IOWA STATE G. A. R. AT DUBUQUE

Grand Parade of Veterans This Afternoon—Growth of Allied Orders.

Special to The Journal. Dubuque, Iowa, June 5.—The second day of the G. A. R. encampment finds the city thronged. This was the first business day and most of the morning session was devoted to reports of officers.

The department commander's report was long and considered in detail matters relating to the progress of the department. The department report for 1891 showed a total membership of 20,324. Since then there has been a gradual decrease until the report of the adjutant general for June 1, 1901, shows 11,529, a decrease of 8,795.

Department Finances.

Considering department finances, it is shown that disbursements exceed the per capita tax $4,314.40, and the per capita tax decreased from $4,555.38 in 1896 to $3,127.17 in 1901.

State Aid.

An important suggestion is made in the commander's report in the way of state aid. He cites a law of New York which makes the G. A. R. a state department, provides offices for headquarters, pays expenses of the members.

Some Caustic Criticisms.

Discussing pensions, the commander makes a criticism of the construction put upon pension laws by the pension department, resulting in causing unnecessary and probably unintentional hardship to applicants.

Great Gain by the Sons.

Progress made by the Women's Relief Corps and Ladies of the G. A. R. has been very satisfactory. The Sons of Veterans have nearly trebled their membership in the past year.
