In Social Circles IN LYNDALE CHURCH

Wedding of Miss Marion Marston and Theodore Nagel.

DECORATIONS WERE BEAUTIFUL

The Ceremony was Followed by a Reception at the Groom's Home.

The marriage of Miss Marion Marston, daughter of Walter Brown Marston, and Theodore Nagel took place last evening at the Lyndale Avenue Congregational church. The decorations were very beautiful. A bank of palms and ferns from which rose stately Easter lilies reached to the organ loft, and clusters of lilies, fastened to the pews. The chandeliers were wreathed with smilax, which was caught beneath with lilies. The ushers were Frank D. Levering, Arthur Aldritt, James Davis and Guy Huff. The bridesmaids were seated Mrs. H. N. Kendall at the organ, played Flotow's "Village Wedding," followed by "Con Amore" by Beaumont, with violin obligato by Miss Max Kettler. The lovely Lovejoy Waldron sang "Since Thou Art Mine." Sixteen young women singing the "Lohengrin" chorus preceded the bride. They wore white gowns and carried clusters of pink roses. They were Misses Lill Le Beau, Irene Le Beau, Agnes Grimsted, Jeannette Cariton, Blanche Wingate, Hannah Sylo, Elias Dexter, Elizabeth Fales, Miss Miller, Flora Wood, Eva Crawford, Edith Pest, Mae Kendall, and Mmes. Ray Fillmore, Rust and Charles Trowbridge. Little Marguerite Strout in a white frock trimmed with lace and Freeman Garber in a white frock carried baskets of rose petals, and they were followed by Charline Pease with the ring on a white satin pillow. The bride's gown was of white Bengaline silk. The bride had a bolero of renaisance lace over a vest of liberty silk. She wore a pearl ornament in her hair and carried lilies of the valley. The service was read by Rev. Charles Burton and was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gerber, 3140 Lyndale avenue S. The bridal couple received the 150 guests standing beneath an arch of smilax with Easter lilies, palms and ferns. The background of the altar was in white and green and lilies were used exclusively. Pink roses were with the ferns in the second parlor, and red tulips furnished the centerpiece in the dining-room. The altar was decorated on the sideboard. Mr. and Mrs. Gerber and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miner assisted in receiving, and the young women who sang the bell-chorus assisted through the rooms. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lynch, Monticello; Mrs. Mattie Wheaton, Elk River, and Mr. and Mrs. Frazee, Maple Plain. Mr. and Mrs. Nagel left in the evening for a short trip. Mr. Nagel's gift to the bride was of brown broadcloth trimmed with gold braid, with a hat to match. Among the gifts was a handsome Haviland china dinner set, with accessories of glass and silver. The mounted carrying set from the congregation of Lyndale Avenue Congregational church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Nagel are members of the church. They will be at home after May 1 at 315 Dupont avenue S.

The California Prune

If wheat made as good candy as bread, then you would have an illustration of the wide uses to which the prune can be put. Simple prunes contain more nutritive value than wheat. Stewed prunes with cream will sustain healthful life longer than bread and cream, and the present-day California Prune has a universal use as a confection, served by itself as a fig or chocolate cream, and not a whit less delicious.

Let the children have free access to a box of prunes instead of candy. They will like it as well as candy, and the gentle effect of the prune makes growing children's health perfect, their cheeks rosy and their eyes bright. Ask your physician about the hygienic value of prunes for child or adult.

There is only one prune on the market carefully grown, packed and inspected. The proof that you are getting this prune is the brand of the California Cured Fruit Association, as displayed below, which is now placed on all of the Association's goods. It makes no difference what the name of the prune is, if it is in a box on which you find this brand it is safe. But if you do not purchase by the box be sure that you get from a box on which you see this brand.

STUFFED PRUNES
Try this recipe for Stuffed Prunes which won third prize in California Prize Prune Cooking Contest a few weeks ago.

Soak the prunes in water for about an hour, then pit them and fill each prune with a teaspoonful of powdered sugar, some nicely chopped walnuts and half a date. Shape the prunes nicely and sprinkle with granulated sugar. These are richer if left a week without eating them.

Be sure and send for book containing 100 recipes for preparing prunes in every way, which were obtained in a prize contest participated in by the very best cooks and chefs of California. This book together with a "Prune Primer," which will delight the little folks, will be sent free on request. Address CALIFORNIA CURED FRUIT ASSOCIATION, SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA.

settings. The church has been busy with educational work this winter and has given a number of programs at the settlements. At the close of the program light refreshments were served by the Misses Harrington.

Inspect Library Model. The Society of Arts and Crafts held its regular meeting at the Business Woman's Club on Monday evening.

It should be a matter of pride to the city that this entire work was created by Minneapolis men. The sculptural ornament, consisting of a fine group crowning the entrance, and the lovely boyish figures typifying the arts, the work of Mr. Gewont, harmonizes with the classic ideals of the architect, and is a reminder of the musical harmonies in architecture, as suggested by Statham, and can almost believe that such "beautiful architecture is frozen music."

A Sewing Society Tea. Mrs. A. E. Kingman entertained the members of the Woman's Sewing Society of Plymouth church at an informal tea this afternoon at her home on Second avenue S.

The Westminster Club. The Westminster Club met last evening with H. V. Jones, 1812 Colfax avenue S.

OUR DAILY BREAD BY KATHERINE KURTZ. SMALL ECONOMIES. For those who do not have to practice the closest economies and at the same time cater to refined tastes, or for the laborer who would look with disfavor upon the little dainties and delicacies that tempt the eye and please the palate of the more fastidious.

The Substantial Foods. It is a mistaken idea that the laboring man lives cheaply on his coarser fare, for as a rule he does not, but on the other hand, often pays more for the "substantial" than do those who are in better circumstances, but have a taste for a greater variety of the lighter viands and a knowledge of how to use them to the best advantage.

For the Salaried Worker. The distinction between the day laborer who delivers and receives "pay" and the salaried man, may be based on other grounds than the difference of a few dollars, for in many instances the so-called "salary" is less than the day-laborer's "pay."

lessons, but only in economy of food materials, but in the refinement of true economy.

Baked Hash. This may be made from the meat of a soup bone. Chop the meat fine with cold boiled potatoes and the vegetables you have saved from the soup, the cold boiled onions, carrots and turnips that have been boiled with the soup bone to make the soup more savory. If you have no cold, cooked onions, chop a raw one fine. Mince a little parsley and thyme and sometimes, if you have it, add a pinch of curry powder for variety's sake, but not enough to make the dish hot or impart a yellow color; a slight piquancy is all you want.

Savory Meat Pie. For a change you can use the above ingredients in a pie. Cut the meat into dice and mix with the vegetables. Season with pepper, salt and parsley. Place in a deep baking dish and cover with a paste made from cold mashed potatoes or a plain biscuit crust. Make a hole in the center of the pie. When the pie is done, make a sauce or gravy from the left over soup and pour into the pie first before serving it. If you do not keep soup stock on hand it is well to reserve a little soup for the gravies or sauces needed in warming over the meats.

THE WOMAN'S VOTE Saved the Day for the Park Tax at Storm Lake.

Special to The Journal. Storm Lake, Iowa, March 27.—The first election since Storm Lake became a city of the second class, took place yesterday. The republican ticket was elected, except one alderman in the second ward. There was a little contest, except on the question of whether or not the council should levy a tax of 2 mills on assessed property to purchase real estate and improve the parks. This was vigorously opposed by the first and second wards. Toward evening some one discovered that the men were not the only ones allowed to vote on this question, and before the polls closed several hundreds of women had deposited their votes, saving the day to those desiring the tax.

Seeding in the Red. Special to The Journal. Haledad, Minn., March 27.—Seeding is expected to commence next week. Owing to the fact that the crop of 1899 suffered from a hail storm and the crop of 1900 from drought, the farmers need a good crop in 1901. The work on the artesian well for the creamery is about to commence. E. J. O'Farrell of Ada has the contract. Jacob Nygaard, ex-shepherd of Beltrami county, recently returned from Oklahoma, where he had a position as pine cruiser with the Dawes commission. He could not stand the climate in the Oklahoma timber land, it being too damp and unhealthy for northern man. He will locate permanently at Haledad.

Personal and Social. Mrs. Mary R. Clark has returned from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas are home from an extended trip east and south.

Miss A. Sprague, of 725 E. Thirty-eighth street, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Judge and Mrs. Martin B. Koon arrived home from New York on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Gaylord have returned from a two week visit in West Baden, Ind.

Mrs. Alice T. Mansfield will give an informal dancing party in Richmond hall this evening.

Mrs. C. E. Lewis of the Waldorf has returned from a two months' visit at Hot Springs, Ark.

The Eighth Ward Social Club will give the last dance of a series to-morrow evening, in the Relief hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woolerton Sharpless entertained twenty-five of their friends Monday evening in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. Red carnations and ferns added a charming decoration throughout the rooms. The dining-room was also in red and green. Smilax, carnations and lilies of the valley formed a handsome decoration for the table, and red satin ribbons aided in carrying out the color scheme. The guests were Messrs. and Mmes. W. H. Gibbs, Wallace G. Nye, W. John Benton, Robert Johnson, J. M. Norris, John Benton, Robert Johnson, J. M. Norris, Gibbs; Misses Fannie Gibbs, Jessie M. Gibbs, Jessie E. Williams; Messrs. Brock and Harry Blodgett, of Decorah, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Sharpless were the recipients of numerous handsome gifts.
