

FIRST FROM NOME

Steamer Nome City Touches at Sound Ports.

SEASON'S OUTPUT ESTIMATED

Camp is Thriving and Will Be Permanent—A Late Season a Certainty.

Special to The Journal. Tacoma, Wash., June 24.—The first steamer to arrive from Nome during the season of 1901 is the Nome City, which is at Port Townsend with advices from the gold fields up to as late as June 4.

The vessel reached Nome at 1 o'clock the morning of June 1. Her arrival was preceded by that of the steamer Jeanie, Captain P. H. Mason, which brought up in the harbor of Nome at midnight of May 24, just a year and one day later than her arrival at the same destination in 1900. The Nome City left Nome June 4 at 6 p. m. Up to that date not a vessel save the Jeanie had arrived, and none remained, as the Jeanie had sailed three days previous, June 1, at 11 a. m. on her homeward voyage. Not a vessel of the first sailing Nome fleet, with the exception of the Jeanie, was sighted going or coming.

Season's Output $7,000,000.

The Nome City brought ten passengers, including E. G. McKen, Mrs. N. B. Solner and V. H. Smith. McKen gives most encouraging reports of the Nome output from a mining standpoint. He estimates that the season's output will not be less than $7,000,000. The attention of his opinion is based largely on the amount of winter mining, much more of which was done during the latter part of the winter than among the other camps.

Victor H. Smith, who has spent three years in the north, said:

"Most of last winter I spent on the creeks around Nome and in the city. A great many of the creeks are turning out well, while others are a disappointment. But it is probably due to the fact that they have not been properly worked, and when fully developed they may prove up as well as those better known. During the winter there was not any great strike in new territory, and the unusual severity of the winter months probably had a good deal to do with this.

A Permanent Camp.

"Nome is thriving, and is bound to be a good camp, and I predict that it will be a permanent one for long after the placer diggings are exhausted—and that will be many years. The attention of the miners will be directed to the development of the quartz mines, for there is plenty of good mineral in the mountains." C. E. Kruse, one of the passengers, who is connected with a large concern at Nome, in speaking of affairs in the district generally, said: "There have been stampedes to the Arctic country, and it is reported that some good discoveries have been made. Before we left Nome many people had started for the district, with provisions, to develop claims which they had secured there, so it looks as if there was some basis for the reports.

Season Will Be Late.

"The season in the camps will be late in starting, probably not before the middle of July. The snow is still deep on the hills and will delay development work on the claims. The outlook for the season, nevertheless, is most gratifying, and in my opinion the output will surpass that of last year. How much, I am unable to estimate. Many of the claims which were in litigation will be worked and will turn out rich. In the new districts nearly everything is staked and some of them are bound to turn out rich. The Kougarok, Bluestone and adjacent places are all showing up well and the miners are waiting anxiously to develop them.

"There is nothing much at Teller City beyond the fact that quite a number of new buildings are now in course of construction. I should say there were between 300 and 400 houses there now."

$500,000 on Winter Dumps.

The winter has proven, without a doubt, that Nome is a winter camp. Within a radius of eight miles from the city dumps have been taken out which will wash up in the neighborhood of $500,000. These dumps are on Deane, Newton, Newell, Grouse, Wonder, Dry, Otter, Anvil, Glacier and Snow, and represent the work of but a limited number of men, in many in-

Wholesome Advice

For People Whose Stomachs Are Weak and Digestion Poor.

Dr. Harlandson, whose opinion in disease is worthy of attention, says when a man or woman comes to me complaining of indigestion, loss of appetite, sour stomach, belching, sour watery rising, headaches, sleeplessness, lack of ambition and a general run down nervous condition, I advise them to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing the tablet to dissolve in the mouth, and thus mingle with the food eaten. The result is that the food is speedily digested before it has time to sour and ferment. These tablets will digest the food anyway, whether the stomach wants to or not, because they contain harmless digestive principles, vegetable essences, pepsin and Golden Seal, which supply just what the weak stomach lacks.

I have advised the tablets with great success, both in curing indigestion and to build up the tissues, increasing flesh in thin, nervous patients, whose real trouble was dyspepsia, and as soon as the stomach was put to rights they did not know what sickness was.

A fifty-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be bought at any drug store, and as they are a secret patent medicine, they can be used as often as desired with full assurance that they contain nothing harmful in the slightest degree; on the contrary, they will do great benefit at all deranged will find great benefit from the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will cure any form of stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach.

Drives at Duluth, Mackinac, Detroit and Cleveland—Not a Kicker on Board.

Correspondence of The Journal. On Board Steamship North West, Saturday, June 22.—The Journal's Pan-American excursion has stood in with the weather man. There is no doubt of that, for only sunny skies have smiled upon the party, and the lakes have all been like millponds. Furthermore, everybody is out for a good time and is good-natured. If there is such a thing as a kicker, he is wise enough to hold his peace and thus escape a possible coat of tar and feathers from the 130 other folks in the party. Perhaps it is because there is nothing possible to kick about.

The story of the trip has been told up to Mackinac which was reached on Thursday morning at 9:30, two hours ahead of time. The carriage drive took place in the morning, leaving the ship at 11 instead of 2 and the drive was certainly delightful. Mackinac is always interesting and its many points of historic and natural interest were never enjoyed more thoroughly than by The Journal's party. After the drive, the visitors walked about the island and generally had a good time and at 5 p. m. aboard the big white North West from Chicago we headed down Lake Huron for Detroit. Of course the big ship made a big hit and there were many ovis up that night to enjoy the ship and the night.

Friday dawned clear and cool and the famous sail down the St. Clair river to Detroit was a morning's treat. The river was fairly alive with other craft and the West passed the Tashum hurrying up the river like a train of cars. Detroit was reached at 10:45, three-quarters of an hour ahead of schedule and aboard a splendid line of trolley, traps and carriages, twenty-five in number, the drive was enjoyed about that interesting city of parks, shade trees, handsome streets and buildings. And then at 1 o'clock the West picked up its course for Cleveland. It was fully 8 o'clock before the forest city was reached. It was almost dark and lowering skies threatened and boomed trouble, but a chance was taken and aboard another line of coaches and trolleys the party started to see Cleveland by electric light. It had just cleared up raining at Cleveland and the stars came out. We obtained a very good view of the business and residence section and saw Superior streets, Euclid and Prospect avenue, so as to appreciate part of their beauty. At 10 the last coach swung up to the West's gangway and a little snubnose tug snorted and pushed us Buffalowards and then we sailed away past Cleveland's long shore line of electric lights on to the Pan-American city.

It must be said in passing that the Cleveland Business Men's Convention League certainly loses no chance to do the right thing at the right time. Secretary E. W. Doty and Assistant Secretary Clifford Quigley, knowing The Journal's party was coming had printed a special edition of handbooks about Cleveland with a little paper bearing these words, "Welcome to the Minneapolis Journal's Pan-American Excursion, June 21, 1901." There was a copy of that interesting booklet for each member of the party.

The four drives at Duluth, Mackinac, Detroit and Cleveland were features of the excursion that were delighted. In his report the Journal's party has been to the best possible advantage in the time at disposal. The party will remember its drives. Saturday is another fine day and we will reach the city by 10 o'clock. But that's another story.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN LOCUSTS

State Entomologist Finds the Real Thing in Otter Tail County.

Special to The Journal. Fergus Falls, June 24.—At the request of citizens of Rothsay, the state entomologist visited several farms in the vicinity of that village and found Rocky Mountain locusts in large numbers. Several farmers there secured hoppers, locusts and are going to work immediately to exterminate the pests.

ULTIMATUM TO STRIKERS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 24.—The Central Railroad today issued an ultimatum to the 900 strikers at the Ashby shops of the company, stating that all the men who do not return to work to-morrow morning shall consider themselves discharged. Their places will be filled. The strikers say there will be trouble if non-union men come here.

Omaha, Neb., June 24.—Cashier C. E. Cotton of the Syracuse (Neb.) National bank, had been saved from the penitentiary, as his wife and sisters believe, through the efficacy of prayer. Cotton has been on trial in the United States court on the charge of making false reports to the controller of the treasury and of perverting funds to his own use.

Mrs. George Ballentine, a sister, came from Denver to join her efforts to those of the wife and younger sister. These women are believers in the practical efficacy of prayer. The bank officials laid documentary proof before the court, showing all the details of the alleged shortage, but the jury's hearts seemed softened. It had come to their knowledge that Cotton had made restitution in the amount of $18,000, and in spite of apparent discrepancies they did not believe there had been any criminal intent. The minimum penalty, also, is five years, which the jury thought too severe. Cotton was finally found innocent after the jury had deliberated for eighteen hours. His acquittal is as much due, his family believes, to prayers as to facts.

PRAYING HIM TO DEATH

PRACTICE OF HAWAIIAN CRANKS

Governor Dole Is Temporarily Incapacitated by Illness.

Correspondence of The Associated Press. Honolulu, June 16.—In an opinion supplied to the house committee on judiciary, Attorney Thomas Fitch has expressed the view that Secretary of the Territory Cooper was not legally acting as governor. The opinion held that Governor Dole's present condition does not constitute "disability" within the meaning of the organic act. The house passed a resolution declaring that the doubt would affect any appropriation bill that might be passed and requesting Dole to either resign, resume his office or leave the territory long enough to allow Cooper to qualify.

Governor Dole left on the same day for Hawaii. He stated that he would probably be away about two months. In reference to a report that he had forwarded his resignation to Washington, Governor Dole said the report was untrue. As to his disability he said that he had been advised by his physician that he was not in fit condition to perform the duties of the office of governor.

"Kahunas" are at work on Governor Dole, praying against him, according to the old native idea of praying enemies to death.

RHODES' LATEST IDEA

Cecil Will Try to Import Chinese Laborers into South Africa.

New York Sun Special Service. London, June 24.—Cecil Rhodes is coming to England next month to secure the sanction of the imperial government to his scheme for importing Chinese labor into South Africa. The famous empire builder will attempt to persuade his majesty's ministry that mercantile economies are necessary to recoup South African mining interest for the losses incident to the war, and that cheap labor is one of the sources of recovery to which they will be compelled to turn.

Mr. Rhodes will have to depend on his own persuasiveness and the influence of his friends at court to win imperial endorsement for his project, which is opposed by the government of Rhodesia as well as by the government of Cape Colony. The miners of South Africa are solidly arrayed against it. They have resorted to violence in several instances, in order to exclude their yellow competitors. They threaten to invoke it further in case of emergency.

PECULIAR FATALITY

Colonel Thomas C. Sloan Dies in a Yachting Accident.

New York Sun Special Service. New York, June 24.—Colonel Thomas C. Sloan, commander of the old guard and an active business man, met his death by drowning in a peculiar yachting accident off Keyser Island, South Norfolk harbor, yesterday afternoon. The body was recovered. Colonel Sloan and a young woman to whom he was engaged went out in a thirty-foot sloop, and when rounding Keyser's island, noticed the approach of a squall. The sails were lowered, the little craft anchored in the lee of the land, and the party had just taken refuge in the cabin when a sudden gust of wind fairly lifted the yacht out of the water and dropped it back, again, broadside uppermost. Colonel Sloan's companion was rescued.

SUGAR DOWN

New York, June 24.—The American Sugar Refining company reduced all grades of refined sugars 10 points. The National Sugar Refining company followed this out, but Arbuckle's prices remain unchanged.

MURDEROUS PEACEMAKER

Would Stop a Fight, but Killed One of the Fighters.

Chicago, June 24.—A man whose intentions apparently were those of a peacemaker, became a manslaughterer shortly before midnight, when William Moriarty, a bill poster, was shot to death. There had been a quarrel and a fight in which three noncombatants were injured. Bricks and stones were flying through the air as four bill posters, one of whom was Moriarty, fought out a grievance that had its source in Moriarty's discharge from the services of the billposting company. The man who did the shooting was standing on the sidewalk near the corner of the street. Three arrests were made, the men taken in custody being Charles Hill, Thomas Brennan and Al Owens. They were the three men with whom Moriarty fought.

Chinaman Kills One Companion and Fatally Wounds Four.

Ladner, B. C., June 24.—Five Chinese market gardeners were attacked last night by a former Chinese companion who apparently had lost his mind. One Chinese was killed and four were fatally hurt. ALMOST LYNCHED

Chicago Negro Who Had Stabbed Seven Persons.

Chicago, June 24.—After stabbing seven persons, Harry Williams, colored, barely escaped lynching last night at the hands of an angry mob. The trouble was caused by a stabbing affair in which Williams had acted as principal. A man who gave his name as Harry Thomas, accidentally ran against the negro. A quarrel followed; then Williams drew his knife, stabbed Thomas five times. Brandishing his knife he ran down the street, stabbing six other persons who tried to stop him. Thomas, it is thought, will recover.
