

THOUSANDS MARCHED TO URGE NOTES

The great cathedrals of Canterbury, Dublin, Glasgow and other cities, and the churches of all denominations throughout the land, were filled with congregations, many of them led by pastors and corporations. All the exchanges in the kingdom were closed.

The services in the American and British churches on the continent were generally attended by the members of the families, cabinet ministers, court functionaries, naval and military officials, city officials and great numbers of American and British consuls and consulates.

Repeating to Mrs. McKinley's acknowledgment of his telegram of sympathy, King Edward to-day telegraphed to Ambassador Choate:

Please convey to Mrs. McKinley my best thanks for her kind message. The queen and I feel most deeply for her and for the great affliction and pray that God may give her strength to bear her heavy cross.

MAY BE IMPORTANT

Clue to a Conspiracy Believed to Have Been Found. WOUNDED ANARCHIST IN IOWA. Printed Circulars From Los Angeles Will Be Decried by Secret Service Men.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 19.—On the person of a wounded prisoner, an anarchist, the police have found a letter mailed from Los Angeles two weeks before the shooting of President McKinley that promises to furnish a clue to a conspiracy.

The letter contains two printed circulars, a strange mixture of letters and figures. The clue is believed to be an important one. Some expressions already deciphered are "Beat at Buffalo exposition," "Whatever happened is to be repeated," "Lincoln's assassin," "The Light Anarchist dream of doing duty," "So in the matter of the President life," "People perish for lack of wisdom," "Prevention better than assassination," "Socialists skulking out of anarchy into respectability repudiates the tactics of the bullet," "Emma," "Twenty-five years struggling for socialism."

The circulars are headed "The Eagle eye-X." Words are ingeniously interwoven with numerals, broken at points, so as to appear as biblical references. The clue is believed to be an important one and the circulars have been forwarded to secret service officers for translation.

HUDSON A WRECK

Crew of Twenty-five Men Probably Met Watery Graves. Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Sept. 19.—News of the probable loss of the Western Transit steamer Hudson with crew of twenty-five men on Lake Superior last Monday was brought by the steamer Nicol which reached here from Duluth early to-day.

According to the report of Captain McLean of the Nicol the Hudson left Duluth for Buffalo some time after the Nicol and passed the steamer on Sunday night. Monday morning the Nicol came up to the Hudson again about eight miles west of Eagle river. The Hudson was in a bad way with decks awash from the furious gale and pumps working hard.

Captain McLean said he had all he could do to save his vessel and could not render assistance. When he arrived in port he supposed the steamer Gilchrist had rescued the Hudson's crew. When he heard such was not the case he said there was no possible hope for the foundered ship.

The Hudson was valued at $200,000 and carried a full cargo of flour, grain and east-bound merchandise worth $100,000.

THE ALLIED THIRD PARTY

A NEW KANSAS CITY PLATFORM. Referendum, Public Ownership, Direct Vote for President and Senators, "Scientific Money."

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 19.—The delegates representing various political parties of reform, who came here to the "Allied Third Party" conference, held their first joint session last night, after two days of separate conference meetings behind closed doors.

The platform accepted demands the initiation of referendum and public ownership of public utilities; declares against land speculation and alien ownership; favors "scientific money, based on the entire wealth of the people of the nation, and not redeemable in any specific commodity, but to be full tender for all debts, to be issued by the government only, without the intervention of banks, in sufficient quantity to meet the requirements of commerce."

The purpose of the joint session was to decide upon the time and place to hold the convention which will ratify the action of this conference and perfect the permanent organization of the party.

The temporary organization was made permanent and a committee of five, consisting of one union populist, two middle-class road populists and two members of the public ownership party, was appointed to prepare an address to the public, outlining the principles and purposes of the reform movement.

The conference selected J. A. Parker of Louisville, J. H. Cook, Carthage, Mo.; and Dr. J. E. Chambers, St. Louis, as its national executive committee. The national convention will be held at Louisville, April 2, 1902.
