

SAY WHAT YOU WILL THE FACT REMAINS

It pays to use the GENUINE MINNESOTA PAINTS. ONE LABEL THAT ALWAYS QUALITY THE BEST.

MINNESOTA LINSEED OIL PAINT

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

OLDEST AND LARGEST MANUFACTURERS OF STRICTLY PURE LINSEED OIL & PREPARED LINSEED OIL PAINT IN THE NORTHWEST.

All over the world Schlitz beer is known and is the standard. In Vladivostok, Pretoria, Shanghai, Singapore, Bombay, Cairo and Constantinople it is the beer of civilization.

Schlitz beer has won the world's markets by its reputation for purity, maintained for half a century. Wherever white men live Schlitz beer is acknowledged the pure beer. Our pledge to you and our pledge to all nations is that never will a bottle of Schlitz beer go out until we have insured its purity; never a bottle insufficiently aged.

Schlitz beer, wherever you find it, is healthful; it is

WORLD-FAMOUS

and has made Milwaukee famous

Phone Main 707, Schlitz, 1209-11 Fourth St., Minneapolis.

MEMORIAL DAY IN NORTHWEST TOWNS

Specials to the Journal.

Fergus Falls, Minn., May 31.—The exercises were held at the courthouse grounds. C. H. Goodell delivered the principal address.

Milbank, S. D., May 31.—Coe I. Crawford of Huron delivered the oration of the day.

Sibley, Iowa, May 31.—Captain D. L. Riley of Leakefield, Minn., member of the Minnesota legislature, and who nearly thirty years ago took a government soldier's homestead near Sibley, gave an able and patriotic address.

Veradale, Minn., May 31.—Memorial Day exercises were held in the Methodist church under the auspices of the C. C. Parker Post, Spring Valley, Minn., May 31.—Memorial Day was observed here and long before the time of the usual march to the cemetery the streets were thronged with people. The line of march was headed by the Fillmore High and drum corps, followed by Burdick post carrying baskets of flowers, the M. W. A. order and 100 little girls dressed in white, and citizens in carriages.

Henson, Minn., May 31.—Interesting Memorial exercises were held by members of McPherson post, assisted by the Henson band. An able address was given at the opera-house by Judge Daniel Fish of Minneapolis.

Jackson, Minn., May 31.—Memorial Day was observed with services in Danms grove. Colonel J. M. Bull of Pipestone delivered the address to a large audience.

Brainerd, Minn., May 31.—The exercises at the Y. M. C. in the afternoon were very interesting. Several songs were sung by the school children and able addresses were made by Adjutant J. Wilmore, Rev. D. W. Lynch, A. H. Carver, R. J. Mooney and W. A. Fleming.

Huron, Wis., May 31.—Memorial Day was fittingly observed. Decoration of the graves took place in the forenoon and a fine program by the school children and speakers was presented in the afternoon.

Pierre, S. D., May 31.—The address of the forenoon was by C. E. Besenau of Blunt, and the principal one in the afternoon by John T. Keen of Woonsocket.

Preston, Wis., May 31.—Memorial Day was observed with the usual ceremonies. M. Dowling delivered the address.

Grafton, N. D., May 31.—Rev. A. Twitchell delivered the oration.

TROOPS FOR FIRE FESTIVAL

Governor White Gives His Permission in an Official Order.

Special to the Journal.

Blamrock, N. D., May 31.—Governor White has issued an order to the state guard granting it permission to leave its several stations and attend the fire festival at Fargo the first week in June. Field and duty regulations are to be observed. Preparations are being made to send tents and equipments to Fargo for the encampment of the troops upon proper requisitions. It is expected that about half of the state guard will take advantage of the permission granted to go into camp for several days at Fargo.

COUNTY SCHOOLS

First Under a New Law May Be Established by Marathon.

Special to the Journal.

Madison, Wis., May 31.—Marathon county is likely to be the first in the state to establish a county school of agriculture and domestic science, under the laws passed by the recent legislature. The project is being strongly talked of, and State Superintendent Harvey will go to Wisconsin next week to consult with the county board of supervisors. Other counties also talk of establishing these schools, and they promise to become popular and useful institutions.

On the Retired List.

Special to the Journal.

Baraboo, Wis., May 31.—L. G. Kendall of this city was the first man employed on the Madison division of the North-Western road to be placed on the retired list and receive a pension of $17 per month. He has been with the North-Western for thirty-four years, having served in the capacity of roadmaster, conductor and section foreman in the Baraboo yards. He has served a greater length of time than any other employe, with the exception of Superintendent R. H. Cowan, who has been connected with the road for thirty-seven years.

Worthington Happenings.

Special to the Journal.

Worthington, Minn., May 31.—Memorial Day was appropriately observed with exercises by the school children in the large room of the courthouse, several hundred people being able to gain admission so great was the crowd. Fifty houses were decorated and closed—F. S. Cone of Windom was delayed here twenty-four hours repairing an automobile which he had purchased at Sheldon and was taking home.—The building of a city hospital is contemplated by physicians and citizens.—Senator Pettigrew and wife spent the afternoon here while on their way to their home at Sioux Falls.—Bruce Yale and wife returned last night from an extended trip in California.

THIRD BANK AT NEW ULM.

Special to the Journal.

New Ulm, Minn., May 31.—A third bank to be called the Bank of New Ulm, will soon be organized, $25,000 of stock having already been subscribed. The bank will open for business Aug. 1. Beussmann Bros. are the promoters of the new enterprise and with them are associated thirty-five local capitalists. Fred Paender, who has been cashier of the County bank, has resigned his position and will be identified with the new institution.

HYDRAULIC EXPERIMENT

New York City to Be Watered From Lake George.

New York Sun Special Service.

Albany, N. Y., May 31.—The utilization of Lake George as a reservoir and a big aqueduct running down the Hudson valley is embraced in a plan for supplying New York City and interesting localities with water which has been outlined by J. H. Ehrhart, the confidential special franchise appraiser of the state tax commission. The consummation of his idea would provide an unlimited gravity water supply and at the same time render impossible the usual spring floods in the upper Hudson.

Instantly Killed on the Rail.

Special to the Journal.

Parkston, S. D., May 31.—Reports of the killing of Lewis C. Grimm, a former business man of this place and of Tripp, have reached here from Junior, Ark. He had recently located at Junior, and while walking on the railroad track was run over and instantly killed by a train. The remains were taken to Wisconsin for burial.

As Motherhood Approaches

It is when the experience of maternity comes to women that they sustain their severest natural shock. Should not their strength be fortified for it? The weakness of a run-down system brings its marks to women's faces and forms at such a time—the weakness that might have been avoided.

There is no time in a woman's life like that just before the experience of motherhood. At this time the blood must be rich and pure, the nerves calm and healthy, and all the organs of the body vigorous and strong.

This condition is assisted and brought about more successfully by Johann Hoff's Malt Extract than by anything else. It is the ideal strength builder and the weakest woman will find it delightful to take. It is Nature's perfect ally, because it always assists the assimilation of food, and with its help all the nutritive elements in food are made active and useful.

The care women take of themselves at this time reflects over their whole lives, and no stimulants which react should be used. It is the general strength which needs fortifying, and Johann Hoff's Malt Extract does this perfectly.

No woman need be unprepared for this great trial when she can so easily prove to herself the efficiency of Johann Hoff's Malt Extract, which for many years has done a glorious work in building up the weak by natural means.

Beware of imitations put up in bottles resembling Johann Hoff's. Get Johann Hoff's and you will not be disappointed. At all druggists.

BURGLAR IS RICH

Convict at Waupun, Wis., Inherits $50,000.

HAS TWO MORE YEARS TO SERVE

Inquiries From Fort Dodge Establish His Right to a Relative's Property.

Special to the Journal.

Waupun, Wis., May 31.—To fall heir to $50,000 is very pleasant, but to be unable to get the money for two years is aggravating. J. H. Stokes has inherited the $50,000, but for the next two years he will be forced to be the guest of the state at the prison in this city. He was convicted of a charge of burglary in Dane county and was sent up to serve a sentence. That was before he fell heir to the fortune.

Inquiries have been made from Fort Dodge, Iowa, in regard to J. H. Stokes of that place, who was last heard of in Oshkosh. The letters of inquiry stated that a rich relative had died, leaving $50,000 to him. Stokes had been sent up from Oshkosh in 1896 and served four years for robbing the First Presbyterian church home. After his discharge he wrote to ex-Sheriff Horn of Winnebago county that he was going to the Paris Exposition, where he contemplated doing some big jobs. It is evident that he did not go to Paris, as he was arrested and convicted of a robbery at a small town near Madison.

Stokes was sent up under the name of John Johnson, and it was not at first known that he was the man who had inherited the fortune, but to-day he was absolutely identified as Stokes and the news of his good luck broken to him. All that he can do is to wait for his term to expire, when he can collect his fortune and return home.

Stokes is known to the police under several aliases. He has served in Waupun under the names of Johnson, Stokes, Morgan and Langford.

EVIDENCE OF CRIME

Body of Miss Margaret Brennan Exhumed at Anaconda.

CRIMINAL OPERATION PERFORMED

Prominent Butte Physician and Midwife Arrested as Result of the Autopsy.

Special to the Journal.

Anaconda, Mont., May 31.—Under the direction of Dr. Leggett, health officer of Butte, and Assistant County Attorney Yancy of Silver Bow county, the body of Miss Margaret Brennan of this city was exhumed from the city cemetery to-day and an autopsy conducted to discover evidence of a criminal operation. Parts of the body were removed and taken to Butte.

Miss Brennan was a native of Ireland, 32 years old, and had lived in Anaconda several years. With her sister, Mrs. O'Keefe, she conducted a lodging house at 908 East Park avenue, this city. Several weeks ago she became ill. It was given out that she had appendicitis. She went to Butte and died there May 17. Appendicitis was given as the cause of death.

It is learned now that in Butte she submitted the case to Dr. Nicholas Sheeran. The death certificate, which gave septicemia as the cause of death, was made out in that name, which fact was kept from public knowledge.

The body was brought here and was buried from St. Paul's church.

To-day's developments are a great shock to Miss Brennan's friends, for the reputation of the city is being damaged. Vigorous efforts are being made to suppress the whole story. Drs. Bernheim and O'Dell of Butte and Spellman of Anaconda assisted in to-day's autopsy.

Dr. Bernheim, a professional midwife, and Dr. H. M. Hall, a well-known physician and surgeon of Butte, were arrested and charged with performing criminal abortions shortly after their arrest both gave bonds in the sum of $1,000.

HOME MISSIONS TAKEN UP

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN SYNOD

Constantly Enlarging Sphere of Work—An Anniversary to Be Celebrated.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 31.—At the second day's session of the general synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church home missions was the first subject discussed. The biennial report was read by Dr. A. S. Hartman, secretary of the board. The report of the National Lutheran Home for the Aged at Winthrop Heights, Washington, D. C., was submitted by Dr. M. W. Hamma of Washington. Greetings from the Reform church of the United church were received.

The report of P. H. Miller, visitor to the convention of the woman's missionary conventions, was read. The report of Dr. D. M. Gilbert, president of the board of the United States Orphan's Home of Louisville, Pa., was submitted and adopted.

The anniversary of the home mission work will be celebrated to-night.

HELD FOR ROBBERY

Strong Evidence Produced Against Doyle at Iowa Falls.

Special to the Journal.

Iowa Falls, Iowa, May 31.—John Doyle, arrested for robbing the residence of Isaac Tucker, pleaded guilty and was committed to the grand jury. The evidence was conclusive, as the missing property was found in his tool chest, which was to have been shipped to Parkersburg the day the goods were discovered.

The republican county convention meets in Eldora to-morrow. It is thought by many there will be no instructions on the governor question, but that following the example of Union county, the convention will endorse Judge Weaver of this city for supreme judge and remain quiet as to other candidates. The county is placed in a peculiar position, having a leading candidate for the supreme bench and at the same time being in Senator Harrison's home district. On the other hand, there is a strong Cummins sentiment in many localities.

Mrs. Joseph H. Coulter died yesterday after an illness of nine years' duration, having suffered from consumption and rheumatism. She was 53 years old and was born in Ohio.

LAW MAY NOT APPLY

Right of Indians to Fish With Nets to Be Determined.

Special to the Journal.

Madison, Wis., May 31.—The question as to whether the state fish and game laws apply to Indians on Indian reservations is to be determined by Judge Bunn in the federal court, being brought up by United States attorney Wheeler by habeas corpus proceedings in the case of John Blackbird, an Indian who was convicted at Ashland May 11 in the state courts of setting a net for fish on the Otanah reservation, in violation of the state law. The case was then brought before Judge Bunn on habeas corpus proceedings and the writ made returnable to-day, the contention being that the state has no right to punish Indians for fishing on the reservation. Blackbird is here in custody of the sheriff.

GIRL QUEEN AT PLAY

Wilhelmina Evidently Enjoying Herself in Germany.

Berlin, May 31.—Queen Wilhelmina and her husband, the Prince of the Netherlands, witnessed the emperor's review of the Berlin army and the queen afterwards drove to the royal castle with the empress, the emperor riding at the head of the first guards regiment, with the Prince of the Netherlands on his right hand.

On returning, the procession was met on Unter Den Linden by the chief burgomaster, the city officials and a band of twenty-four white-robed maids. The empress presented an address to Queen Wilhelmina and handed her a bouquet of flowers of the Netherlands colors, red, white and blue. The queen replied with a few words of thanks.

JUDGE HOOPER IS DEAD

Late Receiver of the United States Land Office at Pierre.

Special to the Journal.

Pierre, S. D., May 31.—Report has been received of the death of D. S. Hooper at the home of his daughter in Nobone, Mo. Judge Hooper was for years a prominent politician in Spink county, representing that county in the legislature, and lately held the position of receiver of the land office in this city, having been relieved here but a short time ago and going to Missouri for a visit.

Governor Herreid has appointed as game warden for Yankton county N. P. Kaveney of Yankton.

THEIR LOT A PLEASANT ONE

Mexican Soldiers Better Off Than They Once Were.

New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"Things have greatly improved for the private soldier in the Mexican army of late," said a resident of New Orleans, whose business takes him frequently into the sister republic, "but only a few years ago he had a pretty rough time of it, and as for pay—well, I'll tell you a little story that covers that ground fairly well. On one occasion I spent several months in a small town in the northern part of the country, where a regiment of infantry was temporarily in barracks. Of course, I got well acquainted with all the officers, from the colonel down, and found them, without exception, royal good fellows. But the poor soldiers were a different-looking lot of scarecrows as I ever laid eyes on them.

"Their uniforms were in rags and tatters, half of them were barefooted and the other half had no hats, while their arms and accoutrements were in a condition to make a man ashamed to be seen with them. They were always used to get around about every two months, and his arrival would be a signal for great excitement at the barracks. He did his business, however, entirely with the colonel, and after inspecting the rolls would place a certain sum of money in that dignitary's hands, dine formally with the whole staff and take his departure.

"Next the colonel would call in the captains of the several companies and give each of them a bag of dollars. The captains would thereupon summon the lieutenants, who would in turn send for the sergeants, and thus the money would glide down the line until it finally reached the corporals, who did the actual paying off of the men. How it happened I don't undertake to say, but each transfer of the cash invariably suffered a shrinkage. Perhaps it was due to abrasion. Anyhow not more than a third ever reached the rank and file.

"That would have been bad enough, but

OLSON'S BIG STORE'S BIG MILLINERY SALE

SATURDAY, JUNE 1.

Straight Facts:

We are going to boom our Millinery Department during the month of June and there is only one way to do it, i. e., LOW PRICES. Here they are:

- Flowers, 1c Per Bunch
- Metal Buckles, 1c Each
- Children's White Leghorn Hats 15c Each
- Children's Untrimmed Hats 18c Each
- Women's and Misses' Outing Hats 35c Each
- Duck and Canvas
- Rough Jap Braid Sailors 25c Each
- 20 Styles Shirt Waist Hats 50c Each
- Straw Braids, 10 yards For 5c
- Silk Mousseline, 14-in. wide, 10c Per Yard
- Straw Nets, 14-in. wide, 20c Per Yard
- All Silk Plisse Velour, 22-in. wide, Per Yard 25c

Trimmed Hats

Several hundred Stylish White Hats—Just the thing for June wear—light and airy, new and SPECIAL fresh. The prices are very low, but we have a large stock and must dispose of them soon. PRICES FOR SATURDAY:

- White hats worth up to $5.00—Yours at $2.00
- White hats worth up to $10.00—Yours at $4.50

Every Trimmed Hat in the department must go at once. Each item quoted in this announcement is from two to five times less than the regular price. (Millinery Department, Second Floor. Take Arcade Elevator.)

JUDGE HOOPER IS DEAD

Late Receiver of the United States Land Office at Pierre.

Special to the Journal.

Pierre, S. D., May 31.—Report has been received of the death of D. S. Hooper at the home of his daughter in Nobone, Mo. Judge Hooper was for years a prominent politician in Spink county, representing that county in the legislature, and lately held the position of receiver of the land office in this city, having been relieved here but a short time ago and going to Missouri for a visit.

Governor Herreid has appointed as game warden for Yankton county N. P. Kaveney of Yankton.

THEIR LOT A PLEASANT ONE

Mexican Soldiers Better Off Than They Once Were.

New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"Things have greatly improved for the private soldier in the Mexican army of late," said a resident of New Orleans, whose business takes him frequently into the sister republic, "but only a few years ago he had a pretty rough time of it, and as for pay—well, I'll tell you a little story that covers that ground fairly well. On one occasion I spent several months in a small town in the northern part of the country, where a regiment of infantry was temporarily in barracks. Of course, I got well acquainted with all the officers, from the colonel down, and found them, without exception, royal good fellows. But the poor soldiers were a different-looking lot of scarecrows as I ever laid eyes on them.

"Their uniforms were in rags and tatters, half of them were barefooted and the other half had no hats, while their arms and accoutrements were in a condition to make a man ashamed to be seen with them. They were always used to get around about every two months, and his arrival would be a signal for great excitement at the barracks. He did his business, however, entirely with the colonel, and after inspecting the rolls would place a certain sum of money in that dignitary's hands, dine formally with the whole staff and take his departure.

"Next the colonel would call in the captains of the several companies and give each of them a bag of dollars. The captains would thereupon summon the lieutenants, who would in turn send for the sergeants, and thus the money would glide down the line until it finally reached the corporals, who did the actual paying off of the men. How it happened I don't undertake to say, but each transfer of the cash invariably suffered a shrinkage. Perhaps it was due to abrasion. Anyhow not more than a third ever reached the rank and file.

"That would have been bad enough, but

Kleansall

Grocers Sell It.

American Soap and Chemical Co., Minneapolis.

In this regiment there was also a curious ebb tide, so to speak, that swept a good deal of the money back through the original channel of distribution. The whole crowd, from private to commander, were inveterate poker players and by a mysterious freak of fate their ability was in almost exact ratio to their rank—the old colonel being acknowledged champion of the department. After pay day there was always a grand poker orgie, in which the non-commissioned officers usually cleaned out the privates. Then a few lieutenants would swoop down and wind up the 'non-coms' to get looted themselves by their captains, who invariably fell victims to the superior skill of the colonel. The result was that the unfortunate private never got over a third of his pay and never had that longer than forty-eight hours. He got it in the neck both 'comin' and 'goin', as the old dorky remarked.

THE GENTLEMANLY BURGLAR.

Chicago Record.

Judge—The evidence shows that when you entered houses you never entered the rooms occupied by women. Prisoner—No, yer honor; it knocks me silly to see women with their hair done up in crimps.

HOW TO LIVE 100 YEARS

A French Scientist Says People Die Because of a Subjective Fear of Death.

M. Jean Pinot in N. Y. World.

Suicide is universal.

In a few cases it is deliberate. In most cases it is unconscious, involuntary. Daily there die thousands, hundreds of thousands of men who are entitled to ten, twenty, thirty more years of life.

For the life they have only themselves to blame. They are the agents of their own destruction.

These statements are not taken from records or statistics. They summarize my theory in regard to the shortness of human life.

Suppose that the first man who reads this resents the suggestion that he is likely to kill himself and determines to get the most out of every spark of vital energy with which nature has equipped him.

His first move in that case should be, to reject the fear of death. It is the fear of death that kills.

But not many persons will admit that they fear it. They may mock at it, on the contrary, with brave gaiety. They may adopt the religious attitude and welcome it as the gate to another world. Or they may swear that death never enters their thoughts—that they are absorbed with life.

But the fear of death is a subtle and persistent thing.

It steals into the mind in childhood, sometimes in infancy. There it lingers and grows. As life becomes fuller and the love of it stronger, blacker and more awesome grows the shadow fear of death. There are millions of suggestions from the people's monster to fear upon. Finally it gains complete control of the brain. And then the situation is hopeless, for the only thing that can crush and kill the fear of death is death itself.

Consider this theory of the cause of death.

It is based on the marvelous force, already abundantly proved, of 'suggestion.' Few men achieve eighty years of life. As for centenarians, they are pointed out and marveled at as exceptional phenomena; while if you hear of a human being who has passed the century mark you are disposed to question his accuracy or that of the records.

All this represents a false view of the duration of life. The legends of olden peoples are filled with accounts of men who lived to what seems to us an extraordinary age. And there are even more recent examples which may be backed up by names and dates.

There are the cases of those two cheerful old gentlemen, Thomas Parr and Henry Jenkins, whom Haller tells of having died quite "by accident"—one at the age of 152, the other at the even more mellow age of 169.

There was a famous Norwegian physician who died at 160.

And none of these was any more decrepit than the Chilian, Juan Caledon, who at the age of 120 gaily tripped to the altar with a bride of 98.

Moreover, there was the case of Robert Tyler, who having died at 100 years the reigns of George IV. and William IV. was presented by Queen Victoria with a signed photograph of herself at her jubilee in 1838. This so affected Mr. Tyler that he died immediately at the age of

JUDGE HOOPER IS DEAD

Late Receiver of the United States Land Office at Pierre.

Special to the Journal.

Pierre, S. D., May 31.—Report has been received of the death of D. S. Hooper at the home of his daughter in Nobone, Mo. Judge Hooper was for years a prominent politician in Spink county, representing that county in the legislature, and lately held the position of receiver of the land office in this city, having been relieved here but a short time ago and going to Missouri for a visit.

Governor Herreid has appointed as game warden for Yankton county N. P. Kaveney of Yankton.

THEIR LOT A PLEASANT ONE

Mexican Soldiers Better Off Than They Once Were.

New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"Things have greatly improved for the private soldier in the Mexican army of late," said a resident of New Orleans, whose business takes him frequently into the sister republic, "but only a few years ago he had a pretty rough time of it, and as for pay—well, I'll tell you a little story that covers that ground fairly well. On one occasion I spent several months in a small town in the northern part of the country, where a regiment of infantry was temporarily in barracks. Of course, I got well acquainted with all the officers, from the colonel down, and found them, without exception, royal good fellows. But the poor soldiers were a different-looking lot of scarecrows as I ever laid eyes on them.

"Their uniforms were in rags and tatters, half of them were barefooted and the other half had no hats, while their arms and accoutrements were in a condition to make a man ashamed to be seen with them. They were always used to get around about every two months, and his arrival would be a signal for great excitement at the barracks. He did his business, however, entirely with the colonel, and after inspecting the rolls would place a certain sum of money in that dignitary's hands, dine formally with the whole staff and take his departure.

"Next the colonel would call in the captains of the several companies and give each of them a bag of dollars. The captains would thereupon summon the lieutenants, who would in turn send for the sergeants, and thus the money would glide down the line until it finally reached the corporals, who did the actual paying off of the men. How it happened I don't undertake to say, but each transfer of the cash invariably suffered a shrinkage. Perhaps it was due to abrasion. Anyhow not more than a third ever reached the rank and file.

"That would have been bad enough, but

In this regiment there was also a curious ebb tide, so to speak, that swept a good deal of the money back through the original channel of distribution. The whole crowd, from private to commander, were inveterate poker players and by a mysterious freak of fate their ability was in almost exact ratio to their rank—the old colonel being acknowledged champion of the department. After pay day there was always a grand poker orgie, in which the non-commissioned officers usually cleaned out the privates. Then a few lieutenants would swoop down and wind up the 'non-coms' to get looted themselves by their captains, who invariably fell victims to the superior skill of the colonel. The result was that the unfortunate private never got over a third of his pay and never had that longer than forty-eight hours. He got it in the neck both 'comin' and 'goin', as the old dorky remarked.

THE GENTLEMANLY BURGLAR.

Chicago Record.

Judge—The evidence shows that when you entered houses you never entered the rooms occupied by women. Prisoner—No, yer honor; it knocks me silly to see women with their hair done up in crimps.

Prince Bismarck

The Only Cigar Worth a Nickel.

That good taste is Havana.

The best that ever came over.

Lyman-Eliel Drug Co., Wholesale Distributors.

