DUEL BY LETTERS
 State Auditor Dunn and Johnson of Ramsey Have Trouble.

State Auditor Dunn and W. R. Johnson, county auditor of Ramsey county, have been indulging in a duel by mail. In reply to Dunn's recent note asking a return of illegal applications, Johnson yesterday let go at Dunn with an old blunderbuss loaded with rusty nails, figuratively speaking. Johnson accuses the state auditor of being "full of dope," and closes the polite effusion with a choice selection of billingsgate, advising Dunn to his ears over the top of his head and pull his fur cap down over them in order to keep the public from recognizing his zoological classification.

NEW COMPANIES.
 The Lawlor Safety Window Cleaner company of Minneapolis was incorporated yesterday with a capital of $100,000. Its founders are S. C. Lawlor and H. S. Davis of Duluth and Leonidas West of Minneapolis.

The Pipestone Electric Light, Heat and Power company also incorporated, with a capital of $50,000. Its incorporators are Minneapolis parties, but the concern will operate at Pipestone. F. P. Wilson, D. J. McJerney and J. F. Conklin are the incorporators.

IT WILL BE READY TUESDAY YOUNGERS WILL HAVE TO WAIT

Those Who Have Seen It Say It is a Work of Art Through-out.

The Gopher board announces that its publication will be ready for distribution Tuesday morning. The book is bound in light blue, the covers being decorated with artistic designs by Miss Annie Blitt. The book is dedicated to Dr. Frankforter as a work of esteem for his favors to the board. Among articles of the literary department, the Minnesota Daily mentions as especially worthy of consideration, "Class Room Superstitions" by Miss Ada Comstock; a character sketch of Dr. Burton, by a former classmate; "The Gopher Hall of Fame," "The Prospectus of the '02 Gopher," and a storyette called "Daisy's Things."

Of course there is poetry in the book, among the poems being "The Storm Wraith" by Chester Firkins; a "Sailing Song," by Alice Davidson; "The New Era," by Vestal Cornish. These are the prize poems. Mr. Firkins' poem is accompanied by an illustration by Miss Amy Robbins which is worthy of special mention. The art work of the entire book is said to be of unusual merit.

The football plate and department will attract special attention. The plate is the work of MacMahon, featuring the department is a poem dedicated to the "Guardians of Old Gold and Maroon," by Edith Patch.

SANDSTONE ON UNIVERSITY AVE

Nicollet Avenue Bicycle Path Dispute is Compromised—Paving to Be Reined.

The city council last night adopted the paving committee's report, ordered a lot of cycle paths, referred the Omaha railway street vacation petition to a joint committee consisting of several committees on railroads, ordinances and the aldermen of the third ward. Four aldermen were absent and the paving bond proposition went over again to the following streets:

Washington avenue S, from Twelfth to Cedar, with brick on concrete pavement.

University avenue SE, from Fifth to Eleventh avenues, with sandstone on concrete.

Sixth street N, Hennepin to Third avenue, with brick.

Tenth street S, First avenue to Park, with cedar blocks.

Eligant street, Hennepin to Nicollet, with cedar blocks.

Washington avenue N, Twentieth to Twenty-sixth avenues, with sandstone.

Marshall street NE, Eleventh avenue to Thirtieth avenue, with sandstone.

Sandstone Stands.

Alderman Chaffield led in an effort to have the sandstone recommendation for University avenue changed to brick, but was outvoted. Otherwise the list went through to the paving committee.

The bids received for the fire department buildings on Third street were rejected and the clerk directed to re-advertise. The bid of cycle paths recently recommended by the committee was ordered with the exception of the University and Stevens avenue paths. One was added on Talmadge avenue, from Twenty-fifth to Fifteenth avenue SE, and on Fifteenth avenue to Como avenue. The various views as to a path across the river on Nicollet and Centre avenues were amalgamated in a compromise calling for a path four feet wide to be made by smoothing the present granite pavement and relaying it in cement. It is claimed that this proposal will cost only about half as much as brick.

Logging Ordinance.

An ordinance that means a great deal to the sawmill operatives was introduced by Alderman Munn and passed under suspension of the rules. In substance it grants to the Northern Pacific railway the right to lay a spur track down its line, easterly across Pacific avenue, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth avenues N, and easterly across Pacific avenue between Twenty-third and Twenty-second avenues, between Mill street and the river, and across Twenty-first avenue N, between Pacific street and the river. The ordinance is to enable the Scanlon-Gipson Lumber company, which has many million feet of logs on hand in the vicinity of Brainerd, to ship their logs to Minneapolis by rail, and then run them over the spur track down to the river, where they are to be saved at the Diamond mill. Otherwise the lumber company would be obliged to ship the logs to Stillwater to be sawed. Under the arrangement made possible by the ordinance the Diamond mill and doubtless others will be glad to give constant employment day and night.

PENALTY DAY IS NEAR

County Treasurer Bell Says Pay Your Taxes Before the Rush.

County Treasurer Bell desires to call the attention of the tax payers to the fact that the time for paying real estate taxes without the penalty expires May 31. He says:

"The May rush for paying real estate taxes is beginning. A week or two from this time the county treasurer's office will look like a box office just before a grand opera. Everybody that pays taxes knows that the last day of May is the last day taxes can be paid without the added 10 per cent penalty, and this is not far off now. Yet nearly everybody puts it off till the last day of two and then gets into the jam. Business men often have to stand in line three or four hours. All this might easily be avoided if the tax payers would get their taxes ahead of penalty day, June 1, or by using the mails. Get your tax statement, pin a certified bank check to it for the amount required and the bank carrier will deliver it to the office of the Minneapolis postmark on a tax remittance in the city will be accepted as the date of payment."

"Already we have a large increased force of experienced stationers, clerks and receivers, and are prepared to give taxpayers prompt service."

A Newsboy's Success.

Eight years ago Harry and Charles Schott were selling the New York papers on the street corners. To-day they own a large business and a good-sized business block in Washington—all earned by their own efforts. When they sold papers on the street they always sold more than other boys; when they bought a little newsstand they put more vim and effort into their work than their competitors. They succeeded because they compelled success. So with the brewing of "Golden Grain Beer" it is pre-eminent among table beverages because it is made so. Brewed from the purest barley malt and hops, it is bound to be good, pure, fresh and delicious, and should be in every home in the land. If you haven't a case at home, telephone "The Brewery," 485 Main, and get it.

The judges were J. A. Burger, H. B. Glaslow and James McIntyre. Professor Marie Sanford presided. The sophomore sophomore event will be held next Monday.

A BRILLIANT GENIUS

Rev. Dr. J. Henry Smythe to Lecture To-morrow Night.

Rev. Dr. J. Henry Smythe of Philadelphia, the widely known preacher, lecturer and publisher, will deliver his famous lecture on "Turning Points in a Young Man's Life," at the Hennepin Avenue Methodist church to-morrow night. The Philadelphia Times thus speaks of him:

"The Rev. Dr. J. Henry Smythe is the most popular public orator and platform speaker in Philadelphia. We shall advise you. The mention of his name will fill almost any central church in the city. He is a brilliant genius. His imagination is rich and poetic. His power to captivate and thrill an audience is beyond question. His astounding illustrations are always fresh, appropriate and beautiful. He is gifted with great personal beauty, a splendid voice and intense magnetic power."

COLLECTED $8,000

It Costs to Trespass on State Lands.

W. S. Dedon, head timber cruiser for the state auditor and collector in the capitol yesterday and deposited with the state treasurer checks to the amount of $8,000, collected from lumber companies for timber cut on state lands. Either trespassers have been unusually diligent in the season, or the cruisers have been especially diligent. They have been very successful in rounding up violations of the law.

IN MILWAUKEE NEXT

Where the National Conference of Charities Will Meet.

Washington, May 11.—The national conference of charities and correction today decided to hold the next convention in Milwaukee at a date to be selected later, probably in June, 1902. The public session to-day was devoted to a discussion of a project advocated by the committee on legislation for a national bureau of charities and correction with educational and statistical functions, and was addressed by the bureau of education. Dr. H. W. Wilson, assistant director of the census; Edward T. Devine of New York, and Professor F. A. Pettey of Palo Alto, Cal., will address favoring the project and a committee of three was appointed to press action.

UNIDENTIFIED BODY.

The body of the man found Thursday night in the river above the Fort Snelling bridge remains unidentified at the Ramsey county morgue. The body will be buried in the course of a few days if not claimed.

A Newsboy's Success.

Eight years ago Harry and Charles Schott were selling the New York papers on the street corners. To-day they own a large business and a good-sized business block in Washington—all earned by their own efforts. When they sold papers on the street they always sold more than other boys; when they bought a little newsstand they put more vim and effort into their work than their competitors. They succeeded because they compelled success. So with the brewing of "Golden Grain Beer" it is pre-eminent among table beverages because it is made so. Brewed from the purest barley malt and hops, it is bound to be good, pure, fresh and delicious, and should be in every home in the land. If you haven't a case at home, telephone "The Brewery," 485 Main, and get it.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET.

The executive council of the State Historical Society will meet at the rooms of the society in the state capitol Monday evening at 7:45. Following this session the secretary, Warren Upham, will speak briefly of his recent examination of Prairie Island, Minn., occupied by Croquettes and Redmen, 1865, and by Le Sueur, 1895. A paper on early steamboating on the Minnesota and Red rivers will be read by Captain Edwin Bell.

NO PAINTING BONDS GO FOR THE '02 GOPHER CHANCES ARE NOT GOOD

IT WILL BE READY TUESDAY YOUNGERS WILL HAVE TO WAIT

Those Who Have Seen It Say It is a Work of Art Through-out.

The Gopher board announces that its publication will be ready for distribution Tuesday morning. The book is bound in light blue, the covers being decorated with artistic designs by Miss Annie Blitt. The book is dedicated to Dr. Frankforter as a work of esteem for his favors to the board. Among articles of the literary department, the Minnesota Daily mentions as especially worthy of consideration, "Class Room Superstitions" by Miss Ada Comstock; a character sketch of Dr. Burton, by a former classmate; "The Gopher Hall of Fame," "The Prospectus of the '02 Gopher," and a storyette called "Daisy's Things."

Of course there is poetry in the book, among the poems being "The Storm Wraith" by Chester Firkins; a "Sailing Song," by Alice Davidson; "The New Era," by Vestal Cornish. These are the prize poems. Mr. Firkins' poem is accompanied by an illustration by Miss Amy Robbins which is worthy of special mention. The art work of the entire book is said to be of unusual merit.

The football plate and department will attract special attention. The plate is the work of MacMahon, featuring the department is a poem dedicated to the "Guardians of Old Gold and Maroon," by Edith Patch.

Half-tones of the various teams and organizations of all sorts, of course, occupy a large amount of space and constitute a valuable record for those who will soon be looking back to their college days and refreshing their memories of those days by this record
