MIKE'S VIEWS OF WHEAT GRADES

"On 'change' they are telling a story that gives a certain North Dakota farmer's opinion of wheat grades.

The farmer, a son of Erin, was called on by a collector for a farm implement concern which wanted money. After listening to the collector, he shook his head, and said:

"I can't do anything for ye. This country is goin' to th' devil. Shure and bad enuff it was before these dommed elevater men came. Now, be jabbers, we have no number war heard at all. RAILROAD NOTES.

President Mellen of the Northern Pacific is expected home from New York to-day. The total railroad construction for this year promises to exceed that of any year since 1890. Already 1,817 miles of track have been laid, and the total for the year is expected to be fully 5,000 miles.

A big force of men is at work grading for the new smelter. This road is partly completed, there being but a few miles ungraded.

GRADING SOUTH OF ORIENT, S. D.

Special to The Journal. Rapid City, S. D., June 29.—A crew of workmen has begun grading south of Orient, and everything points to an extension of the Milwaukee road into Charles Mix county. This is a great surprise to everybody, as it has been kept very quiet. A large dayward is already under construction at Roscoe, and other preparations for supplies for workmen are being made.

THERE MAY BE SOME CHANGES.

San Francisco, June 29.—Several officials in the auditing branch of the Southern Pacific have received notices requesting their immediate appearance at Omaha, which is already laid to the old chlorination works, to the smelter. A big force of men is at work grading for the new smelter. It is rumored here that the Burlington company has purchased the right-of-way and improvements of the Dakota-Wyoming Railway company, between this city and Mystic. This road is partly completed, there being but a few miles ungraded.

Special to The Journal. Minot, N. D., June 29.—The announcement from Devils Lake that Judge F. Cowan may possibly be a candidate for the United States senate creates much interest in this vicinity. BEATEN BY TRAMPS

J. J. Riley's Death Traced to Injuries Received a Month Ago.

Special to The Journal. Lead, S. D., June 29.—The death of J. J. Riley at Alliance, Neb., may cause the arrest of certain tramps who were in this part of the hills with a traveling circus about a month ago. Riley was slugged and severely injured at the time by these fellows, and it was feared that he would not survive, but he got better and left for Cripple Creek. When as far as Alliance, his strength failed him and he was taken to a hospital, where he died. He was at one time a member of Hosiery company No. 1 of this city.

HELD NULL AND VOID

Petitions of Consent Knocked Out by an Iowa Judge.

Special to The Journal. Iowa City, Iowa, June 29.—Judge Wade held down a decision this morning in which he held invalid the statement of consent, under which about a dozen Iowa county saloons are doing business. The action on which he rules is one brought by the anti-saloon league as an appeal from the decision of the Iowa county board of supervisors. The saloonists of Iowa county—eight in number, one in Williamsburg and two in Parnell—filed statements of consent, which bore the required 65 per cent of names. Those actually engaged in fighting the liquor men succeeded in inducing 200 signers to withdraw their names. A statement of such withdrawal was filed, but the board of supervisors held that the petition was

SOFT COAL SHIPMENTS

Heavy Movement From the Port of West Superior.

Special to The Journal. West Superior, Wis., June 29.—Coal is being moved out to interior districts at a faster rate than for many months. The demand for soft coal can hardly be supplied at the present time. It is going to Nebraska, the Dakotas, Iowa and other points in such quantities that the railroads are having hard work to move it. The price goes up 10 cents per month at wholesale, and will be advanced 25 cents per ton on July 1 by the retailers, so that outside men are making an effort to get as much as they can.

A telephone line from Ronneby to Foley is completed, and the business men are

ROOM FOR DISPLAY

This condition of affairs is realized by the state fair managers and they will leave no stone unturned to make the coming fair fully representative of the northwest. The co-operation of exhibitors—both city and country—who have something representative to exhibit, is asked and there seems no doubt that it will be freely given. The new agricultural building will afford a splendid place for the display of grains and fruits and there is likely to be such a display of forestry, minerals, fishes, dairy products, manufactures and raw materials as to convince the world that Minnesota is the richest state in the union. Above all there will be a display of Minnesota's people such as has never been seen before. A mass of happy, prosperous, well fed and well dressed people, who will advertise Minnesota as nothing else could.

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK

The general outlook in theatrical circles is very encouraging just now. I don't know but that the much berated theatrical trust has in some respects been a good thing for us. The trust has done something to bring existence to one of the worst features. There's no wear and tear to compare with this one-night stand business. Now the theatrical trust is in a measure responsible for the organization of so many stock companies, which enable actors to do business in certain cities for the entire season, thus allowing them to enjoy the comforts of home. Besides, the trust has done something toward the elevation of the stage by demanding high class productions and the best talent. The result has been a gradual weeding out of actors of the barnstorming variety from the metropolitan centers. The good actors are assured of positions commensurate with their ability, and the bad actors have been forced to take to the woods and the rural districts.

THE "WHITE RATS."

The White Rats, an organization which was formed partly with the idea of combating the encroachments of the trust and to conserve the interests of the profession generally, is doing a splendid work.

MAIL DELIVERY FOR LAKE FOLK

It is probable that a summer arrangement for the delivery of mail to the cottagers of the Excelsior district will be announced soon. Rural routes are already being operated for points west and south of Excelsior the year round, and the service will be extended on or before Aug. 1 to the cottages of the lower and upper lakes as far as the Excelsior district extends. This includes the short line from Gray's Bay or the outlet at the creek around to Lake Park and along the shore of the upper lake. The Wayzata district is also under consideration, it is said. The route would include the cottages from as far north as Spring Park to the outlet of the lake where it meets the boundary of the Excelsior district.

At White Bear a rural mail delivery will be established on or before Aug. 1 from the postoffice at White Bear. One delivery will be made each day. Wildwood will be omitted. The service will be maintained the year through.
