

LAKE MINNETONKA

The management of Hotel St. Louis gave a luncheon today to the children, guests of the hotel. The party was formed in a line of march in the dining-room to music by the orchestra. The tables were trimmed with water lilies and thirty-five young guests were seated at them. The name cards were printed with roses and forget-me-nots and made pretty souvenirs. In the afternoon the party was taken for a delightful trip on the Mayflower.

Mr. Noyes, mistress of ceremonies at the hotel, is planning a novel and attractive tennis ball for Tuesday evening of tennis week and numerous other special social features which will be held during the week. A number of happy little impromptu parties of which Mrs. Noble's head is full and which add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

This evening the regular hop promises to rival those that have passed in numbers, beauty and interest. Following the party Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Welch and Miss Eddy will give a party to a party of friends at the Welch cottage near the hotel.

The fame of the Friday night hops at Hotel St. Louis has spread far and wide and the party last night was no exception. The dance and gayety which has been given at the lake this year. The round the lake visitors came from lower lake points all the way to the upper lake. The party was given at Hotel St. Louis and Hotel Cottage. The latter the Mayflower for the trip to the upper lake. About fifty of the party were housed at the Hotel St. Louis and the rest remained at the Hotel Cottage. The evening, getting finely cooled off in the refreshing breeze which blew strong all evening. On the return trip the Bijou orchestra furnished music for the boat down to Otero guests, while she lay at the dock at the close of the hop. The Juno and Aote brought other large parties from about the lake and the party was very large.

Among those out from town for the party was a dancing club of young married people which had a number of guests. The party members dined together at Hotel St. Louis and in the interval between dinner and the hop took a boat ride on G. W. Welch's launch, the White Lily, and the Etoile.

The party was almost wholly a shirt waist affair and the effect was pleasing to the eye. Several companies are daily selling oil for fuel to a hundred different industries, from rice and lumber mills to sugar refineries and power plants; one company alone produces the week ending June 29th, 142 carloads of 6,500 gallons each; another has 94 tank cars now steadily in service, and is having more built; the use of fuel oil has been commended on the southern railroad, and it will be only a short time before it is all bidding for the Texas product.

The Export Oil & Pipe Line Co. is a business men's company, organized on business principles to do a commercial business in the production and sale of oil and will soon be in a position to do its share in meeting this constantly growing demand.

Mr. W. T. Campbell, Second Vice-President of the Citizens' National Bank of Beaumont, writes regarding the Spindle-Top oil fields: "In my opinion you are as certain of a gusher as though a well was now drilled and spouting oil."

With a sure product and a sure market there is no question of the Export Co.'s doing a successful business.

For the purpose of developing the properties of the company, a limited amount of capital stock is offered at par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable. REMEMBER that when the well "comes in" the stock goes out—that is, off the market. The only time to secure it at any price is before oil is struck; and the only time to secure this stock at 60c is now.

attending the hop at Hotel St. Louis in the evening.

Mr. J. M. Winslow entertained the ladies of Meadville Park and Fairview at a thimble hop at Hotel St. Louis in the evening. The party was formed in a line of march in the dining-room to music by the orchestra. The tables were trimmed with water lilies and thirty-five young guests were seated at them.

Mr. E. F. Reeve of Hotel St. Louis, when a resident of Detroit, Mich., was justly celebrated among his friends as an expert fisherman. He brought with him to Minneapolis a number of his other possessions one of the finest fishing outfits in the northwest, but for some reason last season Mr. Reeve failed to make connections with the festive bass and the friends to whom he promised large catches were accordingly disappointed.

This evening the regular hop promises to rival those that have passed in numbers, beauty and interest. Following the party Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Welch and Miss Eddy will give a party to a party of friends at the Welch cottage near the hotel.

CHILDREN ARE FEW

IN LOCAL HOSPITALS

Every Institution Has Some Provision for Little Patients, but Accommodations Aren't Used

---Not Because Children Aren't Sick.

Little years have witnessed a marvelous progress in the knowledge of how to care for the child. The child is no longer a patient, but a person. The child is no longer a patient, but a person. The child is no longer a patient, but a person.

Right here is a field for truly charitable work in supplying funds for the endowment of beds. Clubs of young people have, at times, assumed the responsibility of one or more beds, and for years have not only enjoyed them, but have taken an interest in the occupants which has proved as helpful to the donors as to the pitiful bits of humanity who have been given a chance to live.

Endowed Beds Needed.

Such outside interest is rare in hospital circles. It is a pity that the hospital which has a field for truly charitable work in supplying funds for the endowment of beds.

Why so Few Children.

Now, to return to the reason for so few children being found in Minneapolis hospitals. Perhaps one cause is the tenacity with which the parents cling to their children, believing that mother love and watchfulness are more able to cope with disease than the skill, however unquestioned, of any one outside the family.

Occasionally an emergency case is brought in. There is an accident on the street. A child is hurt before the parents have time to get an ambulance called. The child is brought to the hospital. Some fever patients, or children requiring surgical operations, are brought in, when, in the meantime, the parents are waiting for that call for care which cannot be given at the home. Yet, after all are noted, rarely do six children at one time receive care, which is free to the worthy poor.
