

IN FLOOZY WEATHER The Constitution Again Shows Her Superiority Over Columbia.

SQUADRON RUN OF THE N. Y. Y. C. It Was a Close Race, However and Pleased the Yachtmen Who Saw It.

New Haven, Conn., July 24.—Again yesterday did the Constitution prove speedier than the Columbia in light airs and squally weather. It was in the first squadron run of the New York Yacht club from Huntington to Morris cove. Her victory was complete as she led the Detroit over the finishing mark by over two minutes and beat the Cadillac and Illinois by about six minutes.

The race was over a triangular course, twenty-one miles in length, each leg of the course being seven miles. The wind blew at eight miles from the east-north-east and the latter part of the race increased to twelve miles.

The boats finished in the following order, the given time being actual sailing time covering the twenty-one miles: Milwaukee, 2:23:50; Detroit, 2:33:24; Cadillac, 3:29:22; Illinois, 3:29:10; Minota, 3:38:41; Orion, 3:40:35; Prairie, 3:43:09.

THEY BET ON "CASH" And Nearly Mobbed Him When His Old Skate Lost.

London, July 24.—"Cash" Sloan, the American jockey, who has been riding in Russia, had an exciting experience at the Moscow races, where he narrowly escaped death at the hands of a furious mob.

Special to the Journal. Cumberland, Wis., July 23.—The fourteenth annual intercounty fair will be held in this city Aug. 28, 29 and 30, under the auspices of the Cumberland Agricultural and Driving Park association, and promises to be a record-breaking event.

There was a trifle more weight to the wind and a perceptible heel to the craft when Columbia crossed the line. Several congratulatory whistles were blown and the two antagonists sailed into the harbor and dropped anchor inside the breakwater while the non-combatants and steam yachts sought shelter in the Morris cove.

Next to finish were Quiescetta, Balabow, Corona, Alpena, Navahoe, Alisa, Emerald, Muriel, Vigilant, Ellma, Katrina, Laetonia, Kumma and Hester. The auxiliary yacht Intrepid came in under strain and her competitors followed her example. Thus no prize will be awarded in their class.

The official time of the yachts at the finish was: Constitution, 5:58:41; Columbia, 5:42:15. The other winners were: Class B, schooner, Corona; special class D, schooners, Quiescetta; class D, (regular), Katrina; class F, schooners, India.

In the yawl class, Navahoe, won. In class H, sloops, Rainbow, won. In class I, sloops, Humma, won. In class L, sloops, Effort, won, and in class M, sloops, Cymra, won.

Length of course, 23 miles.

BICYCLE BUILT FOR TWO Miss Boucher Rode Tandem in Making Double Century.

Acting on information filed against Miss Blanche Boucher by A. A. Hansen, Paul Gyllstrom, chairman of the road records committee, has refused to credit the Minneapolis cyclisme with the double century which she claims to have made two weeks ago over the Minnesota course.

The evidence at hand is said to show conclusively that Miss Boucher only rode 150 miles of the course on her own wheel. Being seized with cramps on one of her last trips to Minnetonka, she is said to have acted on the suggestion of Frank J. Burtischer, one of the pacemakers, and changed places with Theodore Clements, who was on the rear of the tandem. Clements testifies that he called Miss Boucher's attention to the irregularity of the proceeding.

Miss Boucher made the double century in 17 hours and 15 minutes, said to be the fastest double century yet made by a woman in Minnesota. The Century was "spiced," "seasoned," "expedited" by soap quip

DIDN'T HIT SPHERE That Is Why the Millers Lost Yesterday's Game.

KID McNEELY PITCHED THE GAME Robe and Congalton Found Him, but the Rest Lacked Good Eyes.

Robe and Congalton were the only Millers who seemed to realize that when "Kid" McNeely threw the ball at the plate yesterday, they were expected to await it hard.

The duo pitched a double and a triple in the sixth round and saved the game from a shut-out, but they could not win the game alone. It is true that Robe and McCredie also negotiated triples in other innings, but again there was no chance to bring the waiting ones home.

It is some gratification to the local fans that their favorites did not lose by poor team tactics, Bandellin especially distinguishing himself with the ashken stick.

The other ex-Millers, Bandellin and Tannhill, played like flyers against the old team mates, Bandellin especially distinguishing himself with the ashken stick.

Three wild pitches tried to twirl for Jimmy Ryan and the Ryanists yesterday, but the Denver players, like Philadelphia would render no respectful homage to any of them.
