The following toasts were responded to: "The Excelsior Ladies' Whist Club," Dr. E. R. Perkins; "Comparison of Lady and Gentlemen Players," L. F. Sampson; "Hearts in Cards and Other Hearts," Freeman P. Lane; "Our Guests," Mrs. W. Woodcock. The following were among those present: Messrs. A. H. Lyman, W. P. McDonald, George P. Dickinson, Melvin Bennett, C. E. Prince, George Hopkins, George M. West, L. F. Sampson, Walter P. Baker, Mmes. C. S. Marshall, E. L. RUMOR OF UPRISING But at Havana the Report is Discredited. Jacksonville, Fla., March 18.—News reaches here that a rebellion is being planned in Cuba to take up arms against the United States. This information comes from a member of Mayor Mowden's family, who is a resident of Cuba. He asserts that the extreme element is greatly in the majority and is secretly preparing for war and making heavy purchases of arms and ammunition.

Mr. Huati, the old Cuban agent here, rather doubts the report, but he admits there are grave grounds for it on account of the attitude of the extremists.

Havana, March 18.—Whatever the convention may do or say, however, an armed uprising is out of the question. In the first place, those leaders who counsel war are poor and obscure. They are penniless adventurers, represent no one but themselves and have no means or ways of collecting funds to put out armed expeditions with supplies.

Volatile and mercurial as the Cubans are, it is safe to hazard the opinion that Cuba will accept all the stipulations of the Platt resolution—perhaps under protest, certainly with a very free, but they will accept it.

U. S. SENATORS OBDURATE Senator Clapp Says They Oppose Popular Election Idea. Senator Clapp approves the course taken by Minnesota, Oregon, Pennsylvania and other state legislatures, which have sent memorials to congress requesting it to call a constitutional convention. If two-thirds of the states should present such memorials it will be mandatory on congress to call a convention to draft and submit a constitutional amendment providing for the election of senators by popular vote. The junior senator from Minnesota says it would be almost impossible to get the senate to agree to submit such an amendment, and the best and most practical way is to ask for a constitutional convention.

London—Lord Headfort's marriage to Rosie Boote will not take place for some time, if it ever does. The marriage was being celebrated by a sharp attack of influenza, and when he recovers he goes to India.

In Social Circles Mr. and Mrs. James Farrington have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alberta Marion Farrington, and Edwin L. Pruyt, who will take place at the home of the bride's parents on the East Side, Wednesday.

The demand for boxes and logs for the concert to be given by the University Glee and Mandolin club at the Lyceum theater, Thursday evening, March 23, has assumed large proportions, and the event promises to be a social event of note. Many of the society people are taking an active interest in the affair and the club is receiving encouragement beyond its expectations.

Mrs. E. S. Walte gave a luncheon for her sister, Miss Eaton, Saturday. The decorations were suggestive of St. Patrick's Day and the name cards were shamrock leaves. Tiny green flags, with the harp in gold, decorated the confections. Miss Eaton will return shortly to her home in Brooklyn.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain entertained Friday evening. The rooms were bright with roses and tulips and the dining-room was in green and white with shamrock rocks and candles. Miss Florence Lucas and Miss Helen Hallowell presided in the dining-room. There were twenty-five guests.

The marriage of Miss Florence May Ricker and Walter Alexander Swisher was quietly solemnized Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ricker, 115 Chestnut avenue. The ceremony was pretty decorated with potted plants and flowers. Rev. James Montgomery read the service in the presence of fifteen relatives and friends. A wedding supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram A. Johnson were surprised Thursday evening at their home, 2914 Fifteenth avenue, by their friends on the fifth anniversary of their marriage. Cards and music were the amusements. Miss Myra Key of Argyle, Minn., gave several musical numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were presented with a silver watch by George W. Meyer making the presentation in behalf of the guests. In the afternoon the members of the Enterprise Social club met with Mrs. W. W. Woodcock. The following were among those present: Messrs. A. H. Lyman, W. P. McDonald, George P. WHAT PETERSON TEACHES

Strange Ideas of a Man Who Has a Number of Devoted Followers.

It is reported that the Rev. Peter Peterson, who has caused so much trouble to a number of families in Minneapolis and St. Paul, by reason of his peculiar religious beliefs and the influence which he has been able to exert over his converts, causing them to leave homes, friends and families, has left for parts unknown. Relatives of his converts have been making life rather uncomfortable for him lately, but they do not think he has left St. Paul. They say he has only gone into hiding until the term blows over.

Public attention was first attracted to Peterson by the news of the breaking up of the Oakland family at Laverne, Minn., the wife and daughter, leaving the father, to take up with Peterson.

The next time Peterson got his name in the papers was in connection with the efforts of David Gruenberg of Minneapolis to get his sister away from Peterson's residence in St. Paul.

Among Mr. Peterson's former devotees was J. M. Marks of 1718 Portland avenue, Minneapolis. Marks has been trying to get Peterson arrested on information of insanity, but has not yet succeeded. The doctor who took a hand in investigating Mr. Marks' charges intimated that he might be insane himself, but Marks showed a letter from Judge Bazille of the Ramsey probate court, stating that he has not seen anything about Marks to indicate insanity. Mr. Marks thinks Peterson is insane because of his teachings. He says: "Peterson teaches that it is right to lie to the devil and resist to him. He says that he does not agree with him and he says that he says that he approves of suicide. He assumes to have the power to administer the holy communion. He says that Judas Iscariot was a good man. He avers that he was commanded to raise a child from the dead by word of mouth, but his faith failing, he put off the attempt until the next day, when he was able to produce convulsions only. Peterson maintains that he has the power to destroy men and women. Peterson now has Gilbert A. Tupper in what I consider a melancholy insane condition."

His Memory Honored Memorial Window to the Late Bishop Gilbert at Brainerd.

The honor of dedicating the first memorial window to the memory of the late Bishop Gilbert must be given St. Paul's Episcopal church at Brainerd, Minn., Rev. Roderick J. Mooney, M. A., rector. The window is a most artistic piece of work by Forman, Ford & Co., of Minneapolis. It is Gothic design, ten feet high and six feet broad at the base, and is made of opalescent glass. The background is of sky-blue glass in which is worked in black letters on three ribbons the words: "Praise Ye the Lord." Around the blue field are rich dark colors, the base also being in deep colors. The inscription reads: "In Memoriam, Malhon N. Gilbert, Bishop of Minnesota, 1886-1900." Right Rev. John Dow Morrison unveiled the widow yesterday, and preached the memorial sermon.

WAR ON THE "PIGS" Many Prosecutions and Several Convictions at Willmar.

Special to The Journal. Willmar, Minn., March 18.—Much excitement has been caused here by the arrest of alleged blind pig keepers. The following are in trouble: P. Norlander, O. Leyden, James Hacketson, John Anderson, Eric Borg, Frank Hulberg, O. E. Ferguson, W. A. Hacketson, Hacketson and Hulberg are having a hearing before Judge G. W. Lyden and Hacketson are now serving thirty-day sentences in jail; Hulberg appealed to the district court. The hearing is set for Tuesday at 9 a. m., and Norlander for Wednesday at 2 p. m. All are under bond of $100.—The prospects are good for another "dry" year. A great deal of interest is taken in the question of license or no license and the temperance sentiment is gradually growing stronger.

The local hierarchy went over in the morning to take part in the parade of the order in the neighboring city. The street cars were filled to a late hour with the returning members of the different organizations which had gone to St. Paul to enjoy the occasion.
