THE HORSE SHOW

If the Weather is Favorable It Will Make a Hit.

Entries continue to come in for the parade and horse show at Minneapolis tomorrow. With the weather so cool and clear, and a clear afternoon Saturday, the conditions will be perfect as to weather.

The show of stock horses will be of special interest at this time, there being such a strong demand for high-priced steeds. In the list of those who will exhibit their horses are many well-known breeders from all over the country.

Besides the parade the program also includes several fast races. In one division will be the following well-known speeders: O'Grady, 2:13 1/4; W. W. B., 2:15 1/4; Redstart, 2:16 1/4; G. 2:15 1/4.

The judges will be W. G. Carling of St. Paul and H. A. Tuttle and Dr. R. D. Eaton of Minneapolis.

Among those who have made entries for the parade are the following: Ed. G. Walton, who will drive an English park brake and team; George Miller, who will ride behind a four-in-hand; C. D. Velie, whose "bikes" will be drawn by a pair of fast trotters; J. D. McCardle, who will drive a pair and park wagon; J. T. Honstain, whose pair of trotters will draw a standope; John G. Oswald, who will drive a pair of C. Ralph Whelan, who has entered his Irish hunter, Dublin; Henry Little, who will appear with his Kentucky saddle horse; and Fred Laramie, who will ride his New York saddle.

THE BUG IN HIS COCKTAIL

It Scared Him Once, but Worried the Bartender Several Times.

New Orleans Times-Democrat. "It wouldn't have happened if it hadn't been for my freshness and frivolity of the bartender," said a young cotton man who has a well-earned reputation as a practical joker.

The comic asked for the vacation of the ends of Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Nineteenth avenues N., between First street and the river, and proposed to use the same in the development of its new terminals in that section. The ordinance as recommended for adoption this morning provides for the vacation of all the streets desired with the exception of Seventeenth avenue, which is reserved for possible future municipal needs.

A BRIGHT

THE UNITED NORWEGIAN LUTHERAN CHURCH'S FINANCES ALL RIGHT.

A LOAN IS NEEDED, HOWEVER

The Conference Is Attended by Many More Delegates Than Day—Church Statistics.

The United Norwegian Lutheran conference elected officers yesterday as follows: Vice President—Rev. E. T. H. Sahl, 221 Vice; Rev. N. G. Ellestad having 110, and Rev. M. B. Bjorn, 42.

Life at the United Norwegian Lutheran church yesterday morning could hardly be called exciting. The day was devoted almost entirely to the reading of the reports of the various general officers, and the chairman of the different boards. Some of the reports were in order for discussion and the delegates had to possess themselves of patience while the reading went on.

Secretary Roseland urged strongly that the congregations in cities should make an effort to have divine services every Sunday morning in Goodyear, but by a question but that the church would lose a great many of its young people if the city churches continued to remain dark several Sundays in each month.

Encouraging Financial Statement. Treasurer Lars Swenson submitted a very encouraging financial statement. There are numerous institutions more or less under the patronage of the church and the supervision of the finances is no small matter.
