MINNEAPOLIS DRY GOODS CO. Sheets and Pillow Cases Next

It never rains but it pours. Here's a letter we received a few days ago: "As you probably know, we are going to discontinue manufacturing sheets and pillow cases. We have the following on hand, and will close them out at less than cost of the sheetings. How many can you use? Answer quick. A. H. Jackson Mfg. Co." We "answered quick," ordering all we could get of the more desirable lines.

We shall be sorry to lose such sterling, famous brands as the Boston, Atlantic and Pepperell, but none of us can afford to be sentimental. So the stuff will go as it came—at prices which are an insult to the quality of the goods. To be sure of what you are getting, remember that the number "185" on a piece of Jackson goods means "Boston brand," and that "180" means "Atlantic brand." The goods will be on sale Tuesday morning.

- Sheets. No. 185. 69 dozen 63x90 Boston Sheets, 57c, each. 45c. No. 185. 84 dozen 90x90 Boston Sheets, 78c, each. 59c. No. 180. 145 dozen 72x90 Atlantic Sheets, 63c, each. 49c. No. 180. 159 dozen 81x90 Atlantic Sheets, 68c, each. 55c. Pillow Cases. No. 185. 89 dozen 42x36 Boston Cases, 15c, each. 11c. No. 185. 72 dozen 50x36 Boston Cases, 17c, each. 13c. Hemstitched Cases. No. 190. 43 dozen 50x36 Pepperell Cases, 25c, each. 18c. Plain Pillow Cases. No. 180. 101 dozen 45x36 Atlantic Cases, 16c, each. 12c.

In this lot there are 100 dozen Pillow Cases of standard brand to be closed out at the following prices: 25 dozen, 40x36, 10c, each. 8c. 30 dozen, 42x36, 11c, each. 8c. 45 dozen, 45x36, 12c, each. 9c.

A Word About Haskell's Silks.

Down in the State of Maine, famous for brains and pine trees, is a silk mill. Its output is not immense, including only black silks and satins, and changeable taffetas with black warp. But what it does make represents the best that skill and absolute honesty can do with the silk fiber. Skill makes a beautiful fabric; honesty a pure one; purity gives it durability; beauty and durability make it famous. Such, then, is the character of Haskell's Silks, and none but houses that maintain equally high standards have the privilege of handling them. What is more, the Haskell taffetas are not warranted, though experience has shown them to be more serviceable than many of the "guaranteed" lines. Conservative honesty could go no farther. So the warrant that does accompany the other Haskell lines means something.

Thus the Haskell Silks have our unqualified recommendation. But we want you to test them for yourselves. So on Tuesday we shall sell them at the price of cheaper goods. For instance:

- 19-in. Black Taffeta, No. 1, 85c. 68c. 21-in. Black Rhadame, No. 1405, $1.10. 90c. 20-in. Black Taffeta, No. 1, 95c. 75c. 20-in. Black Duchesse, qual. E, $1.35. $1.19. 22-in. "There's luck in odd numbers," 'tis said. While some may doubt this, it's proven true as applied to those triumphant triplets of beauty—(1) Satin-Skin Cream, (2) Satin-Skin Powder, (3) Satin-Skin Soap. These three have been winning numbers for many faces upon whom nature forgot to bestow an attractive, satin skin. Satin-Skin Cream is skin food, emollient essence of fragrant flowers, beautifying balsams and plant milk. Satin-Skin Powder is extra fine, very adhesive, invisible, perfect that doesn't clog the pores. Satin-Skin Soap, thousands say, is as superior to common soaps as diamonds to glass. The Satin-Skin triplets are the most popular toilet articles of today, the leaders of yesterday, the sure winners of to-morrow. Use only Satin-Skin Cream, Powder, Soap.
