It is Even Said That Col. Tanner Has Been Summoned to Testify.
The entire license committee of the city council was subpoenaed by the grand jury late yesterday afternoon and appeared at the court house this morning, but were excused until the afternoon, when they were called in and asked a few pertinent questions. Only but information sought from them by the jury was in relation to the variety theater operated by the Sodini Brothers, which was voluntarily closed shortly after the death of Hazel Murphy, but reopened Monday evening. The jury have heard that there was some trouble in the committee regarding the granting of this license and want to know all about it.

Private William Tate, colored, Twenty-fourth United States Infantry, escaped from a guard at Fort Snelling Tuesday. He was serving a year's sentence.

The tenderloin district still remains "dark." The order to close went into effect last Friday night and since then the places have been "closed" by the Mayor Ames issued the order to impress the women that he has the authority to do as he will in regulating the tenderloin.

As to Grocers Selling Liquor.
Members of the committee were also requested to give whatever reasons may exist why liquor sellers known as grocers, or operating so-called family supply houses, should not pay the regular retail liquor license, as they have done under former administrations.

Inspectors Testify.
Late yesterday afternoon inspectors Needham and Farnham were on the carpet. Needham was asked to bring along the books of the Central station and testify whether a double system of bookkeeping was the custom under the Ames administration. He was also quizzed regarding the appearance of King who had been guilty of assaulting Walter Christenson while the latter, under arrest, was being held by two officers. Farnham was also asked in to testify regarding this alleged assault.

WANT CANTEN RESTORED
Fort Snelling's Experience Like That of Other Posts.
Army officers at Fort Snelling deeply deplore the legislation which abolished the army canteen and declare that never before has the army been so much drunk as at present. Two companies of the Eighth Infantry are now stationed at the fort and at the present moment the canteen is being used for the sale of beer and wine. Under the canteen system the average was two or three for the entire regiment. In the matter of the department of the soldiers the canteen has been discontinued and the tendency has been to drag the men into trouble in the cities adjoining their barracks. Desertions are much more numerous since the abolition of the canteen and at Snelling the courts have been called not less than five times this year as compared with three times for all of last year for the entire regiment.

THE DUES

Knights of Columbus
They Open Their New Hall at 322 Nicollet Avenue.
Hennepin council, Knights of Columbus, gave a reception last evening to open its new rooms at 322 Nicollet Avenue. The council is the largest Catholic body in the city and its new quarters are quite in accord with its position. The rooms are spacious and most attractively furnished. The billiard and reading-rooms are in green, while the ladies' parlor and the dining-room are in a different shade of that restful color. The handsome furnishings were minutely examined and evening with a profusion of palms, and great clusters of fragrant spring flowers were used with charming effect. Easter lilies and hydrangeas, red and yellow tulips were most effective against the dark green of the palms and the lighter shade of ferns and vines. The 300 guests were received by the reception committee and the chairman of the arrangement committee, Rev. J. M. Cleary, Messrs. and Mmes. Thomas E. Cootey, J. M. Schutz, Herbert Kelly, Charles P. Preston and W. H. Donahue.

St. Louis' Plait.
Special to The Journal.
St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—Much speculation has been indulged in as to the real purpose of the visit of President Ives of the Burlington railroad to this part of the country this week. It was announced that he was on his way to Salem, where he was alleged to be to attend to the business of the Burlington. However, it was learned, however, that he went on from Salem to Canova, and after remaining there some time returned to St. Louis. It is expressed that the trip had something to do with a revival of the plan of the Burlington and the Worthington road, which is a proposed line from Troy to Canova, paralleling the Milwaukee road and running through Dell Rapids along the north line of this (Minnesota) county.

Merchandise Rates Disturbed.
Merchandise rates via the Chicago-Minneapolis line are again in a state of disturbance. It was said yesterday on apparently good authority that numerous cuts have been made in the rates. The latter road has had its rates stable and that entire harmony prevails. It is said that all-rail lines are carrying freight at the rate of 100 per cent, and the disturbed condition, although not so critical, is more extensive than during the trouble of a few weeks ago.

Live Stock Discrimination.
A meeting of representatives of the freight departments of the Omaha, the Milwaukee and northern coast, at Chicago, Minn., yesterday at which discussion was had regarding apparent discrimination in the matter of live stock rates. The Milwaukee City, as against Minneapolis and St. Paul. The discrimination amounts, in certain instances, to as much as 25 per cent. The city interests hold it to be a serious matter. Complaints upon the subject have been filed with the state railway and warehouse commission, but as the trouble is largely interstate there is little which that body can do.

Yellowstone to Open June 1.
While it is anticipated that the unexpected illness of Mrs. McKinley will make it impossible for the presidential party to pay its expected visit to the Yellowstone Park, it is said that preparations for the opening of the hotels in the park June 1, fifteen days in advance of the regular season, are so far under way that it will be impossible to delay the date of opening.

Wrong Date.
The date of the popular excursions to be given by the Omaha, which were announced in these columns as being for May 19 and 26, should have been for May 19 and 26.

Railroad Notes.
General Passenger Agent A. B. Cutts, of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway, left last evening to attend a meeting of the Western Passenger Association at Chicago. At this meeting, an effort will be made to arrange for the Pan-American and the G. A. R. encampment.

State Firemen's Convention

For further information address A. Aicher, city ticket agent, corner Nicollet Avenue and Fifth street, Minneapolis.

RAILROAD RUMBLERS

Both Headed for the Hills—Soo's South Dakota Extension.
Special to The Journal.
Aberdeen, S. D., May 15.—The route of the Soo through Campbell county has been definitely fixed. Extending from Ashley, it will enter the county near the northeast corner, and after describing a loop, will leave the corner near the northwest corner. The deepest part of the loop in the county will be about eight miles. A new town will probably be established seven miles north of Mount City. The county terminus at that river will be midway between Vanderbit and Winona, where, it is reported, the Missouri has a stone bottom. Engineers for the road are in the country west of the river on a reconnaissance, but nothing can be done in that direction this year because the consent of congress has not been obtained to cross the reservation. The engineers say the objective point of the road is Denver, which, of course, will take it through the Black Hills. Contracts for grading forty-five miles west of Ashley have been let.

Preferred Stock
Its Status in the Northern Pacific Contention.
The statement is made that there is no possible way in which the Northern Pacific board of directors will be able to retire the preferred stock, except by regular order, and that means on Jan. 1 of each year until 1905. It has been asserted that the directors could retire this stock as a dividend in that matter crush out the Harriman interests, but the fact seems to be as stated, the directors having the right to vote any time to retire the stock, but the retirement could not be made until next. The proposed board of directors, however, will have that power. The board of directors so elected may then rescind the action of the previous board, if preferred will be continued and matters remain as at present.

TOWARD ROMANISM
British Minister's View of the Trend of Ritualism.
D. Tatton and J. E. Saunders, Congregational clergymen of Worthing, Eng., are at the West, on their way to Vancouver. This is the second trip of Mr. Tatton to America. He is following closely the church discussions on ritualism. He says:
The Church of England is the strongest socially in England. Numerically the non-conformist churches are its superior. The Church of England is the church to which the members of the aristocracy belong, which fact adds to its prestige socially. We have not the ecclesiastical freedom in England that you have in this country. Religious equality as Americans understand it is not known in England. Our church circles are agitated at the present time with a heretofore contented ritualism. There is no question but that ritualism in England is tending toward Romanism, and the discussion is quite liable to end in a readjustment in church affairs.
