Lake Minnetonka

The closing hop of the season at Hotel del Otero was by far the most enjoyable of an unusually pleasant and attractive series. The amusement of a picnic hop at Spring Park for to-day created the mistaken impression in some quarters that the hotel party had been postponed until to-night and doubtless some missed the party on this account.

The programs were handsome souvenir affairs with illustrations of lake scenes. The music for twelve numbers was provided by Selbert's orchestra of St. Paul and its spirit and melody was warmly appreciated.

Next Wednesday Miss Helen Janney will give a dinner at the Lafayette club. G. W. Porter entertained a few friends informally at the club on Wednesday. The invitations for the R. J. Hill dinner have been recalled to the death of a near relative of the family.

Miss Elizabeth Donaldson gave a luncheon yesterday at Crest Haven in honor of her guest, Miss Wilson of St. Louis. This was followed by a launch ride and a croquet tournament, in which the prizes were won by Mrs. A. W. Strong and Miss Helen Janney.

Lake dwellers have a treat in store for next Thursday evening when the Anderson concert company will appear at the town hall in Excelsior. The members of the company are all artists.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall of Hotel del Otero gave a dinner party last evening at the hotel, at which the guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. Penrose and the Messrs. Matford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young, of Washington, Iowa, who left to-day for home after a month's stay at the hotel, gave a family dinner party last night. The table was adorned with a handsome centerpiece of pink and white carnations and tall Japanese lilies.

This evening Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Bemis of Minnetonka Beach will give a dinner to celebrate the birthdays of Dr. Bemis and Mrs. W. R. Cambridge, which fall upon the same day. The guests will be the members of the two families.
