LAKE MINNETONKA

Pupils from the Minneapolis Amateur Choral and North Minneapolis singing school, also the boys from St. Mark's church choir, made a very happy and congenial party of young people to sail the waters of Lake Minnetonka last Saturday. Starting from Waukegan aboard the steamer Victor, these excursionists made a complete tour of the upper and lower lake, with stops at Excelsior, Lake Park and Minnetonka Beach. A large number of parents and adult friends likewise enjoyed the pleasures of this outing and aided in the care of the younger singers at luncheon time in Lake Park pavilion. During the afternoon the crowds and played songs of choruses was sung under the direction of G. H. Norvington, by the choir boys and also by the singing school pupils.

Yesterday was a reminder of summer, from the large number who came out to spend the day at the lake. The St. Louis train was a heavy one and was loaded with passengers for every point around the lower lake.

A large party of residents from Excelsior went to the Chaska fair on Friday. The trip was made on large hackracks. The Excelsior band accompanied the crowd and played spirited music during the trip and at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Church of Wildhurst have taken Dr. Shrodes' house in Excelsior and will remain at the lake until Jan. 1.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Shrodes of Excelsior will leave to-morrow for Buffalo, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, later going to Chicago. They will return in December.

The Hughes came out Saturday and remained until this morning at their cottage in Excelsior. They entertained a house party over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bell will close their cottage on Gideon's bay and return to the city this week.

Dr. E. R. Perkins will leave Tuesday for a trip to the Black Hills.

Miss Jessie Lovejoy of Minneapolis is spending a week with her cousins, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Perkins.

C. E. Sampson will leave to-morrow for Anconada, Mont., where he will spend the coming six months.

W. B. Jones will leave to-morrow for a two months' visit in the east. He will visit with his brothers in Bloomington, Ill., and in New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. P. Holdridge and Miss Rachel Holdridge will close their summer home, Blythe Point, at Meadville Park, and return to the city to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Stevens of Minneapolis are spending their honeymoon at Edgewood.

P. M. Woodman spent Sunday at his cottage south of Excelsior.

Baby's skin never chafes when Satin-Skin Cream is applied. It looks so good baby wants to eat it. 25c. Weinsold's.

Charles Van Campen was the guest of honor at a dinner Saturday evening given at the Commercial Club. Van Campen leaves this week for Scranton, Pa., where his marriage to Miss Genevieve Clarke will take place. The decorations and appointments were in red. The guests were George N. Peake, Dr. J. B. Mercer, Benjamin Stockman, Frank C. Hale, W. D. Morse, Rome G. Brown, Charles R. Fowler, S. F. Porter, Henry J. Moreton, C. F. Hepburn, L. B. Arnold, J. W. Jones, Charles D. MacKercher. Mr. Peake will be Van Campen's best man, and among other Minneapolis people at the wedding will be Miss Clara Harrington, who left for Scranton last night.

Mrs. G. H. Porter gave a dancing party Friday evening for her sister, Miss Wildes. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Grace Tilton, Messrs. Fred Smith, M. Strachan and B. Carmen.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cook entertained informally for their nephew, Arthur M. Cook of Rhode Island.

Mrs. H. Raymond Kneigt gave a supper the next evening for Miss Mary Kealy, who played the role of Agnes in "The Henrietta" last week. Miss Kealy was Mrs. Kneigt's guest over Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Davis were guests of honor at a reception given Saturday evening by the people of the Bloomington Avenue M. E. church at the residence. There were about 100 guests and Mr. Davis was presented with a handsome gold watch. Mrs. Davis was also remembered with gifts. Rev. F. A. Archer made the presentation speech and a musical program was given.

Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Sample were given a pleasant surprise Friday evening by the members of the People's church. Mr. Sample will leave shortly for Denver, Col., where he has accepted a call to the People's church, and the affair of Friday was a farewell visit. Rev. Mr. Dellgren will be minister at short speeches. Miss Nellie Erickson sang and Mrs. Della Whitney Norton gave a recitation. A light supper was served. The rooms were decorated with red and white roses.

Miss Marie Jaquet entertained a group of young people Friday evening at her home on Ninth avenue S. Games and dancing were the amusements and refreshments were served.

Thursday evening Mrs. L. F. Lofstett entertained a group of honor who were on Ninth avenue S. for Mrs. L. W. Dornheim of Ojata, N. D. A musical program was given by Mrs. Linton and Mrs. Gladys Mills.

GIRL TRAVELER'S SANG FROID

Pretty Brooklyn Globe Trotter Gives Advice to Other Girls.

New York Sun Special Service.

New York, Sept. 30.—Miss Theodora Elwell has just returned to her home in Brooklyn after having circled the globe unchaperoned and unattended save by the friends she met on the long journey around the world. Miss Elwell is only 22; is possessed of remarkable beauty and moves in good society. She is a womanly woman, having no sympathy with the new woman or one who affects the masculine. Miss Elwell is an independent as she is modest. She started on her trip around the globe in May last. Her destination, after leaving New York, was Melbourne, Australia, where her sister, Mrs. Arthur Winslow Jones, lives.

Miss Elwell's advice to young women who travel and live without chaperons, and who must depend upon themselves, is based upon her own experiences.

"The world makes a girl what she makes herself. I have been everywhere," she said to-day, "and everywhere people are respectful to you, your own self-respect; don't be timid, but avoid being forward, and respect will come. I don't believe any woman except an American could do as I have done."

Miss Elwell continued, "In the first place, there are no women in the world who are used to respect as the American women are. American men are respectful, and the very respect gives an American woman independence."

"No girl should start on a long trip without having perfect health. Even seasickness would be most embarrassing to a girl who is traveling alone. It is better to have a friend. Becoming ill would be simply horrible. All through my travels I did not have one single experience that made me feel that a girl could not travel anywhere in the broad world and be safe without a chaperon or a traveling companion. A woman who travels by herself must depend upon herself, and a woman who depends upon herself commands respect."

CLUBS AND CHARITIES

Club Calendar.

TUESDAY—

Woman's Home Missionary society of the Minnesota conferences of the M. E. church, Wesley church, all day.

Reception by the Methodist Episcopal church, 2 p. m.

Business Woman's club, business meeting, 3 p. m., Lyceum theater building.

Primary Sunday school union, Y. M. C. A. building, 3 p. m.

Elective Study club, Mrs. J. R. Hartzell, Minneapolis Falls, afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Talbot and Mrs. O. H. Clement gave a charming reception this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clement, on Stevens avenue, to inaugurate the season's meetings of the club. Cluster of pink and white roses were placed on the mantel and tables in the parlor and asters and marigolds furnished pretty decoration for the other rooms.

Mrs. Clement and Mrs. Talbot were assisted in receiving by Miss Shove, the president of the club. A delightful program was given. Mrs. Buckman read selections from a book by Mrs. H. E. Ladd, descriptive of a trip to Europe, and Miss McCumber of San Francisco, a daughter of Chaplain J. H. McCumber of Angel Island, gave two recitations.

Miss May Williams sang and piano numbers were given by Mrs. Williams. Light refreshments were served in the dining-room, which was in red. A great bunch of spiky carnations was in a tall vase in the center of the table, and the conference was closed by Mrs. J. W. Little poured chocolate and was assisted by Miss Dill of Prescott, Wis., and three little girls, Elinor Buckman, Clara McHugh and Grace Clements. There were about sixty women present.

sure and devoted practically the whole of her time to the duties of her office. This careful and prompt attention to the details of the work of all departments is responsible for the remarkable gains in membership and efficiency which have marked the time.

The only name yet mentioned prominently for the position is Mrs. G. O. Welch of Ferguson Falls, vice president of the seventh district. Sectionalism is not likely to enter into the contest, for the right to the position that can offer a strong enough woman.

Owing to the burning of the Arnold house in Owatonna, the only hotel accommodations of the place will be at the Owatonna House and most of the delegates to the convention will have to be quartered in private homes, where the rates will be one dollar a day.

A Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Westminster church will meet Wednesday afternoon in the chapel. The conditions in China will be studied this year and Miss Baker will speak on "Chinese Missions in America."

Mission Work Illustrated.

The fifth annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Minnesota conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church opened this afternoon at Wesley church with devotional exercises led by Mrs. McCoy; a welcoming address by Mrs. F. A. Hayward, reports of conference officers and district secretaries, a solo by Mrs. L. H. Everts, a talk on work among the Mexicans by Mrs. H. G. Harrison and young people's hour in which Mrs. Williams entertained. A hot supper will be served at 6 o'clock for all who wish to register.

NO JUNKET TO THE PINES.

Congressman Fletcher has officially announced that the congressional junket to the pine woods is off. This is a great disappointment to the Minnesota delegation, who were anxious to enlighten their colleagues and prepare the way for congressional action on the sale of Indian timber and the establishment of a national park.
