TEACHERS OF SOBRIETY

Minnesota Grand Lodge of Good Templars Open Their Session.

Special to The Journal. Taylors Falls, Minn., June 11.—The forty-fourth session of the grand lodge of Good Templars for Minnesota met in opera hall, this place, this afternoon. This being the fiftieth year of the organization, golden jubilee exercises will be held this afternoon and evening, with speaking by leading temperance workers. Business sessions will be held to-morrow forenoon and afternoon and in the evening a banquet will be given by the local lodge.

About thirty delegates and officers arrived this noon and many more are expected on the afternoon and evening trains. Dinner was served at opera hall. Accommodations have been provided for campers, but the grounds are dry and attractive.

SOUTH DAKOTA DOCTORS

All Sections of the Commonwealth Represented at Huron.

Special to The Journal. Huron, S. D., June 11.—The annual meeting of the South Dakota Medical association is being held here with physicians present from all parts of the state. Last evening the praterity accepted an invitation to attend an entertainment by the musical and oratorical departments of Huron college. The morning session was occupied with papers on subjects of special interest to the profession and the discussion of general topics. Among those here are Drs. C. G. Gross of Yankton, G. M. Keeling of Spearfish, Pickering of Warner, Hull of Gettysburg and Rock of Aberdeen.

COTTER'S CONDITION

Physicians Pleased With It and Are More Hopeful.

Winona, Minn., June 11.—Physicians, after visiting Bishop Cotter at the Rochester hospital this morning, reported they were pleased with his condition. The tubes from the stomach were flowing freely, a condition they very much desired. The bishop passed a restless night, but the chances for his recovery are considered strengthened.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS

Sioux City to Be the Mecca of South Dakota People Next Week.

In Social Circles

The marriage of Miss Julia A. Purdy and Elford S. Basset of Faribault took place at 6 o'clock this morning in the chapel of St. Barnabas hospital. Miss Purdy has been superintendent of the hospital for six years and the little chapel was crowded with her many friends and associates. Roses, peonies and carnations carried out a charming color scheme of green and white to the decorations. A. A. Rankin was at the organ and played the Lohengrin chorus as the bridal couple entered. The service was read by Rev. F. S. Webb and John L. Black gave the bride in marriage. She wore her going-away gown of gray. The twenty-five nurses in their uniforms of blue and white occupied seats in the front of the chapel. After the service refreshments were served by the parents in the office. Mr. and Mrs. Basset left this morning for Faribault, where they will make their home.

Miss Frances Shattuck entertained the members of her bridal party at a buffet tea this afternoon at her home on Third avenue S. Roses and carnations were the dominating color scheme of pink and green. Miss Shattuck presented her gifts to her attendants. The aiste girls received pretty hair ornaments of pink ostrich plumes and silver. The bridesmaids were given gifts, and the matron of honor, Mrs. Frederick B. Kent, a laurel wreath of pearls. Mr. Beard gave his best man and ushers scarf pins.
