YOURS FOR A LOVELY COMPLEXION. Did you ever notice it's a homely girl who says "I never use anything on my face"? Great sakes, she need not say so, it's plain enough for she's ugly, but don't know it. People glove hands, clothe the body, but the face goes unprotected, uncared for. No wonder the skin gets unhealthy and shows it. Needs nourishment and beautifying. Satin-Skin Cream and Satin-Skin Powder are prepared for this purpose.

ASK FOR Funke's HIGH-GRADE Chocolates. Wash a bunch of asparagus thoroughly and trim off the tough ends, then cut into pieces two inches long. Strip a head of lettuce fine and grate a small onion. Melt two large tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan; when hot turn in the vegetable; cook them for ten minutes, shaking the pan occasionally. Sprinkle over the asparagus two level tablespoonfuls of flour and mix carefully, being careful not to break the asparagus. Add a cup of good stock, a teaspoonful of beef extract, salt and pepper to taste, and let it boil up. Serve on toast. (All rights reserved by Banning & Co.)
