A SAFE FUTURE.

Is it safe to depend for a future competence upon business success? In looking over the records of the Orphan Court at Philadelphia not long since, Judge Ashman noted a fact which has excited much discussion.

THE GAME COMMISSION MAY GO AFTER A MINNEAPOLIS CONCERN.

The state game and fish commission is in possession of correspondence which it believes is sufficient to convict a Minneapolis produce firm of violating the game laws. This correspondence consists of letters written, it is said, to county dealers soliciting the shipment of prairie chickens to the state.

Executive Agent Fullerton says prosecution will undoubtedly result. Mr. Fullerton received a telegram this morning from Archie Phillips, a deputy game warden at Grand Rapids. Phillips says he got three moose at the camp of one Sherry and Hulen live up to league rules and come down with their assessments on time, they cannot be moved.

As the League Now Stands. So far the present league remains intact, as follows: Minneapolis, St. Paul, Kansas City, Omaha, Des Moines, Denver and Cheyenne. But the club owners are still in question and there is no telling what will happen.

President Hickey, Rourke of Omaha and Watkins of Indianapolis have worked hard but have not arranged a wholly satisfactory schedule. After the schedule experiment had been worked out was asked if he would order the public to know precisely how the same is conducted.

The Twin City Fight. When neither A. B. Beall of the Minneapolis Club nor George Lennon of St. Paul are about the baseball men discuss the row between them and there is no telling what will happen.

Lenora has an idea that she has an interest in the Minneapolis play, including the franchise and the lease of the plant and placed in odd charge until further notice. Most of these purchases are made of the country dealer.

There are times in the year when the egg harvest is a perfect pest to the country dealer. The best he can do is to send the eggs to Chicago and let the dealers there handle them.

The commission men are not alarmed. They consider the produce harvest at this busy time of the year large enough to give all a chance who want to engage in the traffic.

Arthur was thankful. "Thank you, judge, I'm not as bad as they made me out to be," said Arthur, with tears in his eyes, as he left the courtroom. He is a handsome, dark-eyed boy with a manly look about him.

Second Koehne Lecture. The Reasonability of Christianity Is Discussed. The second of the Koehne lectures on the "Reasonability of Christianity," was given last evening in the Andrew Presbyterian church, on the East side of the city.

Postponed Term. U. S. Circuit Court Will Meet at Ferguson Falls, April 2. The United States circuit court will meet at Ferguson Falls April 2, instead of March 25 as previously arranged.

Appeal From Cuba. Gov. Van Sant Gets a Letter Brief and Poinsett. "I see the Cubans are after me," said Governor Van Sant yesterday as he opened an envelope postmarked Havana, bearing a Cuban stamp, and addressed: "To the Honorable Governor of Minnesota, St. Paul."
