

QUINCENTENNIAL NUMBER 33

clergy in their several localities, attend their various conventions and general assemblies, to press on their consideration the true position of woman as a factor in Christian civilization.

Woman, to-day, as ever, supplies the enthusiasm which sustains the church, and she has a right to turn to ask the church to sustain her in this struggle for liberty, and not only as individuals, but as influential organizations, to take some decisive action with reference to this momentous and far-reaching movement.

Executive Committee.

The second meeting of the executive committee was held in the club room of the West hotel. The special plan of work committee appointed to put together the portions approved by Mrs. Lucy Hobart Day, of Maine; Mrs. Ida Porter Boyer, of Pennsylvania; and Mary Bentley Thomas, of Maryland.

The interesting feature of the morning was a spirited discussion of the topic of movable conventions introduced by Mrs. Laura Clay of Kentucky, who favors abolishing the present plan of holding conventions in Washington the winter of the opening of each convention, and the year 1900 more than in any previous year. This is an especially significant fact when it is remembered that the work for the year is planned and the political campaign prevented the usual field activities. The result may be regarded as an evidence of normal growth, and assures us to push the work of organization.

Association Prosperous.

The association is in a prosperous condition. For several years past, receipts of the association for each year have exceeded those of the year previous, a fact which affords the healthiest possible sign of growth. The year 1900 was an exception to this progress, and its receipts, exclusive of the bazaar fund, were larger than those of any previous year in the history of the association.

The usual quadrennial appeal was made to the national conventions of the national political parties, with the usual result. This time honored custom of our association involves much work and some expense. Although the political parties are not expected to do other much encouragement to its continuance; yet, the confidence in the ultimate adoption of our cause, which possesses every thorough believer in woman's suffrage, is the proper knowledge that the time will come when some great, successful political party will be proud to wish the enfranchisement of women in its platform.

To-night's Session.

The evening session will be of special interest as it will be the occasion of extending the welcome of the city to the visitors. After prayer by Dr. M. D. Shurtz, the program will be made by Mrs. Maud C. Stockwell, president of the Minnesota Woman's Suffrage association, for that organization; Governor S. R. Van Sant for the state of Minnesota; Mayor A. A. Ames for the city of Minneapolis; President E. C. Best for the Commercial Club, and James Gray for the press. A response will be made by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, national president. The concluding address will be by Rev. Anna H. Shaw, whose wit and eloquence are fully well known to Minneapolis people.

Miss Anthony's Address.

Miss Anthony said: If the divine law visits the sins of the fathers upon the children, equally so does it transmit to them their virtues. Therefore, if it is through woman's ignorant and uneducated children, that the life current of the race is corrupted, then must it be through her intelligent emancipation that the race shall be redeemed from the curse of the fathers and children's children rise up and call her blessed. When the mother of Christ shall be made the true model of womanhood and motherhood, when the mother shall consecrate herself, as did Mary, to the one idea of bringing forth the Christ child, then, and not till then, will this earth see a new order of men and women, prone to good rather than to evil.

I am a full and firm believer in the revelation that it is through woman that the race is to be redeemed from the curse of the fathers. I am for immediate and unconditional enfranchisement from all political, industrial, social and religious subjection. Emerson said, "Men are what their mothers made them." But I say to hold mother responsible for the character of their sons, while you deny them any control over the surroundings of their lives is worse than mockery. It is cruelty. Responsibilities grow out of rights and power.

President's Annual Address.

Mrs. Catt then delivered her annual address, saying in substance: During the interim since our last annual meeting, the work of the association has kept steady pace with the rapidly increasing sentiment of the nation. In December last we resorted to that most womanly of all womanly methods of raising funds—a bazaar. It was a matter of regret to many of our workers that such a plan had been adopted, since it practically compelled the cessation for several months of the regular work. It is admitted to be a "stagnant of war" and this our treasury was successful, since it placed in our treasury a profit upwards of $8,000.

INTERESTING WOMEN

The West Hotel is Full of Them To-day. Interested and distinguished women are thronging the West-to-day and no one can go anywhere without jostling them. They impress every one with their cordiality, and the best sense and their common sense, comfortable life of life. The impression of a man reporter is significant, viz: that they are all stout and matronly-looking, with the accompanying suggestions of good nature and good living.

REV. ALICE BALL LOOMIS.

organizer of the Wisconsin suffrage association. She has also done considerable work in the club movement, and is a means of helping women out of the rut of personalities to higher and healthier ground. She is now the president of the city federation of Richmond Center, an organization comprising eight societies. Having been brought up a suffragist, Miss Loomis does not quite know "how" she became one. She says: "I became interested probably by having a modicum of brains which I had been taught to use, and some small sense of justice."

Miss Laura Gregg.

One of the brilliant young women of the association who is rapidly coming into the front ranks is Miss Laura A. Gregg, who is in charge of the state headquarters of Nebraska and Omaha. Miss Gregg arrived yesterday and is at the West. Miss Gregg, who is a native of Kansas, got her first experience in suffrage work in Kansas at the campaign of 1895-4. She was teaching school at the time, but took a suffrage column in the Earnest Eagle, which she edited a year and a half. On Friday nights and Saturdays she during the vacation months she did considerable speaking and organizing in her congressional district.

The Motto.

"We have often been advised to adopt as a motto of our association the words: 'Education, Agitation, Organization.' Whether the motto is written gilded or in ink, it represents the kind of work we do. During the strife to get ahead quickly is responsible for most of the physical breakdown which makes weaklings of men and women. This is a perfectly usual result of overwork and nervous strain, and it must be admitted that frequently the relief sought is in stimulants that are worse than the trouble itself.

In Haste to Get Rich.

There are thousands who can tell such a sufferer that Johann Hoff's Malt Extract is the great strength and flesh builder, and these thousands are among the brainiest and busiest men and women of-day.

The genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract is a perfect upbuilder of strength.

It is quite true that this medicine has a record all over Europe as well as America—a record unapproached by any medicine in the world. Johann Hoff's Malt Extract is not an unhealthy stimulant; it makes flesh and blood. Most everybody is familiar with the unqualified endorsement it has received from prominent persons in this country and Europe.

It is delicate and pleasing, can be taken by the weakest stomach, and does its work promptly. If you are weak and ill it is the safest and surest help, and it is always within easy reach. You can put this statement to test for a trifle, and you will never regret having done so. Be sure to get Johann Hoff's. At all druggists.

the past year the work of public education has been greatly augmented by an experiment of the judicious distribution of free literature from the national headquarters. One-hundred pages of free literature were in consequence sent forth upon their mission and every state and territory received some of its benefits.

REV. MARGARET OLMSTEAD.

She Will Take Part in Sunday Afternoon's Services. Rev. Margaret Titus Olmstead will take part in the services on Sunday afternoon. She is now living at Storm Lake, Iowa, where her husband is pastor of the People's church, and the pastor of the Unitarian church of the nearby town of Washta. Both Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead are now in fellowship with both the Unitarian and Unitarian churches near and those who would like to see these two liberal churches unite. Minnesota has an especial interest in the Olmsteads, as they have recently worked in Albany, and vicinity. Going to that city in 1888,

MARGARET TITUS OLMSTEAD.

Mrs. Olmstead did half of the preaching at the first annual convention of the Wisconsin Suffrage Association, which was held at the Albert Lea church, where her husband took charge of the church at Storm Lake, where they now live.

ALICE BALL LOOMIS.

State Lecturer of the Wisconsin Suffrage Association. Rev. Alice Ball Loomis of Richmond Center, Wis., who will speak Saturday evening at the "Feminine Factor in Society," was Wisconsin born and bred. She has been teacher, lecturer and preacher as well as a writer on religious and sociological topics. For three years Miss Loomis has been state lecturer and

In Social Circles

An interesting wedding took place last evening in Fowler M. E. church, when Miss Ina Covey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Covey, and Dr. William Harry Card were married.

Personal and Social.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Pines returned yesterday from Europe. Austin V. Morse of Waverly, Minn., was in Minneapolis yesterday. Miss Winnie Schoyen has gone to Mankato to open a concert tour.

Miss Elizabeth Boynton Harbert of Chicago is at the home of J. Wallace Field, 1109 Chestnut avenue. Miss Beattie McNaught has returned from Villa Maria, Fontaine, where she has been attending school.

LAKE MINNETONKA

Mrs. C. H. Burwell and Miss Lucy Boardman entertained the Hamblers at the home of Mrs. Burwell at Minnetonka Mills, yesterday. The members of the club and their guests, numbering twenty-eight, came out on the morning train and were met by teams and taken for a hay-rack ride, going around the south shore and stopping for a short rest at Hotel St. Louis, then returning to Minnetonka Mills, where a tempting luncheon was served on the terrace. The tables were tastefully decorated with lady slippers, Indian pipes and wild sweet peas. After a delightful afternoon the guests returned to the city on the 5 o'clock train.
