Mich.

Marshall, Mich., March 15.—Judge Walter Ingalls Hayes of Clinton, Iowa, died very suddenly of angina pectoris at the home of the late Charles T. Gorham. Judge Hayes attended the funeral yesterday of General Gorham. He called on old friends and neighbors in the evening and when he reached the Gorham home he sank immediately upon a couch, complaining of a pain in his side. He was unconscious until relieved by death.

Judge Hayes was born here in 1842. He practiced law here directly after the close of the war, going to Clinton late in the sixties. He was an ardent democrat and served three terms in the national house of representatives.

Loba, pastor of the First Congregational church of Evanston, has been appointed a member of the committee to inspect the mission work and the educational interests of the Congregational church in India. The committee will be the first to be sent to India by the Congregational church since 1844.

One of the principal objects of his visit is to establish stations on the American coast for signaling incoming vessels. Marconi said the United States was slower in adopting the wireless telegraph than were England or other European countries.

San Francisco—The state supreme court has granted a new trial to Mrs. Cordelia Botkin, who was convicted of the murder of Mrs. John P. Dunning, in the summer of 1888, and sentenced to life imprisonment. She was tried on the charge of sending through the United States mail, from this city, to Dover, Del., a box of poisoned candy, which caused the death of Mrs. Dunning to whom it was addressed.

BURY THE WIRES

Electric Companies Join Chicago in a Conduit Scheme.

Chicago, March 15.—An experiment is to be made within a few weeks, says the Times-Herald, which, it is thought, will be the beginning of the end of overhead wires throughout the city. The Western Union, the Postal Telegraph, the Chicago Telephone company, the Chicago Edison company and the city of Chicago have decided to experiment with a combination conduit. The companies will share the expense and the city will own the conduit.

AFFECTS MARYVILLE COLLEGE

Tennessee Bill Against Negroes in White Schools.

Knoxville, Tenn., March 15.—The signature of Governor McMillin to the bill forbidding racial education affects Maryville college at Maryville, Tenn. The bill was the outgrowth of an agitation by the white students against the admission of negroes. Donations have been received from the Freedmen's Aid Bureau, from the United States government and from individuals with the understanding that co-racial education should exist there.

Negroes for the most part have advocated that the institution discontinue the admission of their race.

It is said, was at the instigation of Judge I. A. Smith, representing holders of $7,000 worth of stock in Lansing, Mich.
